To the Agricultural Society of Frederick County.

JUNE 24th, 1870.

GENTLEMEN:—Your Committee in fulfillment of the duty assigned them, desire to state through their Chairman that they have supervised with careful attention and impartiality the trial of Reapers, as by appointment of your Committee, and report the results of their observation as most gratifying.
The field selected was in the vicinity of the Fair Grounds, and owned by Col. Charles E. Trail, and also in a field of Daniel Titlow. The grain was heavy and badly lodged, so much so as to challenge the merits and capacities of the most perfect Reaper. Much interest was manifested and many Farmers were in attendance during the progress of the trial. Six Machines entered into competition, the Champion, Hubbard, Valley Chief, Wood, Marsh Harvester, and Excelsior. All accomplished their task satisfactorily and well. The attention of your Committe was specially directed to the performance and execution of the Champion, Hubbard and Valley Chief. Your Committee after carefully criteizing the performance of the Reapers, have awarded the Premium to the Hubbard as the best Reaper, and your Committee was equally divided as to the best Reaper and Mower combind, between the Champion and Hubbard. With either Machine, a Farmer may feel assured of accomplishing his work satisfactorily.
Yours,
CORNELIUS STALEY,
july1 Chairman of Committee.
