Items of Local Interest

Mr. and Mrs. William Long and Mary Long, Pennsylvania avenue, spent Sunday in Frederick.

The annual Eisteddfod of the schools of Carroll county will be held tonight in Alumni Hall.

Mrs. Grace Bish, West Main street, spent the week-end with her son, Charles, near Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ober Schaeffer, Philadelphia, Pa., spent the week-end with Mr. Schaeffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Schaeffer, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welty and daughter Agnes, East Green street spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Devilbiss, Emmitsburg.

Carroll Lockard, Jr., who broke his collar bone recently had to have it reset by Dr. R. P. Bay, at Maryland General hospital, Baltimore.

Mrs. Joseph Hann and daughter Bernadette, Hagerstown, former residents of this city, were guests Sunday of the Misses Sheeler, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armacost and family, Chambersburg, Pa., and Miss Mabel Armacost, Philadelphia, spent Sunday as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Armacost, Chase street.

Saturday afternoon Thomas Woolfolk, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Woolfolk, East Green street, celebrated his eighth birthday by giving a party to a number of his young friends.

Over 200 members of the Holy Name Society of St. John's Roman Catholic church, this city, took part in the parade of the State Convention of the Holy Name Society held in Frederick Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Stevens, Lancaster, Pa., are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter born Tuesday. Mrs. Stevens was Miss Elizabeth Reaver, daughter of Mr. U. L. Reaver, this city.

Ralph Strasbaugh, Union Bridge, was arrested Sunday by Officer Blizzard for violation of the automobile laws in passing a car on a curve. He was brought before police Justice Hutchins and fined $10 and costs.

Two fire alarms were sounded Saturday the first one about noon, which was a chimney fire, on the George Hunter farm, Manchester avenue extended. The second one early in the afternoon was in the Winter store property, near Warfieldsburg, damages being slight.

John M. Reifsnider, youngest son of the late J. Milton and Nellie Reese Reifsnider, of this city, was married Wednesday in Detroit, Mich., to Miss Geneva Roony, of Toledo, Ohio. Mr. Reifsnider is a nephew of John L. Reifsnider, and Miss Josephine Reese, this city.

The graduating class and student body of Western Maryland College attended services at the Methodist Protestant church, East Main street, Sunday evening, the new pastor, the Rev. C. M. Elderdice, delivering a splendid sermon. Special music was rendered by the choir and a mixed quartet under the leadership of the organist, Miss Anna Shriver.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Levi Barnes, this city, entertained the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnes, Mr. Ralph Bonsack, Mrs. Theodore Yingling, Mrs. Claude Buckingham, children, Dorothy and Monroe, Miss Lydia Trostle, Mrs. John Weigle, Miss Lucinda Weigle and Miss Edith Weigle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes spent the week-end with Mr. Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Barnes, Doyle avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes were recently married at the bride's home in Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Barnes came East several weeks ago to take a position in Baltimore and Mrs. Barnes joined him Saturday. They will make their future home in Baltimore. Mrs. Levi Barnes spent several days with them this week.

Miss Gwendolyn Steele, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Steele of The Hill, this city, attended the wedding Saturday at 6 p. m. of her cousin Miss Mary Frances Dennis to C. I. Theodore Gould in Grace and St. Peter's Episcopal church, Baltimore. A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. Miss Steele is spending several days this week with friends in Annapolis and will attend the Naval Hop to-morrow night.

Mrs. Jackson Ebaugh, Carrollton, has sold her place and will move to Orangeville, Md.

Miss Anna Gethy, Baltimore, is spending two weeks with Mrs. Ray Lewis and family, East Green street.

Miss Mary Anna Frock, near this city, spent several days recently with friends and relatives in Littlestown.

Edward Sheeler, Camp Hill, Pa., spent several days this week with relatives in this city.

Mr. James M. Shriver, Union Mills, is converting part of the field south of his dwelling into a polo ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holmes have moved into their new home on Liberty street extended.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harbaugh, East Main street spent Sunday in Frederick.

Ira E. Dorsey, Uniontown road, has been appointed a representative for the Fairview Nursery Company.

Samuel Hughes, Carrollton, left on Tuesday for Chicago, Ill., where he will take a two-year course of gospel singing in the Moody Bible Institute.

Mrs. Susie Diehl, this city, spent Sunday in Stewartstown, Pa., where she visited her father, Mr. D. N. McQuay, of that place.

Mrs. David Myers and children Doris and David, this city, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Upton Lemon, Silver Run.

S. C. Stoner, West Main street, was elected a delegate from Patapsco Lodge, No. 160, Improved Order of Red Men, of this city, and attended the state convention held at Salisbury, Wednesday and yesterday.

The college endowment benefit card party given by Mrs. Francis Reese and Mrs. Noah Shaeffer Tuesday evening in the Koontz building, West Main street, was a decided success. There were twenty-three tables taken, a number of tables by out of town guests. Prizes were given.

A subscription card party will be given by the Westminster Branch of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the Rosewood Training School, Owings Mills, Md., at the Hotel Westminster on Tuesday afternoon, May 18, at 2 o'clock, for the benefit of the auxiliary.

Monday last Mr. Frank Brightwell, of Fair Ground Hill, returned home from a visit of three weeks to his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stone, of Birmingham, Alabama. Mrs. Brightwell, who went with him remained in Birmingham for a more extended visit.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Kastner, near this city, entertained a large number of friends in honor of Mrs. Kastner's 70th birthday. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. John Kastner, Mr. and Mrs. George Giggard, Miss Helen Kastner and J. Rickell.

On Thursday evening, May 6 at 8 p. m. there will be an entertainment given in Oakland M. E. church by the C. E. Society, of Harmony Grove church, of Gist, consisting of a play "The District School at Blueberry Corners," and a monologue "Si and I." Come bring your friends and enjoy the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Myers entertained at dinner Sunday the following: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zahn, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Flickinger and Walter Yingling, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Starner and Mrs. Reuben Humbert, Harrisonville and Mrs. Guy Kiler, this city.

Wednesday Mrs. Ida L. Schaeffer, sold her residence on the Littlestown state road, near this city, at public auction, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Bixler for $8000.00. Jos. D. Brooks, Esq., of this city represented Mrs. Schaeffer. Mrs. Schaeffer will now sell her household and kitchen furniture. See ad. in this issue of the Sentinel.

The Carroll County Ministerial Union met Monday morning at the Westminster Theological Seminary, with the Rev. E. R. Hamme, pastor of Silver Run Reformed church, acting as chairman. The Rev. R. S. Patterson, of Salem Lutheran charge, gave the address of the morning and took as his subject, "Evolution". Due to the removal from Deer Park M. P. church to Calvary M. P. church, Baltimore, in the recent conference, the Rev. E. R. Hamme, who held the office of vice president of the union was made president.

UNION MILLS

A splendid program, mostly of a musical character, was rendered in connection with the regular meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, last Sunday evening. Misses Gladys and Mary Hamme, two talented musicians of Hanover, delighted the large audience with several duets on the violin and piano. Others who were heard and who gave a good account of themselves, were the following: Misses Yates and Smith, of the Charles Carroll school faculty; a double quartette of the men of the congregation; Mr. Casner, editor of the Littlestown Independent; Mrs. Smith, the regular organist of the congregation; Chas. Myers, Littlestown, and Miss Henry, of Hanover. A one reel picture of the "Prodigal Son" was also shown. Mrs. E. R. Hamme was the leader for the evening.

On the evening of the 21 inst., a party composed of the upper classes of the Charles Carroll school, chaperoned by Misses Smith, Yates and Merrick, three of the teachers, made a trip to Baltimore, in one of Conaway's busses, to see the musical play, "Blossom Time", which was showing at the Auditorium. Those in the party, were: Misses Carrie Bixler, Isabelle Flickinger, Catherine Wetzel, Beulah Strevig, Anna Koontz, Roberta Brown, Helen Kroh, Kathryn Kroh, Larue Wetzel, Helen Dutterer, Emma Dutterer, Mary Miller, Mary O'Dell and Hilda Dutterer; Masters Raymond Lawyer, Irvin Flickinger, John Dehoff, Karl Bankert, Paul Bankert, Charles Bankert and Ralph Bankert.

An apportionment of over $1950 for benevolences, laid upon the Reformed congregation at Silver Run, for the year 1926, by Maryland Classis, was in excess, by four or five hundred dollars of any previous amount asked of the congregation for for that cause, yet, in a strenuous homestretch drive made by the consistory of the church which was completed last Sunday evening, the full amount was attained, and when Rev. E. R. Hamme, Silver Run, pastor, and his delegate elder, Jacob W. Frock, attend the annual meeting of classis, at Manchester, Md., next week, they can present a clean financial slate to that body. The apportionment averages about $4 per member on the Silver Run congregation.

The B. F. Shriver Co. is preparing to set out in asparagus a field of 18 acres, on the east side of the state road, a half mile north of Westminster.

In a game of baseball, last Friday, the Charles Carroll boys were defeated on their own field, by the Pleasant Valley school.

James M. Shriver is converting part of the field south of his dwelling, into a polo ground.

PLEASANT GROVE AND REESE

Regular services this Sunday at 9.30. A good congregation greeted the pastor last Sunday on his return to work after conference.

A committee is arranging a "Parents' Day" service for May 9th at the regular morning service. Further announcement will be made later on.

Ladies' Aid will meet May 8th at the home of Mrs. Dice. It is requested that all who have memory quilt squares wil try to hand them in at this meeting.

Mrs. Butler Gorsuch has returned from Baltimore where she visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marcie Brown, who spends the summers in our vicinity. Mrs. Brown is at present in a hospital suffering with serious kidney trouble. She has many relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Shipley had as their recent guests from Baltimore and Walbrook Mr. Eugene Shipley and friends, Mr. Arch Magee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Shipley and Mr. and Mrs. Elby Shipley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Blackstein entertained last week a bridal party, a brother of the latter, Mr. William Eyler, a former Carroll county boy now living in Hamilton, Ohio, and his bride, who was Miss Verna Farmer, of Kentucky. They visited also Mr. and Mrs. Berlin Caple and other relatives and returned to their home in Ohio on Monday.

MAYFLOWER

Much sympathy is felt here for Mr. and Mrs. William Buckingham whose barn burned down Monday morning. All the feed and machinery were destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stuller and Miss Bernice Yohn, spent Thursday in Baltimore.

Those spending Saturday evening with Mrs. John L. Freyman were: Mr. and Mrs. Edw. McQuay of Miami, Florida, Mrs. Susie Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Yohn and daughters, Mary, Pearl and Teresa.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Holly Bloom and left them a big girl.

We were agreeably surprised on last Saturday to find in our midst Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McQuay, of Miami, Fla., who were visiting Mrs. John L. Freyman, Mr. McQuay's sister. On Sunday they and many others motored to Stewartstown, Pa., to visit Mr. D. N. McQuay, an old war veteran who is 85 years of age and is residing with his daughter, Mrs. Harry P. Stitley, of that place. Amang those present were: Mr. D. N. McQuay, his son, R. W. McQuay and wife, of Alesia; daughter, Mrs. Susie Diehl, of Westminster; son, D. E. McQuay and wife, of Miami, Fla.; daughter, Mrs. John L. Freyman, of Winfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Stitely, Stewartstown, Pa., and many grand and great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. McQuay and Mrs. John L. Freyman spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Merle Yohn.

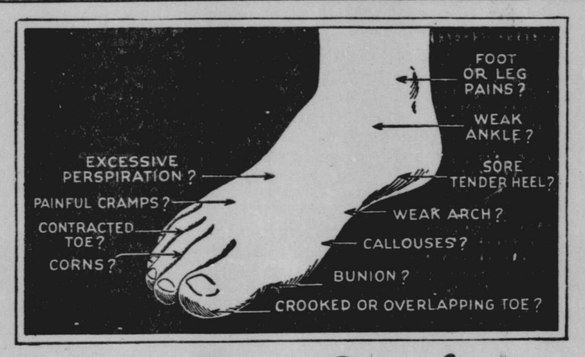

Perhaps the reason why the girls have to cover up so many facial defects, is that they are too much in the lime-light.

Demonstration Day At
Babylon & Lippy Co's. Store

Saturday, May 1st. 1926

For one day only.

One of Dr. Scholl's Foot Experts will be here to serve you. Bring your foot troubles to him. No charge for examination. Need not remove your hose. Remember the day and date, Saturday, May 1st.

Free Foot Comfort DEMONSTRATION Babylon & Lippy Co.

Seven persons out of every ten have some form of foot trouble. It may be weak or broken-down arches, weak ankles, corns, callouses or bunions or probably a case of tired, aching, painful feet.

Regardless of what may be the nature of your foot suffering, you will find quick and lasting relief at our store during this special demonstration.

Foot Comfort Expert from Personal Staff of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl

At considerable expense this store has arranged for the services of one of Dr. Scholl's most skilled foot comfort experts. He will be pleased to see, on the above date, all persons suffering from any form of foot troubles. His services are absolutely free.

Free Pedo-graph Prints of Your Feet

In a few seconds' time, without removing the hose, he can make a perfect impression of your foot that positively shows if you do have foot troubles and to what stage the trouble has progressed.

Come in and get a sample of Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads for corns. They remove the cause—friction and pressure. Sure, safe, instant relief.

Special Values In Linoleum and Rugs

Printed Linoleum two yards wide, special at $1.75 yard. Perfect Goods.

Velvet Rugs

Two Specials in 9x12 Velvet Rugs. A very good Velvet Rug $25.00. An extra good Velvet Rug 9x12 Beautiful Patterns with Fringe $30.00.

Window Shades

All Colors in Window Shades 59c. Oil Colors in all Shades at 79c. Either Outside or Inside Fixtures.

Oil Mops

A good size Oil Mop can now be had for 50c.

Curtain Rods

Dull Brass Curtain Rods in Single at 25c. Goose Neck Double Rods Dull Finish 50c. Extensions for Rods 15c each.

Curtain Scrims and Cretons

Curtain Scrims at 15c, 25c, 35c, 90c. Cretons 15c, 19c, 25c, 50c.

COAL! COAL! COAL!

LAY IN YOUR COAL AT LOWEST SPRING PRICES

ST. CLAIR SUPER ANTHRACITE, Guaranteed to be better than ordinary coal $15.50 per ton of 2240 lbs. delivered.

GENUINE POCAHONTAS, Guaranteed best grade $8.50 per ton of 2000 lbs. delivered.

BITUMINOUS EGG Coal $8.00 delivered 2000 lbs.

GENUINE BIG VEIN GEORGE'S CREEK $7.50 per ton delivered.

RUN OF MINE COAL $6.50 per ton delivered.
If paid cash a discount will be allowed.

PENN-MARYLAND PRODUCTS CO., Inc.
JOHN STREET
Phone 287. Westminster, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2319-0146