UNION MILLS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Charles Carroll parent-teacher association to be held on the evening of the 11 inst., the program will be given over mostly to subjects pertaining to health. The principal address will be made by a member of the state board of health who will talk on health conservation. Dialogues, playlets and motion pictures, harmonizing with the main feature of the program, will also be given. At this meeting, a committee appointed for the purpose, will submit for approval, a name it has agreed upon for the new athletic field of the school.

Let everybody turn out on Ascension day and help to make it the biggest of big days for the Charles Carroll. The program as arranged for that occasion beginning at 1 p. m., will be about as follows: Invocation by Rev. A. G. Wolf, pastor of the Lutheran church; naming, dedication and presentation of the new athletic field to the county board of Education; acceptance of same by Prof. Maurice S. H. Unger, county superintendent of schools; address by Hon. Millard F. Tydings, gemes of baseball and volley ball between the Charles Carroll and Pleasant Valley schools; supper served by the social committee from 5.30 until 7 p. m.; may pole dance from 7 to 8 p. m.; starting at 8 p. m., there will be music by the Kitchen band orchestra, dialogues by the faculty, motion pictures to make you laugh, cake walks and other attractions of a like character.

Another attractive program featuring music, was given by the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, at its regular meeting, last Sunday evening. Miss Edna Bowman, aged 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bowman, Hanover, and grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Frock, Union Mills, played her violin in a manner that would have done credit to one far beyond her in point of years. The Lutheran quartette, of Littlestown, and Mr. Forlines, Mr. Lippy, and Miss Hobby, of Westminster, were also on the program and acquitted themselves handsomely. Kenneth Kroh was the leader for the evening.

The patrons and many friends of the Charles Carroll school are jubilant that its orchestra captured the main prize at the Eisteddfod, at Alumni Hall, Westminster, last Friday evening. We all think that the adjudicator knew his business and that he was a just and upright judge. Prof. Edward Zepp teaches and directs the orchestra which is composed of the following pupils: Ralph Dahoff, Preston Crabbs, John Dahoff, Grace Dutterer, Blanche Boose, Roberta Brown, Helen Kroh, Beulah Strevig, Katherine Wetzel, Katherine Kroh, Anna Koontz, Emma Dutterer, Larue Wetzel and Hilda Markel.

Radio is a great scientific marvel, and it is also very wonderful that so many millions of people have been persuaded to listen rather than talk.

SANDYVILLE

Don't forget Sandy Mount Christian Endeavor Society will give a play in the basement of the church next Wednesday night, May 12, at 8 o'clock. The play is "Mother Mine," lasting two hours with splendid cast, fun, moral. Another dialogue will be given and special music. All cordially invited.

Christian Endeavor was interesting last Sunday night. Topic "The Ten Most Important Kinds of Work and How to Make Them Christian." The young people gave a number of them and had Kenneth Caple with them on black-board and a vote was taken which was the most important. Farming received the most votes, house wives second. Miss Irene Blum sang a solo, the young men sang a selection. Business meeting was held at the close and roll call. Good reports were given by the committees. C. E. this Sunday night at 7:45. All are cordially invited. Much interest is being manifested by the young people.

Sunday school this Sunday morning at 9:30 at Sandy Mount church.

Finksburg charge gave their pastor, Rev. Mr. McCaslin and family the largest reception since he has been on this charge at the Mt. Gilead church, Woodensburg, on Tuesday night. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants, cut flowers, and yellow and green crepe paper. After singing some selections and prayer by Mr. Tinkner, hearty addresses of welcome to the pastor and family by Messrs. Hundermark and Clifton, of Woodensburg; Mr. Wilbur Shreeve, of Finksburg; Mr. Elmer Caple, of Sandy Mount; and a splendid response by the pastor. A very enjoyable program was rendered. A quartet by Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Sill, son and daughter; duet by Wilmer Kay and Charles Armacost; solo by Mrs. Michael Bentz; solos by Miss Gertrude Armacost and John Magee; and recitations by Miss Margaret Buckingham, Mr. Ernest Woodeen, delegate to the Maryland conference held at Wilmington, Del. gave a splendid report of the proceedings. He also gave instructive illustrated pictures of China, India, and Japan where the missionary work of the M. P. church is conducted. Mr. Woodeen is to be comended for that part of the entertainment. Another pleasing feature was the presentation of a huge bouquet of flowers to Mrs. McCaslin as a token of love from the churches, presented by Mrs. John Armacost, who made fitting remarks. Mrs. McCaslin expressed her heartfelt appreciation in a pleasing manner. Mr. Clifton invited all to the basement where long tables filled with delicious refreshments were served to all. The tables were also beautifully decorated with cut flowers. A most pleasant time was spent by all.
