Samson's Riddle.

"Out of the strong comes sweetness," said the old Nazarite giant, when propounding his riddle to the Philistines. The problem of our modern Sampson, of Adams, is to ascertain how cheaply he can extract the sweetness of luxury out of the necessities of poor shoemakers who are strong enough to work eleven hours a day for the sum of twenty-three dollars a month. That our readers may understand the terms of contract for Chinese, and the consequent pro rata wages of white shoemakers, who must compete in the labor-market, we give the text of Sampson's contract with his Celestial "operatives:"

"SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 26, 1870.

This contract, entered into by Ah Young and Ah Yan, of San Francisco, and Charles T. Sampson, of North Adams, Mass., witnessed—That said Ah Young and Ah Yan, partners in business agree to furnish C. T. Sampson with seventy-five steady, active and intelligent Chinamen, such as are quick to learn a trade (one foreman, two cooks, and seventy-two workingmen) on the following terms and conditions:

They receive one dollar commission for procuring each man.

Wages of foreman sixty dollars per month for overseeing seventy-five men; if more men are added, to receive fifty cents on each man per month. Workmen and cooks to receive twenty-three dollars per month for first year, twenty-six dollars per month for second and third years, and for all time they stay after three years they receive twenty-eight dollars per month.

Pay-roll to be made up the first of each month, and the amount paid over the 10th of the month for the month preceding, in United States gold coin, or its equivalent. House, wood, and water furnished free to men. Two cooks to be employed for less than ninety men; for all above ninety, one cook to each thirty men

Time, eleven hours per day, from the 20th of March to the 20th September, and ten and a half hours per day, from the 20th of September to the 20th of March.

Lost time to be deducted, except when employer stops work for his own benefit, in which case men are to receive full pay. If stoppage of work occurs by accident, for one or two days at a time, the men are to receive thirty cents per day for board during the stoppage.

Railroad passage over to be furnished free, and if men work satisfactorily for three years or more, they are to have free passage back. Should the men be discharged by inability of employer to give them work, they are to have free passage back, and wages paid to time of stopping work.

The employer is to receive twenty-five dollars from the first six months' wages of each man as a security to him against a man's leaving before his time expires, the amount to be taken out of his montly wages—two dollars the first month, three dollars the second month, and five dollars each for the next four months.

Pay of men to commence when they begin work.

HOW TO PACK BUTTER.—The method of packing butter in common vogue on the Pacific coast, as will be seen from the following description is very unlike our own. They never use jars or kegs but put it in muslin sacks, made in such form that the package, when complete, is a cylinder three or four inches in diameter, and from a half to a foot in length. These sacks are made of bleached muslin and the butter goes into them as soon as worked over. The packages are then put into large casks containing strong brine with a slight mixture of saltpetre and by means of weights kept always below the surface. The cloth integument always protects the butter from any impurities that chance to come in contact with the package, and being always buried in brine, that protects it from the action of the air; and it has been ascertained on trial that butter put up in this way will keep sweet for a long time. These butter sacks are ranged upon the counters of the dealers as readily as bars of soap; when any portion of one is wanted the end of the sack is stripped down and the necessary quantity detached, leaving the remaining portion as secure as before any portion was removed. This plan might not be feasible in our climate without the aid of ice in summer, but the immersion in brine is worthy of consideration on the part of dairymen and butter dealers.

GOD AND HISTORY.—The following morceau suits our notion exactly:

God in history. It is impossible for any dispassionate mind to turn over the leaves of history and fail to see the hand of Divine Providence interfering with the gigantic conspiracies of men and parties, overthrowing time sanctioned and legalized systems of oppression, causing the recoil of ruin to recompense the way of the lawless upon their heads and counteracting by a thousand unexpected methods the spirit of evil which ever seeks to arrest what is good, pure, permanent and divine.

Were God to let the world alone man would become a fiend; angels would flee as from another Gommarrah, and cease to administer to it; Satan wearing his cornet of sin, and holding the regalia of hell, would lord it over sea and land; and time commencing with Paradise would end in Pandemonium.

TOMATO KETCHUP.—The following receipt is highly recommended:

Tomatoes, half a bushel; salt, six ounces; allspice, ground, six drachms; yellow mustard, ground, one ounce, five and a half drachms; black pepper, ground, three ounces; cloves, ground, six drachms; cayenne pepper, ground, two drachms; vinegar, one gallon.

Cut the tomatoes to pieces, boil and stew in their own liquor until quite soft. Take from the fire, strain, and run through a middling fine sieve, so as to get the seeds and shells separated. Boil down the pulp and juice to the consistency of apple butter (very thick), stirring all the time. When thick enough add the spices stirred up with the vinegar, boil up twice, remove from the fire, let cool and bottle.

CONFLICT OF AUTHORITIES.—In one or more of the Border States several Registers of Election have been arrested by United States Commissioners for refusing to register parties who served in the Confederate army. These Registers have acted in accordance with the State laws, but not conformable to a recent statute of the United States. Thus there is a conflict between State and Federal authorities. Representations have been made to the Attorney General of the United States, who, having been asked for his opinion, says he does not consider the question within his province, but that it is one belonging to the courts, to which effect he has given instructions to the Commissioners Marshals and others concerned.

GLORIOUS NEWS!

The Dark Days of Extortion have passed away!

Universal Deliverance from High Prices
IS AT HAND!

LISTEN TO THE GLAD TIDINGS!

Muslins 6¼ cents, worth 10 cents; Muslins 12½ and 14 cents, worth 15 and 17 cents; Standard Prints 6¼ cents; best American and Sprague Prints 10 and 11¼ cents; Jaconet Lawns to land in New York markets cost 10 cents in gold—WE SELL THEM AT 12½ cents.

GOODS ARRIVING
EVERY FEW DAYS!

Always something new; cheap and desirable. What think you of a Grenadine Shawl worth $2.75 at $1.25? Half a million dozen best 200 yards Spool Cotton 4 cents. It is a miracle! It is wonderful!! It is astonishing!!! How can it be possible? Sell goods at such prices and not fail! Best Aixlachapelle Pins and gold-eye Needles 3 cents a paper; best Aixlachapelle Broad Cloths and other articles, which have almost driven even English goods out of the American market—all these at

ONE-HALF AND QUARTER PRICES.

This is indeed a bitter pill for the so-called cheap stores, and a glorious wind-shake for the people. Altogether, it is a tremendous affair, and will call forth from its hiding place many a dollar laid by for a rainy day. Real Lace Collars, importation price $1.25, we sell them for 25 cents; Hooks and Eyes 3 cents; Hair Pins 3 cents; Hair Nets 3 cents; Ladies and Misses Lisle-thread Gloves at 12½; 15 and 20 cents; Ladies', Misses and Boys' Hose 12½ and 15 cents. Upon

RIBBONS AND VELVETS.

We are the king-bees of the city. Every thing in this line about 50 per cent. less than the usual price.

Table Linen 37½, 45 and 50 cents; superior quality 10-4 Table Linen 65 cents, 87½ cents and $1.00. Where else on earth can such bargains be had? Where elegant striped Delaines and Plaids for 10 and 12½ cents?

Why Pay War Prices for Goods,

when you can come to No. 17 West Patrick Street, and get elegant French Percals for 18, 20 and 25 cents? All 37½ Dress Goods for 20 cents; all 50 cents Dress Goods for 25 cents; Ladies' Fine linen Collars and Cuffs at 5, 8, 12½ and 15 cents. A large and well selected stock of WHITE GOODS, such as Piques, Brilliants, Plaid and French Muslins at prices amazingly low. A complete stock of Straw Goods 50 per cent. Cheaper than the Regular Price.

FLOWERS, the rarest, choicest and fairest, at 5, 8, 10, 15 and 20 cents.

So we urge the people to be cautious in buying of houses that never take the trouble and pains to hunt for bargains, but buy of men who understand the business, men who have agents living in New York city, in the Auction Rooms of Hogount, Gordon, Kobbe, Hoyt and Toping; men whose sharp-shooters are ever in the front; aye, buy of the house whose enormous trade is doubling every month, and who are the real defenders of the people against speculators, cormorants, and the so-called cheap stores all over the city—and never forget the name and place.
