Lukens, formerly of this city, and George W. Thomas, York, who were married Saturday afternoon. The bride was attired in a dark blue georgette dress, dark blue hat and carried bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley. After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lukens, Sr., they left by automobile for a two-weeks camping trip, north over the Susquehanna trail. After their return they will reside at Goldsboro, Pa.

An automobile accident occurred late Sunday night near this city, in front of the home of Edward Drexler, near Reese. Charles Sullivan and Wesley Lloyd, both of Finksburg, riding in a Chevrolet car driven by Mr. Sullivan collided with a Buick touring car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stoner, Mrs. Haines, Baltimore, and Miss Myrtle Lurry, Union Bridge. The Buick was traveling towards Baltimore and the Chevrolet towards Westminster. A physician was called and rendered the necessary professional aid as all were cut and bruised. Sullivan and Myers were very badly cut and it was found Lloyd had suffered deep gashes and a broken jaw bone and was immediately sent to a Baltimore hospital. A taxi took the occupants of the Buick to their destination in Baltimore. The Buick car caught fire and was completely destroyed. The Chevrolet which was also demolished was towed into this city by the H. V. and E. W. Harbaugh Brothers' service truck.

Mr. William F. Helm, the genial and accommodating gateman at the railroad crossing in this city, has repainted his "hut" inside and outside, polished the stove, cleaned the windows, and varnished his chair, making everything about the premises look "spick" and "span". He has one great regret. His friend, helper, and adviser, when he has work to do about the "hut," "Doctor" H. J. Jones, was, and still is, ill at his home on Railroad avenue, and, of course, was unable to give Mr. Helm any valuable advice, or to criticise the work involved in "cleaning up" the "hut" and the surrounding premises, as has been his habit in the past. Mr. Helm misses his friend Jones and with the many other friends of the "Doctor" hopes sincerely he will soon recover from his illness, and be on hand to help Mr. Helm relay a part of the pavement in front of the "hut," just as he did a few years ago and was reported to the "Hodcarriers' Union" for working for less wages and longer hours that the union scale.

WINFIELD

A series of three entertainments, which promise to be very interesting will be given in Winfield Hall on the evenings of June 3, 4, and 5 at 8:00 P. M., by the pupils of Pleasant Valley high school. "Savageland" will be the play for Thursday night. The first scene is at a summer hotel in the Katskill mountains, but later shifts to the wild and wooly west, where a search is being made for a missing pitcher of pearls. You will be interested to know "Who Weenah is and where she is hidden." Come help the detective find her. The other plays will be announced from the platform. Season tickets may be procured the first night, if you have not already gotten them. Should the weather be inclement on these days, the plays will be held the following week.

GREENMOUNT

The officials and leaders of the various organizations of Greenmount church are kept very busy with the many things on their church program.

The men's chorus is planning to make a trip to Foreston church on Tuesday night, June 1st to render special singing at the district Sunday school convention. ### MANCHESTER

Whitsuntide period has been here and gone with its many attractions that were enliving from beginning to end. Prior to the above period for some time the weather was cool, wet and rainy very disheartening to the committee but the work went on that was appreciated. The firemen's parade was: Glyndon, the first to arrive; then Reisterstown, Hampstead, Lineboro, Union Bridge, Westminster, (two machines); Taneytown, Owings Mills, and Cockeysville; J. B. Lynerd, H. Thermit, Elmer Lippy, were marshals and acted well, while the four state officers knew how to keep crowds within limits; J. B. Lynerd, Duttera and Theodore R. Strevig arranged the companies in line as they arrived. Westminster 16 members; Taneytown 15; Hampstead 4, (band); Reisterstown, 14; Owings Mills, 7; Cockeysville, 5; Lineboro, 44; band; Glyndon. Each band had 25 members.

Three companies were in blue shirts and white trousers making a good display. The contest was at 4 P. M. A committee arranged the route and distance from Dice's Lane fourth mile south of town to the centerfront of the firemen's hall.

Friday a blank until early evening when with children and band a parade of fun was enjoyed.

Saturday threatening and interrupted things in general during the business hours of the day but the increase of the crowd by early evening until midnight some business was done. The community service on Sunday with a brigat day was largely attended. Rev. Seabrook held the congregation to close attention.

Monday morning threatening but by early noon brightened and brought the crowds and a fairly good business was done; when the supper hour opened the ladies of the auxilliary were kept busy serving the patrons. Business took on new life and was good to the close. Among which was the parade of the decorated cars in a contest for a prize with Jim and Sallie as the motive power to a child's outfit with a gallon Zum-Zum-Zum to make them smile.

John H. Lynerd, of Washington, D. C., Miss Alva and Nellie Blany Simmons, Mrs. Florence Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lauvella, of Baltimore; and Mr. E. Franklin and wife were entertained by Mr. J. B. Lynerd and daughter at their cottage home on Sunday.

Erie LaMotte, of Baltimore, was a guest of his sisters, Edna and Carrie on Sunday.

The Luira Iron and Steel Co., of York, Pa., will be here on Saturday, May 29th and cross bats with our boys.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Hahn, this place, and Mrs. William Krist, Philadelphia, spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory C. Ebaugh, Bethel Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Oliver L. Heltibridle and family, Mayberry.

Don't forget the Memorial services and parade Saturday evening at 5:00 o'clock. A good program is being arranged with all services at the cemetery. A festival will be held at night. Everybody invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Heltibridle and daughter Betty, Northern Carroll spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eckard.

Sunday school at 1:00 P. M. sermon at 2 by the Rev. J. W. Reinecke. Y. P. S. in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Next Monday night, May 31st at 8:00 o'clock, the monthly Parent-Teacher meeting and school exhibit will be held at the Pleasant Valley school. The program will include a Mother Goose party by pupils of the first and second grades, of which Miss Powell is teacher. These little folks will all be dressed in their best costumes for the occasion. The pupils of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades, under the leadership of Miss Hyde and Miss Hansel, will also contribute several numbers. Illustrated slides of "Beauty Spots of California" and "The Canning Industry" will be shown. No admission will be charged, but a collection will be taken, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of the elementary department of the school. Home-made candy and fruit punch will be sold. Come, enjoy the evening and see the work done this year by the pupils of the school.

On next Thursday morning, the teachers and pupils of our high school, together with several ladies of the community will go to Winfield, this county, for a 3-day camping trip. They will present their two plays, "Savageland" and "College Town" on Thursday and Friday nights in Winfield hall. On Saturday, the members of the P. T. A. will give their plays. We wish them success. Both the boys' division and the girls' division are determined to obey all the camping rules, although they think one may be hard to follow, that of "everybody getting up promptly when the whistle blows."
