GRAND MASS MEETING,

There will be a grand mass democratic meeting in the

COURT HOUSE YARD,

On Thursday the 3rd of November, 1870.

Postponed!

The meeting at the Court House yard has been postponed on account of the rain, till to-morrow, SATURDAY NIGHT, the 1st of October. JOHN RITCHIE will positively address his fellow-citizens in the yard or basement, according to weather, on Saturday evening.

PUBLIC MEETING!

JOHN RITCHIE, Democratic Conservative nominee for Congress, and other speakers, will address their fellow-citizens at Emmittsburg, SATURDAY AFTERNOON, October 8, at 2 o'clock, and the same night, at Graceham. Men of all parties to the rescue!

ONE VOTE!

All the signs of the times indicate that there is a radical change taking place in the political mind of the country. North, South, East and West—wherever Elections have been held—there is observable an increasing tendency upon the part of the people to hark home to the old land marks of the Democracy. That this should be so is both proper and natural. For ten years the Government has been in the hands of a set of men, who, under the guise of patriotism, have challenged the world by their acts for a parallel to their reckless and corrupt legislation. States have been stricken down and subjected to the arbitrary rule of military satraps; Judges have been removed to make place for the subservient Scrogges of despotic power; or their mouths sealed by the subtle contrivance of ex post facto laws; the ballot box has been converted into a mere machine to record the foregone conclusions of speculating political conspirators; offices of emolument and honor have been sold for money; voters have been bribed or coerced against their convictions, the people—the laboring people—have been taxed—taxed—taxed until they groan under the burthen, only to fill a treasury to be used as a grand corruption fund to perpetuate power in the hands of the few. The American people are neither blind nor fools. They see all these things—they are beginning to fully appreciate them—hence, slowly, if you will, but very surely, they are seeking the remedy, where alone it is to be found, in the Democratic party. This great revolution is certainly going on. Right here in our own district we hear every day of one and another, heretofore against us, who are determined to vote against the corruptions of the powers that be. Now then—if ever—is the time to be in earnest. One Congressman lost in Maryland is one vote lost in the House of Representatives, and one vote in the House may determine the next Presidential election. Why has the dominant party so long retained power? The people are not less virtuous and patriotic than in the earlier days of the republic; they love their country just as much now as they did then. The answer is: the people have been kept in ignorance by their designing rulers.—The remedy is this—give to the Democratic party a majority in Congress—this will secure a Speaker—he will appoint committees of investigation, and then will come to light such astounding frauds and corruption as the world has never equalled; and which will cause the people to rise almost as one man to hurl from power the miscreants who have so abused their trust. The enemy is concentrating all his energy upon this Congressional district. Right from this district may come that one vote which will complete the triumph of the silent revolution which has set in, or re-rivet the galling chains which, for ten long years, have fettered the free sentiment of our people.

Let us go to work, then, with all our energy—all our might. The new element which has been thrust upon us over the ruins of the constitution can be neutralized Our people—we must believe—heretofore Radical or heretofore Democrat—will not consent to see their race dishonored and disgraced. We have a standard bearer in whom we can trust. Let us support him heartily—vigorously! and let us see to it that his defeat does not supply the one vote which is to perpetuate the rule of the men who have well nigh bankrupted the country and impoverished the people.

INSTRUCTING OFFICE-HOLDERS HOW TO VOTE.

There is a tremendous split in the radical party in Missouri. The conservative wing, headed by Carl Schurz and B. Gratz Brown claim for all white men the right to vote, and oppose the doctrine of Eternal Hate which animates the radical wing, led on by McClurg and Drake. General Grant must take a hand in this fight, and writes to one C. W. Ford, one of his Missouri Internal Revenue Collectors as follows:

"I regard the movement headed by Carl Schurz, Brown, &c., as similar to the Tennessee and Virginia movements, intended to carry a portion of the Republican party over to the Democrats, and thus give the Democrats control. I hope you will all see your way clear to give the regular ticket your support."

Having sent the federal troops into North Carolina to sustain Holden in his infamous outrages against the white men of that State, immediately preceeding the late election there, it is not surprising that Grant should now instruct his officials in Missouri to vote with that wing of his party which would deny to white democrats the privileges which have been conferred upon negroes by the XVth Amendment.

The day will come in Missouri when the petty tyrant who is now called President of the United States if presented, would be defeated as a candidate for leather inspector or wood corder.

EXAMINE THE REGISTRATION.

The number of negroes registered in the different districts of this county exceeds 1,700. This is several hundred more than the most sanguine radicals claimed or anticipated before the registers commenced their labors. We have heard of very few cases in which those presenting themselves for registration were rejected; and, the impression prevails, that many not entitled to vote, for the want of residence, age, or because of previous conviction of felonies, have had their names entered on the books of registration. The names of all who have been registered are now published in the Citizen or Union, as well as in handbill form, and it becomes the duty of every Democrat to carefully examine these lists, and communicate such information as he may have or obtain, touching the disqualification of any of these parties, to the register in the district where they have had themselves enroled as voters, in order that such parties may be punished as the law provides; and their names be stricken from the list by the register at the next sitting.

Strenuous efforts have been made for months past, by radical leaders to induce all colored men to register, because upon the number of their "new recruits," alone, they base their hopes of carrying this Congressional district. It is quite possible, therefore, that when to the natural anxiety to become voters there has been added the constant persuasion of the unscrupulous white radicals, many of them have disregarded the restraints and penalties of the law against illegal registration.

We urge unceasing vigilance in ferreting out the guilty parties and the adoption of measures to bring them to justice.

Honest colored men can best establish their claim to the ballot, by aiding in having the books purged of the names of all persons of their race whom they may know not to be entitled to vote under the law. Those entitled to registration must have resided in the county twelve months prior to the day of election, and must have attained the age of 21; while neither age nor residence will entitle either whites or blacks to vote who have served a term in the penitentiary.

70 MORE CHINAMEN.

At midnight on Tuesday night of last week the slumbers of the denizens of Belleville in New Jersey were disturbed by the tramp along the streets of 70 Chinamen who had just arrived by the Erie R. R. from San Francisco, imported by a Republican Philantrophist, Hervey, to work in his extensive laundry at that place. Hervey pays these celestials $8 per month, and rations, and has them leased or sold to him for a period of three years. Having secured this cheap labor Mr. Hervey, of course, has discharged all the white women and girls heretofore employed by him. He had made a large fortune off the labor of his white employees, but now turns them out to grass! So it is with the northern capitalists and manufactures in various localities—they are discharging whites and employing Chinese laborers. Their cry has been: give us protection on our fabrics, in order that we may encourage American labor, and complete with the pauper labor of Europe.

The present tariff so far as it effects domestic manufactures is higher, generally, than any previous tariff; but "the lords of the loom" and others, who get high profits on their fabrics, through Congressional legislation, at the expense of the farmers and other consumers, who receive no protection on the products of their labor, are now making contracts with Mr. Koopmanschap, a Chinese agent in San Francisco, for the importation of thousands of these Chinese slaves, who are introduced into their factories at wages which would reduce all American mechanics to absolute pauperism. And, yet, there are thousands and tens of thousands of American white laborers, who still persist in supporting a party which shows its hypocrisy by permitting and encouraging the emigration and employment, in all industrial pursuits, of a race of people who live on mice, snails and rats, and work for 30 or 50 cents a day. Is it not time that the working men of America should get their eyes open to the dangers which threaten their destruction.

JOINT DISCUSSION.

We are requested to publish the following correspondence:

Frederick, Md., Sept. 24, 1870.

HON. JOHN E. SMITH—Dear Sir:—I think the grave issues now before the people should be fully discussed; and I therefore propose that as soon as practicable, we enter upon a thorough joint canvass of this Congressional district.

As the time is short, I would thank you for a prompt reply. Details may be settled hereafter, when my friend, Dr. Wm S. McPherson, now out of town, will represent me. For any immediate arrangements I beg to refer you to Major Chas. H. Baugher, the bearer of this note.

Hoping the proposition will meet your concurrence, I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN RITCHIE.

This letter was handed Mr. Smith on Saturday morning, when he promised to give it prompt consideration. Capt. Ritchie waited until Tuesday evening—no response from Mr. Smith—when the following telegram was sent:

Frederick, Sept. 27, 1870, 5 p. m.

HON. JOHN E. SMITH—Westminster: Ritchie very anxious—answer informally immediately, that he may know.

C. H. BAUGHER.

The following reply was received at 2.35 p. m., on the 28th:

C. H. BAUGHER—Frederick city:—Smith in Cumberland—won't return until Saturday evening.

W. A. MCKELLIP.

Mr. Smith's friends have always regarded him as a courteous gentleman. From the foregoing statement it is evident that however radical in his politics, he is eminently conservative in his prudence. We fear he sacrificed his courtesy to his caution, and must plead "guilty" at the bar of public opinion

FINE GRAPES.—We are indebted to Mr. Joseph G. Miller, residing 1 mile east of Frederick, for a basket of very perfect Concord grapes. Mr. M. has a large number of vines, and we congratulate him on his success in grape culture.

JUBILEE.—On last Sunday the Sabboth School of the Lutheran Church of this city celebrated the fiftieth year of its existence. The services were of a very interesting character, and were witnessed by six or seven hundred persons.

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS.—The Agricultural Fair for Allegany county will be held at Cumberland on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th of October. The Fair for Carroll county will be held at Westminster on the same days of the same month.

FINE INK.—We return our thanks to Mr. Wm H. Hilleary, of Petersville, for several bottles of very fine ink, of his own manufacture. We have been using Mr. Hilleary's ink for several weeks, and unhesitatingly pronounce it a very superior article. Persons wishing a good article should give Mr. Hilleary a call.

PARTNERSHIP.—Dr. T. H. Schaeffer, has associated with himself in the practice of dentistry, Dr. J. N. Rentch, of Shepherdstown, W. Va. Dr. Rentch is a young man, and comes to this city highly recommended as a skillful dentist and worthy of public patronage. Their card will be found in the professional column.

ACCIDENTS.—Last week Mrs. Staley, wife of Cornelius Staley, Esq., residing three miles northwest of Frederick, had her arm broken by the handle of a crank on a hand cider mill, she having laid her arm in rest on the mill while it was in operation.

The same week Mr. John Cutsail, living on the farm of Mr. Wm H. Ramsburg, south of this city, had his arm broken by the kick of a colt.

WATER WORKS.—Our citizens are rejoiced to know that the improvements necessary to give us an additional supply of water will be completed in a week or two. The pipes have all been laid, and soon we shall have the waters of the Tuscarora pouring into the resorvoir; after which it is hoped that we will have an abundance of water during all seasons and for all purposes.

WHO IS RIGHT?—The Republican, in its issue on Tuesday, said that John E. Smith, the Radical candidate for Congress in this congressional district addressed the emancipation celebration held at New Market on last Saturday; while the Examiner which appeared the day after, says he was not present owing to other engagements. Who is right? The colonel-postmaster was present, and ought to be able to state the facts.

FARM PURCHASED.—We understand that Col. Geo. A. Hanson, of this city, last week purchased from his cousins an estate in Kent county, Md., called "Radcliffe Hall," commonly known as the old "Hanson Farm." It contains rather more than 468 acres. It is situated on Chester River, near Chestertown. The Colonel will make it his residence. The estate has been in the family for more than a century and a half.

COMMITTEE OF INVITATION.—Dr. Fairfax Schley, Col. George R. Dennis, Charles H. Keefer, Wm H. Falconer, L. J. Brengle, and Col. Charles E. Trail, have been appointed a committee by the Frederick County Agricultural Society to visit Washington and invite the President, Vice President, General Sherman, and the heads of the departments to visit our city during the time of our Fair. The kind reception given these officials a year ago will no doubt induce them to repeat their visit.

ORDINANCE RELATING TO MARKETS.—The attention of our readers is invited to the ordinance relating to markets, passed by the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of Frederick, at their meeting held on the 26th inst., which will be found in another column. The ordinance contains features of an important character, which will have an especial bearing upon those who expose for sale fruits, vegetables, &c., along the pavements on Market, Church and Second streets, during the hours of market. There is no doubt but that considerable opposition will be manifesifested, at first, against this ordinance, but a little time will convince all parties of the valuable results attained by its adoption and enforcement.

DISSOLUTION.—By refering to our new advertisements it will be seen that the firm of D. & D. V. Stauffer has been disolved by the withdrawal of Mr. Daniel Stauffer, the senior partner, who has disposed of his interest to Mr. Geo. W. Stauffer, a young gentleman engaged for some time as clerk in the store, and favorably known for his politeness and attention to business. The firm will hereafter be known as Stauffer & Bro. Mr. D. V. Stauffer, the present senior partner, and who enjoys the reputation of being one of our most reliable, worthy and business-like merchants, is now in the eastern cities purchasing a large and varied assortment of fall and winter goods. We hope the new firm will receive the encouragement heretofore bestowed upon the old firm.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—On next Tuesday a week, the 11th of October, our Agricultural Fair will commence. Every arrangement necessary to render the occasion one of great interest and pleasure has been consummated, and we may reasonably expect that the coming exhibition will rival, if not surpass, any that has heretofore been held in this county. F T. Rhodes confectioner, and Wm. B. Tabler of the Dill House, two of the most popular and accommodating, as well as best, caterers that serves the tastes of the citizens of Frederick, have rented the large booth under the central pavilion, where thep will supply those who may want the "inner man" replenished with every variety of edibles, &c. The hotels of this city are making preparations to accommodate the large number of visitors from abroad who usually visit our city during the Fair.

DRAMATIC.—The Philanthropic Dramatic Association of this city will give evening entertainments at Junior Hall during the holding of the Agricultural Fair. The Association have in preparation several fine plays. All should attend, as they will no doubt be well pleased with the entertainments.

NEW DRUG STORE.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dr. S. F. Thomas, who has purchased the drug establishment of the late Dr. L. M. Schaffer, deceased, located opposite the Market House, in this city. Dr. Thomas is a graduate of the Maryland University of Medicine, and has had an experience of five years in the drug business. His supply of drugs and chemicals is very large, and they are all fresh and pure, having been recently purchased in Baltimore and Philadelphia. Besides these, he has a fine assortment of useful, fancy and toilet articles, all of which he will dispose of at moderate rates. By being attentive and obliging he hopes to receive a liberal share of the public patronage. We wish him success.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—On Thursday afternoon of last week, Wm. Samuels, a lad 14 years of age, living in the family of Mr Joshua J. Ifert, near this place, met with a very severe accident Mr. Ifert was engaged in covering his barn, and Samuels was carrying shingles up a ladder on the inside of a barn when he made a misstep and fell to the threshing floor.—A wagon was standing in the barn, against the tongue of which stood a board in an upright position, and in his descent Samuels fell with his chin upon this board. Although no bones were broken, he sustained a frightful wound in having a gash several inches long made across the throat, exposing the jawbone, and was otherwise bruised. We learn that under the care of Dr. J. E. Beatty he is doing quite as well as the nature of his injuries will permit.—Valley Reg.

The Nomination.

The nomination of Mr. Ritchie completes the Democratic programme for the ensuing fall campaign. We most cordially accept the nominee for our standard bearer, feeling assured, that, with a leader so distinguished for ability we can enter on the canvass with the most hopeful augury success. If we express our regret that the nomination did not fall to the lot of Col. Longwell, we do not thereby detract from the reorganized merit of Mr. Ritchie. We merge local and personal preferences in the more general and more imperative duty of uniting the strength of the Democratic party in the impending conflict. In this conflict the Democracy will have to contend against an element of strength altogether new and untried in the previous expriences of its party warfare. We refer, of course, to the extension of the right of suffrage to the negro population of the country. For weal or for woe, this principle has been embodied in our organic law. We cannot escape its general consequences; and we must meet the exigencies thus forced upon the country by the radical party, with the lofty purpose of mitigating, as far as possible, the evils it seems to menace. This purpose we can only accomplish by a united and patriotic action, that will be directed to the maintenance of a superiority of the Caucasian over the African race. The Radicals do not stop to place the latter on a level with the former. They practically seek to do more. By combinding with them, they seek either to use them for the most selfish ends, or to secure to them such a dominance in political affairs, as must ultimately render the white race subservient to the black.—We do not assert that the Radicals are honest in thus using their sable allies; on the contrary we believe that the poor negro is deluded by the professions of his assumed friends of the Radical party, and that his suffrage is only sought for, in the coming elections, to secure an extension of power to that party.—The Radicals have no intention to allow the negro to participate on an equality with them in the enjoyment of lucrative offices. They would indeed impose upon him the burdend and labor of the seeding, but would take care that the harvest was garnered for their own use and profit.

It is this new element of political combination that the Democratic party will have to meet in the coming election. This element constitutes the only hope of success that the Radical party can entertain To meet and confront it successfully, the Democracy will need its undivided strength. It will need, besides, that, in invoking the suffrages of their people they can point to their candidates and challenge the strictest scrutiny upon their ability to discharge the duties they are called upon to undertake It is in this view of the struggle that is impending, that we feel encouraged because of the ability integrity and efficiency in our candidate for Congress. On the rostrum before the day of election, as well as in the halls of legislation after it, he will be as able as he is brave, to assert the dignity of his race, and claim for it that pre-eminence in the affairs of our government which it is entitled to by its birth; its superior culture and intelligence; and its thorough and practical experience in all that pertains to a wise, just, economical and vigorous administration of the government.—Westminster Dem. Advocate.

John L. Jordan vs. Rosanna George, John Slater, and Margaret Slater his wife, and others.	No. 3591 EQUITY. In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity.

The object of this bill is to obtain a Decree for the sale of the partnership real estate of the late firm of Jordan & George to pay the claim of John L. Jordan, the surviving partner for moneys paid by him out of his own private estate in extinguishment of debts of the firm, the personal assets of the firm being insufficient. The bill states that in the month of October, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, complainant and John George entered into partnership in buying and selling grain, and boating to Georgetown. That neither partner contributed any specific sum as capital, and were equal partners as to capital and profits. That the partnership continued until the spring of eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and then ended in consequence of the departure of John George, and his residence in the State of Virginia, then one of the Confederate States, and in hostility to the United States. That John George resided there until his death, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, intestate and insolvent, and upon whose personal estate no administration has been granted in the Sirte of Maryland. The bill further states that during the existence of the firm, real estate in Berlin, Frederick Couty, State of Maryland, was purchased by the partners out of the partnership funds, and conveyed to the said John L. Jordan and John George as partners, and which real estate is described in the said bill and in the Exhibits filed therewith, which real estate still remains unsold.

The bill further states, that the personal assets of the firm have been applied by complainant to pay the debts due by the firm, and being wholly insufficient for that purpose, the complainant as resident solvent and surviving partner was compelled out of his own private means to pay the debts of the firm, and for that purpose has expended of his own private means the sum of four thousand, one hundred and seventy dollars and sixty-six cents, over and above partnership assets realized by him. The bill further states that the said John George died in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, leaving a widow, Rosanna George, entitled to dower contingent on the sufficiency of the estate to pay firm debts, and the following children who are adults and live beyond the limits of the State of Maryland.

Margaret Slater, now wife of John Slater, Cecelia Grubb, now wife of Ebenezer S. Grubb, Roberta Peters, now wife of Rev. J. A. Peters, Mary Louisa George, Lydia George, John George, Wallace George, James W. George, and the following children who are infants under the age of twenty-one years, and who reside in Loudoun County, Virginia, to-wit: Edgar George and Rebert White George.

It is thereupon this 22nd day of September, 1870, adjudged and ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Frederick county, once a week for four successive weeks prior to the first day of November, 1870, give notice to Rosanna George, John Slater and Margaret Slater, his wife, Ebenezer S. Grubb and Cecelia Grubb, his wife, J. A. Peters, and Roberta Peters, his wife, Mary Louisa George and Lydia George, John George, Wallace George, and James W. George, the non-residents and defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the third day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, to answer the premises and show cause if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
