HIS RECORD.

A Fatal One--Unless White Men are Hypocrites and Negroes are Idiots.

We said in these columns some weeks ago, that the meanest kind of scallawag was a fellow, who during the first years of the late war sold his negro slave to a new master, put the money in his pocket, and now calls that negro his brother and equal, in order to get his vote. We are free to confess that in this view we were in error; we were mistaken—there is a lower depth to which scallawagism can descend; and we apologise to the class alluded to above and admit that they are not the meanest of the tribe. Until we get further evidence of the baseness of scallawagism, we shall assert that the lowest, the meanest, the vilest, the basest specimen of scallawagery is the fellow who could vote for a law to SELL FREE-BORN NEGROES INTO PERPETUAL SLAVERY some few years ago, and now call all male negroes his brothers, and solicit their votes to elect him to Congress at $5000 a year. This lowest type of scallawagism is illustrated in the person, past record and present position of Hon. John E. Smith, the radical candidate for Congress in this district.

The most unreasonable or the most dangerous errors of judgment may be excused, if honestly entertained; and prejudices, however, unsupported by fact or reason, may be tolerated when conscienciously cherished. There are opinions and convictions on great public questions, however, which the matured politician cannot change in a day without subjecting himself to the suspicion of corrupt and selfish motives.

Now this whole question of negro slavery has been discussed in this country for a period greater than the life time of the Hon. J. E. Smith. There was an abolition party in the country before this radical congressional candidate was born—we suppose Mr. Smith is about forty-three years old. In 1860 he was a member of the Senate of Maryland. We suppose he was a John Bell man for President. We suppose he was opposed to Abraham Lincoln, who represented the abolition idea. There had been abolition candidates for the Presidency in 1840, '44, '48, '52, '56, as against whig and democratic candidates; but Hon. John E. Smith was, from his first vote, for none of these abolition candidates. But abolitionism, as J. E. Smith grew older and older, was marching on with its fire and fagot, and adding its John Browns to its fanatical cohorts. Hon. John E. Smith was a full grown politician—OLD enough to be constitutionally eligible to the Senate of the U. States, or even President. The negro question was in constant agitation in all the States, and in national politics. Hon. John E. Smith was raised in a slave State, in a slave county, in a slave community, and possibly owned slaves. He knew as much about the moral and intellectual qualities of the negro then as he does now—he had read the Declaration of Independence—the history and traditions of his country, and knew as much about the "rights of man" then, including the negro, as he does now.—His reading as a lawyer, as a student of history, as a moralist, as a christian, as a philosopher, as a political economist, as a statesman, up to 1860 must have convinced him, that the NEGRO WAS THEN all that the negro is NOW. No HONEST man will aver that if Hon. John E. Smith now thinks the negro his equal and his brother, there was any reason in law, history, morals, religion, philosophy, political economy or statesmanship why the honorable gentleman should not have thought so then. And, yet, what is the fact in this man's political record?

Come up now, all ye white radical hypocrites who are in the habit of BLACKGUARDING YOUR FATHERS in your denunciations of those whom you are pleased to call "slave drivers." Come up, all you who "slang-whang" about the "negro-hating democracy"! Come up, now, and stand by your negro-loving candidate for Congress. Defend him! for he needs the defence of all hypocritical scallawags. Apologise for him, all ye office-seekers, and say that he was honest, when, in the Senate of Maryland, in 1860, he voted for An Act to authorize the County Commissioners of eleven counties in this State to SELL FREE-BORN NEGROES INTO SLAVERY FOR LIFE,—and, when you have convinced any but an idiot that he was honest THEN, and is, also, honest and conscientious NOW in claiming brotherhood and equality for the negro with white men, the evidence will be afforded of how completely party prejudice and passion can dethrone reason.

We may ask his defenders, who, like him, have OF LATE become so enamored of the negro, on what meat did this radical convert feed in 1860—what fluids did he imbibe—differing from his present diet and refreshments, that he should then have favored, advocated and voted for SELLING FREE-BORN NEGROES—men and women—into SLAVERY FOR LIFE, and that he should NOW regard them as BROTHERS and claim for them equal political rights and privileges with white men? We may ask, what has metamorphosed the Jno. E. Smith of 1860 into the Jno. E. Smith of 1870? Let honest men answer in their hearts, and say whether they can maintain their own self-respect and vote for such a politician! What evidence have they that Mr. Smith may not undergo another metamorphoses, and, at no distant day, if in position, vote for An Act, similar to the Act of 1860, for SELLING FREE NEGROES INTO SLAVERY FOR LIFE?

The negro has not changed in his natural characteristics since 1860. The negro is the same human being now that he was in 1860. His skin has the same color, his hair the same kink; his scent is the same, and so are his instincts and habits. What God made him he was in 1860, and what he was in 1860 he is now. He is no more the brother and equal of John E. Smith, in nature, now than he was in 1860, when Smith voted for a law authorizing the County Commissioners of eleven counties to sell at public auction the free negroes of those counties, under certain circumstances, into slavery for life.

And now, in spite of any defense that he or his white scallawag champions may attempt for his "slave driving" and slave manufacturing propensities in 1860, the question comes up: what will the black men, upon whose shoulders he has hoped to ride into Congress, at $5000 per annum, have to say about the Hon. John E. Smith with his NEGRO HATING and SLAVE MAKING record before them? Have they brains? Are they FREE—free as white men are to vote as they please, or are all of them the oath-bound political slaves of John E. Smith and other scallawags like him. If they are not idiots; if they ARE FREE, and not slaves; if they have any genuine manhood in them, they will, if necessary, crawl upon their hands and knees to the ballot box to vote against John E. Smith, and scoff at with mocking scorn all that he or his apologists may urge in his defense.

We quote here, as the justification of these comments, from chapter 232, sec. 8, of the Laws of Maryland, session 1860, as follows:

"Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That in the event of any free negro hired or bound under this act, shall refuse to serve faithfully, the party to whom he or she may be bound for the full term of his or her indenture, either by absconding, secreting or running away from the service of said party, it shall be the duty of said board of commissioners on complaint of the party and proof of the same, by some reliable and disinterested person under oath, to expose the said hired or bound free negro, at public sale to the highest bidder, to be sold as a slave for life, the proceeds of which shall be paid by said board to the Register of Wills of Saint Mary's, Calvert, Howard, Kent and Baltimore counties, to be appropriated by him to the primary school fund."

COMING OVER--PROSPECTS CHEERING.

Every day we are receiving information from entirely reliable sources, of numbers of honest and patriotic men, in the different districts of this county, who have heretofore voted the radical ticket, who now declare their determination to vote for Capt. Ritchie for Congress.

They prefer the platform upon which our standard-bearer seeks the support of his fellow-citizens. Besides, they have more confidence in the political integrity of our candidate, who has always been the friend of the negro—in his proper place—than they have in the integrity of the radical candidate, who some years since voted in the Senate of Maryland for a law to SELL FREE NEGROES INTO LIFE SLAVERY, and, would, now, in order to get their votes, hug negroes to his bosom as BROTHERS and EQUALS!

If white recruits under Capt. Ritchie's banner, continue to come in at this rate until the day of election, the Hon. John E. Smith, with his black "element"—his only hope in this contest—will be routed horse, foot and dragoons.

No man can claim, hereafter, that he was ignorant of the issues in this contest.—The democratic candidate appeals to white virtue, intelligence and patriotism for support; while the radical candidate appeals to the untutored, oath-bound negroes for support, and regards them as the chief element of his success.

Those who believe that white men should rule this country, make and administer its laws, will vote for the consistent, frank and fearless Ritchie, who would rather be defeated than not boldly assert the superiority of his own race—the glorious white race, which has ruled the world for six thousand years.

SIMPLE TRUTH.—Those who have the largest capacity for goverment, combined with patriotism, should be selected to rule and govern a State. When we shall be convinced that this capacity and patriotism can be found in the negro race we shall advise white men to take back seats and give the government up into the hands of the negroes.

Germany has a population of 45,000,000, and yet her territory is not as large as that given to the Northern Pacific Railroad by the Radical Congress of last winter. It is more than enough to support the present population of the United States!

DESTRUCTIVE FLOODS.

The State of Virginia has again been visited with the rod of affliction. The streams on her Atlantic slope during the close of the last week were all flooded by recent rains to an unprecedented extent, and on the James and the Shennandoah the destruction of property has been fearful, and of life appalling. At Harpersferry alone, property to the value, possibly, of $200,000 was destroyed, and between thirty and forty lives lost by drowning in the terrible flood of waters. From Front Royal to Harpersferry, along the whole course of the Shenandoah, bridges, mills, factories, houses, barns, crops and indeed entire villages were swept away by this resistless current. Millions of dollars would not compensate for the destruction of property in Virginia by the terrible visitation. The distress of our neighbors at Harpersferry has touched deeply, the hearts of our people, and it will be perceived from the proceedings of a town meeting in another column, that efforts are on foot to provide some assistance to the homeless and needy.

TRINITY CHAPEL.—The Rev. Dr. Boone of Balimore will preach Morning and Evening at the above place. The public are invited to hear him.

FALL GOODS.—Owing to a want of space, we are compelled to omit the advertisement of Smith Bros., who are in receipt of a large arrival of fall and winter goods, embracing everything kept in a first-class dry goods house, which were purchased from the largest importers in the eastern cities.

ADMITTED.—On Tuesday, the 20th of September, our young and talented friend, W. Burns Trundle, was, on motion John Ritchie, Esq., admitted to to the Frederick Bar. We understand Mr. T. intends locating in Baltimore. We wish him success.

SALE OF A FARM.—Geo. F. Webster & Co. report the sale of Hon. John A. Lynch's farm, situated in Jefferson district, Frederick county, Md., containing 197¼ acres. Purchased by Mr. Frederick Miller for the sum of $9,800.

REGISTER.—If the democratic conservative party would win in this congressional canvass, we must poll every vote. We must not over-estimate our strength or under-estimate the forces of the opposition. We urge upon every advocate of white supremacy to be vigilant in securing recruits to our ranks. There are no doubt many white men, new residents of the county, and young men now entitled to vote for the first time, not yet registered—these should be urged to the discharge of their duty in this respect, and reminded that the registers will sit again on Monday and Tuesday, the 24th and 25th of this month, for the purpose of completing the registration. Every vote counts. Let our friends in each district attend to this matter, and see that no vote is lost through neglect to register in time.

DRAMATIC.—Those of our readers who are fond of dramatic entertainments should not fail to attend the performances of the Philanthropic Dramatic Association, which will commence on next Tuesday evening, the 11th inst., and continue four nights. The Association has several members who, in the display of histrionic talent, are not inferior to many who are recognized as excellent performers in the large cities. C. P. Smith, as a tragedian, in previous entertainments, won the universal approbation of the public, while "Quit" Beckly has frequently "brought down the house" in roars of laughter and applause. The performmances of the Association are both moral and instructive; and as the price of admission has been reduced, their entertainments should be greeted with crowded houses every evening. For paticulars see small bills.

CIRCUS.—On next Wednesday the 12th inst., the celebrated circus of Stone & Murray will give three entertainments on the Agricultural Fair Grounds, during the holding of the Fair, morning, noon and night. As this is one of the best exhibitions now travelling, the thousands of visitors that may be attracted to our Fair will no doubt embrace the opportunity of witnessing their grand, interesting performances. The press everywhere complements this circus. We copy the following notice of it from the Brooklyn Eagle: "Stone & Murray have a Circus which wields an unquestionable ascendancy in the realms of amusements. Under their supervision it has attained a popularity alike significant of their superior qualifications as managers, and the unequalled splendor of the entertainments they give their patrons."

THE FAIR.—We learn that the prospects for the coming Fair, which begins next Tuesday, are very promising. Already a large number of applications have been received for stock, warranting the expectation that the exhibition, in this department, will probably excel that of any previous Fair. Workmen are now engaged in improving the grounds and buildings; the sidewalks extending to the extreme eastern side of the grounds, along the Baltimore turnpike, have been put in good order, so that pedestrians may reach the ground "dry shod," and in a few days everything will be in good order for the reception of visitors. The B. & O. R. R. Co. will issue round trip tickets from Baltimore, Washington, Strasburg, Hagerstown and Piedmont at half-fare, good for six days. Freight for exhibition at half rates. The cadets of the Maryland Agricultural College have signified their intention to visit the Fair. This is a military class of about one hundred members, uniformed and drilled. They carry their knapsacks, blankets and cooking utensils, and will encamp during the Fair. A distinguished gentleman formerly a resident of this city, having contributed $50 for a "slow mule race" premium, the public will have an opportunity of enjoying one of the most comical sights imaginable. The manner of conducting a slow mule race is as follows: Persons having extraordinary slow and stubborn mules enter them for the premium. The slowest mule wins. On arriving at the course all the riders change, so that no one rides his own animal. Each rider then endeavors to urge the mule he rides ahead of his own mule, which is ridden by some other person. The amusement afforded by a number of mules, gifted in an extraordinary degree with firmness, deliberation and an erratic disposition, is immense, when contending for a prize of $50.

POSTMASTER APPOINTED.—J. C. D. Harris, Esq., has been appointed Postmaster at Creagerstown, vice A. A. Otto.

DIPLOMAS.—We have seen a beautiful chromo lithograph diploma prepared by Messrs. Hoen & Co. of Baltimore for the Agricultural Society to be awarded to successful competitors at the coming Fair. It is an emblematic design, in the highest style of the art, and when framed will be a fine ornament as well as an enduring testimonial of merit, of which any one might feel pleased to become the possessor. It was prepared in accordance with the wish expressed last year by a number of exhibitors, who desire some testimonial which might be preserved, rather, than a money premium. Exhibitors will have the option of receiving a diploma instead of any premium exceeding five dollars.

ROBBERY IN WOLFSVILLE.—We learn from a gentleman who has just returned from Wolfsville Frederick county, that quiet little village was thrown into a state of excitement on Friday night by the perpetration of a bold robbery. Whilst Mr. Samuel Hoover and family were at church his house was entered by some person or persons unknown and rifled from attic to cellar. Drawers were broken open and beds cut to peices and a general tumbling of everything in which it was suspected valuables might have been hidden. Over three hundred dollars in money and valuable papers were taken. No clue to the identity of the robbers had been obtained up to the time that the gentleman left.—Hagerstown Twice a Week.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Presentation at the Noviciate in Frederick City, Md., on the evening of the 18th of September, of a beautiful and richly enchased Golden Chalice to the Rev. Father Sourin by the congregation of his charge, as a mark of their esteem and love, as well as of their high appreciation of his efficient services as their honored and revered Pastor for the past fifteen years—that pious and devoted servant of Christ having been assigned by his superiors to labor in a more extensive field.

It has pleased the Society of Jesus, of which Father Sourin is an honored and respected member, much to the regret and grief of his late parishioners, to take their beloved Pastor from them, and there being no appeal from this decision, the dear people of his flock animated by motives that must command the respect and reverence of every truly christian heart, determined to give to that pious and popular Divine a substantial evidence of their filial love and affection.

In pursuance of this laudable purpose a few of the younger members of the congregation took upon themselves the delightfully pleasing task of carrying out and consumating the general design, and on the Sunday evening of the 18th ultimo, at the Noviciate, in the presence of a large number of the ladies and gentlemen of St. John's Parish, with a few others not members of the church, presented to their beloved Pastor a Golden Chalice, approximating two hundred dollars in value.

This beautifully chaste and exquisite piece of workmanship was manufactured at Einsiedeln, Switzerland, by the Messrs. Benziger Bros., who have a branch house in the city of New York, for the sale of their superb articles; also, one in Cincinnati, Ohio; both of which are conducted on a scale of magnificence as to defy competition; and with their factory in Einsiedeln, involving a cash capital of several millions, to keep their varied and extensive departments in full and successful operation. The perfection of taste and skill, which this house has reached in their unique and exquisite art, places them in the front ranks of the best houses not only in Europe but the world; giving to them a celebrity and success not hitherto attained by any other rival house.

The presentation of this beautiful Chalice to their beloved Pastor by his grateful and affectionate Parishioners, was made by our esteemed and talented fellow-citizen James McSherry, Esq., preceded by a most eloquent, chaste and beautiful address, neat, to the purpose, and eminently appropriate, the orator alluding in the most impressive and touching manner his fidelity, zeal and untiring devotion, night and day, in Summer's heats and Winter's blasts to the spiritual interests of his beloved flock, spent and being spent in the service of his master; and the time had now come, long dreaded, that they must part, must bid him an affectionate farewell, to meet, perhaps, no more this side of a never ending eternity; but to be reunited, if faithful, in the world beyond the skies, where sin and sorrow and strife can never enter to mar the beatitudes and joys of the blessed?

The following are Father Sourin's remarks on receiving the Chalice:

My Dear Friends—This is a proof of kindness, which only a few hours ago, I had no reason to expect, and which I will always greatfully remember.

Following the many expressions of regard and friendship which within the last fifteen years you have extended to me, it cannot but deepen that affection and respect, which the longer I have dwelt among you, has grown so much the more sincere and lasting. Will I be faulted by any one, if I say further, your act of this evening must strengthen that sense of duty towards you, which has prompted me during the period now gone, to pass, I think I may safely say, no day without invoking on you, on your homes, on your city the blessing of Him whose blessing is worth all worldly goods: the protection of Her whose Son, being Heaven's King, must be all powerful to befriend, to prosper those who know so well how to deserve Her protection. It was but a part of my duty toward you all; and would to Heaven it had been always more constantly, more faithfully fulfilled. As it is, how can I henceforth ever take into my hands this beautiful and truly valuable gift, this sacred chalice, daily reminding me of what I owe to God and man, to friends and foes, without humbling recalling this evening's meeting; the friends now around me; the mony others, who if not present, whether of our church or not, I have so many resons to remember.

Accept, Ladies and Gentlemen, this very imperfect expression of the sincere regard I entertain for you, one and all; of the grateful recollections, I shall always cherish of your present and past kindness; and of my earnert, heartful wish, that in days, such as have fallen to our lot, your portion, in the midst of all changes, may be such as will add to your real welfare, to the prosperity of your city, and to your everlasting happiness hereafter.

Town Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens of Frederick, Md., held in the basement of the Court House, on Tuesday evening last, in response to the call made by his honor, Valerius Ebert, Mayor of the city, Judge Lynch called the meeting to order by nominating Valerius Ebert, Mayor, as chairman, and John C. Hardt secretary. The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the benificent God and Father of us all, in His wise and inscrutable Providence, to visit a neighboring city (Harpers Ferry) with a most disastrous flood, by which many precious lives were lost, and much valuable property destroyed, reducing a large number of its citizens to a condition but little removed from beggary; therefore, be it

Resolved, by this meeting, that we as citizens, deeply mourn their crushing disaster, and that we warmly sympathize with those who have suffered by this unexpected and awful calamity.

Resolved, That as a sense of our sincere condolence with the bereaved and sorrow-stricken sufferers, the chairman of this meeting be instructed to appoint a committee of two persons from each of the wards, to go round and solicit contributions in aid of the sufferers, and that said contributions be handed over to the Mayor, to be forwarded by him to some prominent and responsible person near the scene of this terrible visitation, with instructions to dispense the same in a judicious manner to the most needy.

Resolved, That the said committee be requested to enter forthwith upon their respective duties under the foregoing resolution, and be prepared to report the result of their labors sometime within the current week, so that the sufferers by this dreadful providence may at once receive the benefit thereof.

Resolved, That the several papers of Frederick be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

The chairman appointed the following committee to solicit subscriptions:

FARM FOR RENT.

ONE of the most productive Farms in Frederick county, containing 240 ACRES, for money rent. It is situated about 3½ miles from Frederick city, on one of the best turnpikes in the county, and in the heart of the most fertile farming section. 1200 bushels of lime have been put on it in the last three years, and is now second to none in the county in the quantity and quality of its productions. Nearly every field is supplied with a spring of running water, and those that are not so watered are within easy access to it.
