TRUCK DRIVER HURT

Tuesday while driving an ice cream truck on the Westminster and Taneytown state road near Tyrone, Peter Bengel was injured painfully but not seriously.

Bengel had stopped his truck at Mill's garage and when he attempted to turn it around, the brakes failed to take hold and the truck went over a bank. A young man, who was with Bengel, jumped in time and was not injured, but Bengel stuck at his post. His arm was cut and he was bruised severely, and the truck was damaged considerably.

Bengel was brought to the office o. Dr. L. K. Woodward, this city, who dressed his wounds.

A REAL BARGAIN

No average person can resist the temptation of an attractive bargain. An article costing two dollars in the cities and selling in Westminster for thirty-five cents is some bargain. That is why extra seats will be placed at the Armory this Friday and Saturday nights. The article above mentioned is the amazingly spectacular film "Men of Purpose." Bigger and better than "Powder River." All the scenes are actual and will astonish you by their nearness, which was made possible by the use of telescopic lenses on the cameras. It is not given to all to enjoy the questionable privilege of actively participating in battle, but it is given to all to see, accurately reproduced, the actual scenes in which our boys (perhaps your boy) participated. Every full-blooded American citizen owes it to himself to see this picture, not shown for the purpose of fostering the military spirit, but shown that our people may appreciate what our boys did for their country, and seeing first hand the horrors of war, will unite in a firmer stand that such a thing may not happen again.

This picture to be shown for the benefit of the Veteran's Association and Company "H."

Monday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hahn moved from this city to York, Pa., where they will make their home.

Misses Margaret Boley and Bertha Shipley have taken positions as operators in the C. & P. telephone office, this city.
