STONE CHAPEL

Sunday school this Sunday at 1:30 P. M. Preaching at 2:30 P. M.

We had a very fine talk by one of the anti-saloon league men on Sunday, Septemeber 19.

The Sunday school treat, followed by a festival September 16, was well attended and a success in every way. The Westminster band gave a fine musical program which all enjoyed.

September 25 was as warm a day as we have ever experienced in September. Cool weather September 26, and it has been cool for several days with plenty of rain.

Sweet corn hauling is over. Farmers are getting ready to sow wheat.

Several buildings are about completed on the Long farm, John Crissinger is the builder.

Silos are being filled, worm seed will soon be ready to gather.

Electric poles are being slowly put up. We are anxious for the electric lights.

There is an abundant crop of apples and pears. The potato crop is very short.

The school attendance has been very good.

Mr. Walter Duvall, son Ernest, P. E. Robertson and family called on Herbert Cromer and family Sunday evening. They found Mrs. Cromer much better after having grip for two weeks.

Mrs. Carrie Beadenkoff, son Milton, Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mrs. L. S. Sellman. When coming through Westminster Mrs. Beadenkoff remarked what improvements had been made on Liberty street and so many new houses.

Although many of the politicians are said to be weak kneed, they seem able to run for office all right.

Secretary Mellon now back in Washington, with two months in which to fortify the treasury against congressional attack.

Claimed the newspapers do not sway public opinion, and yet the politicians are usually quite nice to the editors for some time previous to the elections.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Harvest Home services were held at St. Matthew's Lutheran church on Sunday, the Rev. A. G. Wolf, pastor. The display of fruits and vegetables was the largest in years and with the many beautiful flowers, both cut flowers and potted plants, the church presented a very beautiful sight. Among the many good things were home-made breads, large cakes, pies, butter, eggs, jarred fruit, apple butter, canned goods, from the Pleasant Valley Packing Company; potatoes, pumpkins, flour, sugar, coffee, hominy, corn meal, jellies, preserves, pickles, etc. In the absence of Rev. Wolf, Prof. Hildebrand, Gettysburg, gave us a very interesting talk. He was also present in the evening at the Young People's meeting at 7 o'clock, and gave us a good talk, and also at the missionary meeting at 8 o'clock. The playlet, "Aunt Tillie learns to Tithe," was very interesting and brought out some good lessons which we should not soon forget. Mrs. A. G. Wolf gave a good talk, and also thanked one and all for the many nice things from the in-gathering of the Harvest Home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Senft and daughter Annie Starner Senft entertained at lunch on Sunday, Prof. Hildebrand and Mrs. A. G. Wolf. After lunch, they all went to Silver Run where Mr. Hildebrand conducted services in St. Mary's church in the absence of Rev. Wolf.

Things are moving very nicely in the school this year. Thirty-eight pupils have already enrolled in the high school and ninety-five in the grades, making a total of one hundred and thirty-three. The enrollment will reach at least one hundred and fifty-five when all are in. Miss Ford has charge of grades 1 and 2, in addition to 5th and 6th grade history; Miss Hyde teaches all the classes in the 3rd and 4th grades; Miss Thomas has all the geography, arithmetic and pennmanship classes in grades 5, 6 and 7. in addition to the English, reading, hygiene and spelling classes of grades 5 and 6; Miss Blocher has 7th grade English, history, literature, high school French and history and all classes of cooking and sewing. Mr. Earhart is teacher of business fundamentals, spelling, general science, chemistry, biology, social science and part of the manual training; Miss Ethel Mitten spends one-half of each day teaching three classes of typewriting and one of short hand; Mrs Brown has charge of all the English, Latin and Bkg. classes. Mr. Lefever and Miss Reinecke each spend one day at the school teaching manual training and music respectively. Dr. North, the state supervisor, will be here about October 4th, to inspect the work and also the high school enrollment and attendance.

Messrs. Harry F. Feeser and Elmer F. Kindig are taking in the sights at the Sesqui-Centennial, Philadelphia, this week.

Mrs. A. G. Wolf, Silver Run, Mrs. McDowell, Baltimore, and Miss Mary Yingling, Hanover, were among the guests at the Senft home, Shady Side, last week.

Miss Mary V. Myers, Hanover, spent part of her vacation last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zepp, Melvin Myers, Miss Emma Zepp and Newton Stair spent Sunday in Baltimore, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cole, and spent some time at Druid Hill Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown entertained at dinner on Sunday the following: Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Fitze, Mrs. Susan Fitze, New Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. William Therit and son Paul, Bachman's Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logue, Midway, and Paul Humbert.

Mr. Elmer F. Kindig is building an addition to his butcher shop, putting in a large cellar, storage room and other improvements.

Sunday school Sunday morning, at 9:00 o'clock. Sermon at 10 by the Rev. J. W. Reinecke. Y. P. S. in the evening at 7:30.

SAMUEL J. STONE,
Clerk.

The motorists kick if the roads are torn up for repairs, and they also kick if nothing is done about them.

People who doubt the value of advertising, are usually convinced of the service of publicity when they run for office.
