PLEASANT GROVE AND REESE

Weather permitting Sunday school will be at 9:30.

Ladies' Aid will hold its regular monthly meeting at the parsonage February 12 at 2:00 P. M. with Mrs. Subock as hostess. A good attendance is especially desired.

The W. C. T. U. met last Thursday with Mrs. Wilbur Blackstein. After business was over a special Sabbath Observance program was given of readings, several songs and a catchy round was practiced. Mrs. Grace Green is superintendent of this department. Glad to have some visitors with us. Always welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mann and son spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mann, near Patapsco.

Mrs. Herbert Myerly spent Tuesday in Westminster with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Magee spent the week-end in Baltimore with Mr. John Menchey and family

Mud, mud everywhere is the general cry from everyone.

SHIPLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes and Miss Dorothy Hughes were Friday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Conner. Mrs. Conner is improving.

Mrs. E. O. Wilhide called on Mrs. Bessie Hughes Saturday afternoon.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. William C. Caples, Miss Beulah Edmondson and Mr. Alfred Edmondson visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Shipley to see Mrs. Minnie Edmondson who is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Carval Horton and family were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zahn.

Mr. Keener Beaver cut his foot last Thursday while cutting wood in the woods here for Mr. Paul Zahn.

The play at the hall was quite a success. The title of the play was "The Snigle Family." Mrs. H. C. Buskins was the widow Snigle and took her part well. Her children in the play were Misses Catherine Hughes, Treva Wagner, Dorothy Gibson, and Louise Hook. Mrs. Marion Wagner, Evelyn Hook, Mrs. D. G. Hook and Alverta Wagner all took their parts fine and created much laughter. Then the Rev. Staurgis entertained the folks with an eating contest to see who could first eat the marshmallows on a gum and who could eat a cracker first and receive a prize. Then came the bean contest which created much laughter and which everyone enjoyed. We are going to have another play soon. We wish to thank every one who made donations to the fancy table and refreshment table, also the visiting folks who seemed to enjoy the evening and buying many fancy articles which we hope they liked and that they will join us soon again. We wish to thank every one for their gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wagner have as their guest Mr. Vernon Wagner.

Mr. J. P. Wilhide had as his guest Saturday afternoon Mr. G. W. Caples, of Baltimore.

UNION MILLS

Rev. W. E. Saltsgiver, Lovettsville, Va., elected pastor of the Silver Run charge of the Lutheran church, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. A. G. Wolf, will take up his work in his new field of labor on February 20, 1927. The Silver Run charge comprises two congregations, Silver Run and Pleasant Valley.

Nearly $200 gross receipts were realized by the I. O. M. lodge of Union Mills, at the oyster supper held at its hall on two nights of last week. The Pleasant Valley band, in full force, rendered a splendid musical program on Saturday evening.

Moving pictures illustrative of life at Hood College, Frederick, Maryland, were shown at the Reformed church, Silver Run, last Sunday evening.

Samuel J. Messinger is confined to his bed with a protracted spell of sickness.

James M. Shriver attended the canned goods convention at Atlantic City, N. J., last week.

PLEASANT VALLEY

A very enjoyable birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kain, Willow Spring cottage, January 25, in honor of their only daughter, Miss F. Patricia Kain in honor of her sixteenth birthday. The graduating class of Pleasant Valley high school with Mrs. Esther K. Brown, principal, was present. The color scheme which was pink and white, was carried out to the letter. The table was decorated with pink and white rose buds and pink and white candles. Over the center of the table, suspended from the ceiling, hung sixteen pink ribbons, each a different length, and fastened to each end was a sugar lump, which represented "sweet sixteen." Mrs. Kain was commented on for the very neat and attractive decorations. The refreshments were pink and white ice cream, pink and white cake, pink and white candy and pink lemonade. Mrs. Kain in serving was assisted by Mrs. Elmer Kindig and Mrs. Esther K. Brown. The radio furnished music for the dancing in which the young folks indulged. Games of various kinds were played and in all a very pleasant evening was spent. Miss Patricia received many beautiful gifts from her friends, a check from her grandfather Hahn and one from a friend in Roxborough, Pa. She is the granddaughter of the late Rev. Dr. P. I. Kain, Roxborough, near Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. Edward M. Hahn, Pleasant Valley. Those present were Miss Evelyn Myers, Union Bridge, cousin of Miss Kain, Mrs. Esther K. Brown, Misses Mary Leese, Gladys Myers, Mary Catherine Petry, Martha Smith, Erma Myers, Fern Myers, which are members of the graduating class; Margaret Dickensheets, Harriet Leese, Georgia Bixler, Myrtle Angell, Sterling Frock, David G. Yingling, Kenneth Myers, Violet Myers, Ruth Frock, Elinor Brown, Maud Myers, Minerva Beard, John Helwig, David Starner, Paul Leister, Herbert Smith, Theodore Leister, Clarence Myers, Mr. Geary Angell and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig.

Miss Mary V. Myers, Hanover, is confined to bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Myers, this place.

Friends here received word of the death of Edward Myers, Illinois, whose death occurred on Monday morning. He was formerly from here, and has a number of relatives in this county. Mrs. Noah Powell, Mrs. Maggie Hesson and Mrs. Laura Cashman are his sisters, and Mr. William F. Myers, Westminster, is the only surviving brother.

Mrs. Charles E. Eckard entertained last Friday, Mrs. John H. Brown, Mrs. Clarence Shipley, Mrs. Walter Shettle, Mrs. Claude Myers, and Margaret Brown.

Mrs. Mary Bittle is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Geiman.

The following business was transacted last Friday: Mr. Charles Black purchased the large apartment house from Mr. Harvey Daniel Leister, and Mr. Leister in turn bought the tract of land from Mr. Luther Helwig, lying between the store and the new P. O. S. of A. hall, and has started to dig out for the foundation of a new house which will be built and ready to occupy by April 1st. The soil from the excavation is being hauled to the high school grounds where it will be used to terrace and beautify the now unsightly bank. Mr. A. Daniel Leister is chairman of the play ground committee, and if it is left to him, we know he will see to it that it is fixed right. When Dannie takes hold of any thing, it must go.

Mrs. John Senft, Shady Side, who was very sick last week is able to be out again.

Mrs. J. W. Reinecke has organized a Missionary Society in St. Matthew's Reformed church with the following officers: President, Mrs. Reinecke; vice-president, Mrs. Frank Kain; secretary, Mrs. Harry Geiman; treasurer, Mrs. Edward Black. A Girls' Guild was also organized at the same meeting.

Mr. Newton Stair who had the misfortune to have his arm broken while cranking his car is getting along nicely. He is at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Theodore Zepp.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Myers entertained at dinner on Sunday Mr. Edgar Hildebrand, Gettysburg College, also Miss Weney, near New Oxford.

Mrs. John C. Myers, Mrs. Hollie Myers, Mr. T. A. Martin and Fern Myers attended the funeral of the former's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ohler, Taneytown, last week. While in Taneytown, Mrs. Hollie Myers called on her aunts, the Misses Renner.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shettle, Mrs. Charles Logue, Mrs. Clarence Shipley, and Mr. George Brown spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. Norman Warehime, Deatrick's Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Senft, Hanover, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Senft, Shady Side.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Myers and family, Union Bridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Myers, Westminster, spent Sunday evening at the home of Edward M. Hahn.

GREENMOUNT

The funeral of William Kelbaugh who died suddenly at Manchester was held at the Greenmount U. B. church last Friday afternoon with interment in the adjoining cemetery.

Jacob Dehoff is critically ill at his home here with pneumonia.

The Rev. H. Dixon Boughter, pastor of the U. B. church here, and the junior choir took part in the reopening services, at St. John's Methodist church, Hampstead, last Sunday afternoon.

A number of Greenmount folks attended the 16th anniversary of the Ladies' Aid Society at Immanuel Lutheran church on Monday night.

Work has again been resumed on the summer resort which Mr. Klinefelter owner of the "Long View farm" is building near here. They are busily engaged in cutting down trees which will be sawed into lumber and used for building cottages at the park.

George W. Reed, local contractor is digging out the foundation for another modern brick house which he expects to have completed and ready for sale by April.

Gladson Harris and friend, of York, Pa., stopped off on their way to Baltimore Tuesday to visit the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grogg and daughters, Margaret and Madeline, of Hanover, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grogg on Sunday.

Mrs. Irene Wilhelm, of Culpepper, Va., recently visited Mrs. John Grogg.

The home economics teacher, Miss Blocher with her assistants are serving hot lunches every day to the children at school who wish it, for the small cost of three cents. Where is there a mother who would pack lunch when their children can get a nice bowl of soup on a cold day.

Mr. Edward M. Hahn was entertained at dinner on Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Kain, Willow Spring cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shettle were visitors on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, Pleasant View.

Sunday school Sunday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock; sermon at 2:00 by Rev. Kresge, Baust church, supply for Pleasant Valley.

Mr. Clarence Welk has purchased from the Pleasant Valley Packing Company the home where he now resides.

Mrs. Scott Leatherwood returned home on Sunday after spending some time in Westminster.

We are having very mild weather for this time of year. See what the ground hog did.

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the high school auditorium on Monday night. Meeting opened with singing "America the Beautiful," led by Mr. Walrath, Westminster; Bible reading, Mrs. William A. Myers; prayer; solo, Mary Lease; community singing; solo, Elva L. Myers; Mr. Walrath then gave a talk which was very much enjoyed by all. He also said he thought every P. T. A. should have some definite plan and then work to accomplish it. He said he did not know if Pleasant Valley had anything definite planned or not. That was too much for our, "live wire," Mrs. Brown, for she surely is a live wire. She rose immediately and informed Mr. Walrath what the different committees were planning to do. He was pleased to hear the report. Business, more community singing, and adjournment. The Juniors had cake and candy on sale.

Mr. and Mrs. David Helwig and daughter, near Bachman's Valley, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Helwig's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myerly.

The religious meetings held in the P. O. S. of A. hall conducted by the Rev. J. A. McCambridge, of the Pentecostal church, Cheltenham, Prince George's county are being well attended.

Mr. Edward Black has his new house about completed. It has been wired for electric lights, and the furnace has been put in.

Mrs. Edward Black who was confined to the house for a week or more is better. All others in the community who were sick are out again.

A shooting match will be held here tomorrow, Saturday, February 5th, at 1:00 P. M. using still and wild targets.
