LEGAL HOLIDAY

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Saturday, Feb. 22nd

Being a legal holiday the Centreville National Bank of Maryland will be closed. Notes maturing on this day must be arranged for.

W. RAY TABLER, Cashier.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of my dear wife and our mother, MRS. JOHN HOWELL, also for the use of cars.

BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

ADAMS—THE FAMILY of the late Frank W. Adams desire to express their sincere appreciation to all friends and relatives for the beautiful flowers and many kindnesses received in their recent bereavement.

Bartons Entertain At Two Bridge Parties

Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Barton were bridge hosts on Friday and Saturday evenings. On Friday they gave a dessert-bridge with five tables in play. The following evening, Mr. and Mrs. Barton entertained with a dinner-bridge event for Senator and Mrs. W. Mailly Davis, of Odessa, Del., who were their house guests. On both occasions colorful Valentine designs and decorations were a feature.

CHIMNEY BLAZE CALL

A chimney fire at the home of Risdon Dulin called the Good Will Fire Company out over icy roads about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. The blaze was squelched with almost no damage.

Obituary

SAMUEL CAHALL

Samuel Cahall, former resident of Queen Anne's County who for some time had made his home with a brother, Thomas B. Cahall in Wilmington, died in that city last Thursday at the age of 70.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p. m. at Antioch M. E. Church, Templeville, and interment took place in Templeville cemetery.

FRANK W. ADAMS

Frank W. Adams, a well known farmer near Starr died of a heart attack last Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. He had been in ill health for three years following a paralytic stroke. He was 65 years old.

Mr. Adams was a native of Talbot County but came to Queen Anne's as a young man. He had farmed for 40 years in this county, the last 20 of which had been spent on his farm near Starr.

He was twice married, his first wife being the late Eva Scheubrooks who died about 37 years ago. His second wife was the former Miss Rena Montague who survives him. He also leaves four sons and two daughters: Douglas, of Morristown, N. J., and New York City; William, of Quarry ville, Pa., and Richard, and Henry, of Cossart Pa., and the Misses Beaulah, of New York City and Mary Adams, at home.

Three brothers and one sister remain, Loudon, Harry and William J. Adams, Jr., and Mrs. Althea Coulby, all of Talbot County.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from Starr M. E. Church in charge of the Rev. J. P. Kelly and Rev. W. L. McClintock. Interment took place in Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton.

The pall bearers were the Messrs. David Wolcott, Charles Roe, Lawrence Ewing, Frank Ewing, Forde Adams, and James DeLacy.

MILLINGTON

Frances Edwards was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Edwards in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Duling and sons Carlton and Wesley, of Wilmington, were guests several days last week of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Duling.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Wallen, Mrs. Leo Gale and Mrs. Charles Church spent last Wednesday in Wilmington.

Miss Helen Dickerson, of Cliff City, is spending some time with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Hilyard.

Mrs. Charles P. Jones was a Monday guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Martin in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sanner are spending several days this week in Philadelphia.

Miss Margaret Jones youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Jones has just completed a business course at Thompson's Business School in Wilmington.

Billy Sanner is spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shahan, near town.

George Duling, of Wilmington, was the guest several days this week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Duling.

The Homemakers' Club will meet next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John B. Phillips.

The Ladies' Aid will hold their meeting this Thursday evening at eight o'clock at Asbury M. E. Church.

With The Sick

Miss Hilda Wooters, six-year-old daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Wooters, who live near town, returned to her home last week from the Easton Hospital where she was operated on for mastoids.

—o—

Miss Ethel Connolly, secretary for McKenney & Price, who contracted the measles on Saturday was able to resume her work on Wednesday.

—o—

Mr. William E. Roe, 3d, substitute clerk at the Post Office, who for the past week has been confined to his home with measles, will be back to work at the end of the week.

—o—

Master J. Fletcher Rolph, 3d, son of Mrs. J. Fletcher Rolph ,Jr., was removed to Easton Emergency Hospital on Friday where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. "Ted" is coming along as well as can be expected. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher Rolph and Mr. Madison Brown.

—o—

Mr. W. Irving Tuttle, Cashier for the Queenstown Bank of Maryland, is a patient in the Easton Hospital as the outcome of a bad fall on the ice near his home last Friday. Mr. Tuttle is recovering favorably and plans to return at an early date.

—o—

Mr. F. Asbury Bartlett, who has been confined with the mumps for the past week, was able to resume his work on Wednesday. The Misses Betty and Frances Bartlett, who were also victims of the same disease, returned to school on Monday.

—o—

Little Miss Phyllis Lane, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Lane, is ill with the measles at the home of her parents at "Pioneer Point Farms".

—o—

Little Miss Mary Dixon "Dickie" Ashley and Master Sydney "Tiny Boy" Ashley who have been sick with the measles are still unable to return to school. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Ashley.

—o—

The condition of W. W. "Ducky" Holmes who suffered a paralytic stroke at his home in Federalsburg last week is reported as unchanged except for a slight improvement in blood pressure. He is still in too serious condition to be removed to a hospital.
