Items of Local Interest

Tuesday a bill extending the limits of Taneytown, this county, was passed by the House of Delegates.

Miss Catherine Buftner, Baltimore, spent the week-end with Miss Mary Starner, at her home near this city.

Mrs. Della Loury Best, East Main street, has been called to the bedside of her father who is extremely ill at his home in Beverlyville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wisner, Baltimore, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Morningstar, Liberty street.

Miss Grace Elgen, who spent several months traveling in Florida and Cuba, Monday returned to her home on Pennsylvania avenue.

Judge and Mrs. John E. Eckenrode, Liberty street, have returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. William Staub, Philadelphia.

Miss Marguerite Albert, a student at Cedar Crest College, Allentown, Pa., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Albert, East Green street.

The Lutheran Aid of Smallwood will hold a sandwich and pie supper on Wednesday, April 6th in Smallwood hall. All members are requested to bring a basket.

Mrs. Harvey Witter and son David, Liberty street, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Witter and sons, Riverdale, Md. Mr. and Mrs. David Witter are former residents of this city.

Miss Catherine Haines, a nurse at the Woman's hospital, Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haines, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Gilbert, Hagerstown, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Clara Englar, Liberty street. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Clara Englar, daughter Miss Lotta Englar and niece Miss Catherine Gilbert, spent Sunday in Washington, D. C.

Westminster high school has been invited to send its track team to the Eleventh Annual Interscholastic Track and Field Meet at the Carnegie Institute of Technology on May 7, 1927, Clarence Overend, graduate manager of athletics, has announced. Different high school in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, New York, and Maryland, numbering 546 have been asked to compete.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver M. Crouse and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manahan and daughter, Miss Martha Manahan, West Main street, spent Sunday in Hagerstown. Mr. and Mrs. Crouse spent the day with their son, Vernon Crouse and family, while Mr. and Mrs. Manahan and Miss Manahan were guests of Miss Catherine Beachley.

Rev. and Mrs. John S. Hollenbach, of Manchester, spent Saturday afternoon and evening in Philadelphia. Mrs. Hollenbach attended the alumni banquet of West Chester Normal school as a part of which function her class observed its tenth year reunion. Mr. Hollenbach attended the annual founders' day banquet of the Phi Kappa Tau college fraternity.

Washington Camp No. 7, P. O. S. of A., of Pleasant Valley, will dedicate their new headquarters on Saturday, April 2, and have the promise of the presence of William James Heaps, P. N. P., and other members of the state executive Committee for the event. Members of the camps throughout the county have been invited to be present.

Rev. W. L. Seabrook, this city, is visiting Mrs. Seabrook and his son-in-law and daughter, Commander and Mrs. Ralph Whitman, at their home, at the U. S. Navy Yard, Norfolk, Va. There will be no preaching service at Trinity Lutheran church, Deer Park road, next Sunday, but the congregation will assemble as usual to rehearse the music for the Easter service. The regular service will be held Sunday, April 3rd.

Denton R. Snader, New Windsor, received a telegram on Monday morning, stating the Chevrolet coach which was stolen from his garage, as stated in least week's issue of the Sentinel, and thought to have been used in connection with the robbery of the store of Truman Lambert, had been found parked on the street at Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore. Mr. Snader immediately went to the city and returned with his car in good condition excepting the loss of a blanket, which was in the car. No trace of the thieves has been found thus far.

Miss Susan Essich, John street, who has been sick is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mather, Longwell avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. Charles Bish, Washington, D. C., was a week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Grace Bish, West Main street.

This week a marriage license was issued in York, Pa., to David H. Stremmel and Annie E. M. Jones, this county.

Prof. Sanders, Western Maryland College, will fill the pulpit of Centenary Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis have moved from the Elgen property on Pennsylvania avenue, to Pikesville. In the near future Mr. and Mrs. Elgen will move into the property.

Miss Ada Myers and Miss Leila Strodtman, Baltimore, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Elgen, this city. Miss Myers is a former resident of this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Little, wife of Charles Little, died Sunday, March 20, at her home in Hanover. John Wisner, Union Mills, is a brother of the deceased.

Miss Effie M. Jones, Littlestown, and Preston L. Masenheimer, Silver Run, were married Friday, March 18, in the Lutheran parsonage, Silver Run, by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Saltsgiver.

The Epworth League of Mt. Pleasant M. E. church will hold a box social in the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall at Mechanicsville on Thursday, March 31. Ice cream, cake, candy and sandwiches will be on sale.

Mrs. Mary E. Jackson Diven, wife of Myron H. Diven, died Sunday, March 20, aged 80 years. Tuesday funeral services were held from her late residence in Boring, Baltimore county, and interment was made in Hampstead cemetery, this county.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Miller Richardson and family will move from this city to 4134 Forest Park avenue, Baltimore. Mr. Richardson has accepted the general managership of the J. Bolgiano Seed Company, of that city.

Miss Muriel Steele and her roommate, Miss Hope Morgan, New York, are spending the spring vacation with Miss Steele's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Steele, this city. Miss Steele and Miss Morgan are students at Chatham Episcopal Institution, Chatham, Virginia.

Miss Louise Bennett Stitely, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Luther Stitely, of near New Windsor, who is in the senior class at Goucher College, is spending part of her spring vacation in New York visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cover. Miss Stitely's marrage to their son, Mr. Rodney Cover, will take place in the early summer.

Emanuel Arnold, who has been a patient at the Franklin Square hospital, Baltimore, for over five weeks was brought to the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Koons, Carroll street, on Sunday. He is somewhat improved, but still under the care of his physician.

This week a divorce settlement between Dr. A. Leo Franklin, formerly of this county, but now a resident of Cumberland, Maryland, and his wife in which he agreed to pay her $2,400 a year for the support of herself and child Ruth Venne Franklin was signed. Mrs. Franklin is the second wife of the doctor, his first one having died a number of years ago.

Saturday night during a thunderstorm which extinguished the lights at the Springfield State Hospital at Sykesville, this county, Mrs. Susie Baker, aged 35 years, an inmate from Point of Rocks, Maryland, wandered away, and searching parties have failed to find her. She was clad very thinly and Dr. J. Clement Clark, the hospital head thinks she has perished from exposure.

A large delegation of Rotarians, accompanied by their wives, left on Sunday for Salisbury to attend the Rotary convention held there on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The following went from this city: Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Gehr, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pearre Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fogle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Twigg, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Twigg, Peyton Gorsuch, Carroll Albaugh and Charles Eckenrode.

Mrs. Alice Brough has returned to her home in Uniontown after spending the winter with her niece, Mrs. George Byers, West Main street, this city.

Mrs. H. C. Albaugh and daughter, Miss Kathryn Albaugh have returned to their home in Hanover after spending some time with Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Billingslea, East Main street.

The annual tour of the "Jesters," the merry makers of Western Maryland College, has begun for the season of 1927, their first appearance being Monday night in New Windsor.

Miss Florence A. Richter and Harry William Lippy, both of Hanover, were married Saturday in the Centenary M. E. parsonage, this city, by Rev. R. N. Edwards.

UNIONTOWN

Mrs. Alice Brough has returned to her home after spending the winter with her niece, Mrs. George Byers, Westminsted.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers Englar and daughter Betty spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. Norman Otto, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zollickoffer and Miss Dorothy Segafoose spent Sunday afternon with Mr. and Mrs. Addison Koontz, Mt. Union.

Mrs. Samuel Dayhoff, Mrs. Roger Fritz and sons Kenneth and Wilbur, Linwood, were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sittig on Sunday.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Segafoose on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. William Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lemon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Devilbiss, and Roy Devilbiss and daughter Jane, all of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haar, son Howard, Jr., and daughter Betty, Baltimore, spent the week-end with the latter's father, Charles Sittig, near town.

Misses Audrey Repp and Fidelia Gilbert spent the week-end on the Eastern Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Dubs, son Roswell, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Trish, Hanover, were visitors on Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Flora Shriner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Smith and Henry Hutton, Chambersburg, spent Saturday with the former's sister, Mrs. Martha Singer.

Samuel Heltibridle is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Elder and Mrs. W. P. Englar spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hines.

The members and friends of St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school sent Mrs. Frank Bowersox a sunshine box.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davidson and Miss Airietta Schofield, Patapsco, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Davidson's sister, Mrs. Guy Segafoose.

Mrs. Luther Hiteshew, Baltimore, Mrs. R. O. Fuss and Mrs. Raymond Wright, Union Bridge, spent Tuesday with Miss Annie Baust.

Mrs. Shreeve Shriner is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. James Yingling, Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gosnell, Mt. Airy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Buckingham, Sykesville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Burall.

Rev. J. H. Hoch, Charles Fritz, Rinaldo Repp and Shreeve Shriner motored to Hagerstown on Tuesday evening and attended the revival services in progress at the Church of God, Rev. F. Snavely, pastor. Rev. Hoch delivered the evening sermon.

Mrs. Annie O'Meara and daughter, Miss Annie, of Glyndon, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Clayton Hann.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Reinecher and family, and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Tagg, Littlestown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Selby on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fowler motored to Frederick on Monday.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Slonaker were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Romspert, Philadelphia, and Mr. Harry Cashman and son Edmund, Frizellurg.

Dr. George Phillips, Baltimore, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, near town.

Mrs. Julia Trite and daughter Miss Jennie are spending the week with Mrs. Roy Haines. Mrs. Trite has moved from the Zile property into the Mering property.

Mrs. Elwood Zollickoffer gave a birthday dinner to a few friends on Tuesday. Those present were Mrs. George Devilbiss, Mrs. Clarence Lockard, Mrs. Harry Haines, Mrs. Russell Fleagle, Mrs. Lloyd Devilbiss, Mrs. Thomas Devilbiss, Mrs. Alfred Simpson, Mrs. Harold Smelser, Mrs. Alfred Zollickoffer, Mrs. M. A. Zollickoffer, Doris Haines, Caroline Devilbiss, and Lloyd Devilbiss, Jr.

G. C. Garver and son Elmer, York, were week-end guests in town.

H. A. Martin and family moved on Wednesday to the Starr property and J. D. Leakins, Bark Hill, to the house vacated by Mr. Martin.

Mrs. Alfred Zollickoffer was surprised this week to receive a box of fruit from relatives in California, consisting of oranges, grapefruit, lemons, dates and orange blossoms.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Now Is The Time To Make Your Easter Selection.

Our Coat and Millinery Department is overflowing with the newest in ready-to-wear garments. Ready trimmed Hats, Dresses, Coats. All the very latest showing styles to be had at reasonable prices.

Our Coat Department

Ladies' Coats in all the very latest shades priced from $12.50 to $30.00. Children's Coats in all the new shades and mixtures priced from $4.00 up. Misses' Coats in the newest weaves priced at $8.00 and $9.00. Juniors' Sport Coats in tweeds and mixtures $12.50 up.

The Millinery Department

Our Millinery Department is overflowing with Hats of all descriptions. Ladies' ready-to-wear, Matrons', Misses', Children's. We have a cheaper assortment too.

The Dress Department

Our customers tell us we have the best selected line of dresses of any season. Most reasonably priced at $9.75, $16.50. All the latest shades and styles to please. Make your selection now.

The Silk Department

This department is full of the latest in Novelty Silks, Foulard Patterns, Printed Wash Silks, Radium Silks, Wash Crepes, Baronette Satins, Printed Georgette Crepes, Printed Crepe de Chines, Band Trimmings to match, Buckles, Slides, Rhinestone buckles and slides, Fur trimmings, Buttons etc.

Silk Underwear For Easter

The "Munsingwear" Silk Underwear guaranteed for satisfaction. Step Ins, Bloomers, Silk Vests, Combinations in colors of orchid, Nile green, flesh, maize, peach and white.

Silk Hosiery For Easter

The well known nationally advertised Guaranteed Silk Hosiery. "Humming Bird," "Munsingwear."

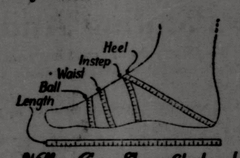

Footwear For Easter

A variety of styles in Ladies' Footwear for Easter time. All the very latest styles to conform to the dresses and coats now being used. Slender Arch Fitter, Oxfords and Pumps. "Florsheim" shoes for men. All latest lasts.

Wilbur Coon Shoes

Who told you that you have to suffer ill-fitting shoes if you want style? Nonsense! Some of the pretty feet that you have envied were more comfortable than your own. The secret is Wilbur Coon Shoes and their special measurements. You get a made-to-measure fit in ready-to-wear shoes. No slipping heels or gaping sides. They hug the foot everywhere.

Of course your feet look trim, dainty. You walk, shop, dance in glorious ease. The pain-wrinkles leave your face. You save your youth.

Wilbur Coon Shoes fit at each of the five important points

SLENDER FOOT ARCH FITTER TRADE MARK

Men's Hats For Easter

A complete line of Stetson hats, Emerson hats, in the new grays, maples and spring shades.

EASTVIEW

Tuesday noon Mrs. George Gazell spent the time with Miss Elsie Conaway, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conaway entertained on Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner and children, Billie and Bettie Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Flickinger were home to see the parents of Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman.

Mr. William Zile had a very good sale, so the folks who attended it said.

The Baltimore county fox clubmen visited these parts on Friday and in company with Mr. James Barnes sent old Reynard on a chase, and he led them a merry chase ending somewhere in the vicinity of Morgan's run.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Sr., were glad to have their married children at home this past week. They were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bond and daughter, and Mrs. Agnes Lovell and children. Mrs. Samuel Gore, daughter and son were home the latter part of this week and took in the sale.

If the County Commissioners intend to have the help of the farmers on this road, now is the time as when busy work once sets in they have all they can well attend to, as help is not so very plentiful in this section. We need this road very badly. Those who voted the return of Mr. Melville feel sure he will not disappoint them after promising them so faithfully to do all in his power to bring this two mile road.

Mr. Dressler, and Mrs. Sophia McCally were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Margaret Nightengale.

George Fosset and Theodore Crist are still under the care of a physician.

Saturday Mrs. Claude Leppo made a call on Mrs. Harry Ogg, who has been sick for the past week.

In view of the satisfaction obtained by the people in being humbugged, a large number of politicians seem rather sure of a permanent job.

The people are urged to plant flowers, but the girls do not seem much interested in bloom except on their cheeks.

If You Intend Painting See Us Before Buying

Sherwin-Williams

Will cost you less per job than any PAINT you can use.

Headquarters For Sherwin-Williams Paints

Penn-Maryland Products Co., Inc.

John Street. Phone 287. Westminster, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2320-0100