SANDYVILLE

Sunday school at Sandy Mount this Sunday morning at 9:30; preaching at 10:45; Christian Endeavor at 7:30 led by Miss Edna Spencer. Business meeting at the close.

The Mite Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Irving Heagy next Friday afternoon, May 6. Members are cordially invited to be present.

Tuesday night Rev. and Mrs. McCaslin and family were given a reception at Sandy Mount church. About two hundred members and friends of Woodensburg, Finksburg and Sandy Mount churches were present and a few f.om Pleasant Grove Methodist Episcopal church including the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Raimey and wife and Rev. Mr. Dice. A very interesting program was rendered, opening with singing, "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name;" prayer by Rev. Mr. Dice; solo, Miss Emma Heagy, "I Love To Tell The Story;" words of welcome from Sandy Mount by Elmer Caple who announced the program; also Mr. Wilbur Shreeve, of Finksburg; Mr. Clifton and Mrs. Ernest Wooden, of Mt. Gelead, gave most cordial words of welcome to the pastor and family in behalf of the churches they represented. Readings, by Miss Evelyn Leister and Mrs. Cunningham; saxaphone solo, by Charles Armacost; solo, by Hubert Caple; duet, by two ladies from Woodensburg; solo, by Gertrude Armacost and Mrs. Alphia Bentz; duet by two young girls from Woodensburg. Mrs. Philena Fenby, who was the delegate to the Maryland annual conference gave a splendid report. She was given a rising vote of thanks. Rev. Mr. Raimey made a few appropriate remarks and greetings to Mr. McCaslin and churches. Mr. Ernest Wooden, who was unable to be present sent a message. He asked all to be mostly concerned this year and a half in winning souls for Christ. If the spiritual part is right the financial part will be all right. Rev. Mr. McCaslin gave a fine response to the addresses of welcome, also gave greetings to the new pastor of Pleasant Grove. The program closed with singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," after which cake and ice cream were served.

Mr. William Westaway lost a valuable horse on Tuesday.

Mrs. Gilbert Brown has been very sick the past week. Her oldest boy also just recovered from a spell of sickness.

Friday night the young people of this community called at the home of the newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myerly, in Westminster, and gave them a serenading, after which they spent a very pleasant evening. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tivis Shipley Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Tivis Shipley spent last week with her son, Walter and family, in Westminster.

Geraldine Stocksdale, who was sick the past week is better.

A number of persons are suffering with colds.

Mrs. Blanche Magee and Mrs. Claude G. Buckingham attended the county W. C. T. U. executive meeting held in Westminster Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was interesting and helpful. The address of Rev. Charles Elderdice was much enjoyed.

MUSIC WEEK MAY 1 TO 5

The program for Music Week, May 1 to 5, is completed. Owing to the fact that the Collegiate Oratorical contest is to be held in Alumni Hall on Friday, May 6, the committee has doubled up on one of the programs and that Music Week ends on Thursday evening. On Monday evening the public school pupils will entertain; on Tuesday the band, Rotary and local talent; Wednesday is church night with music by the different choirs of the town and college, on Thursday the pupils of local music teachers. Ministers of the town are asked to preach Sunday on the subject "Music in Worship." All exercises are open to the public free and will be in Alumni Hall at 8:00 P. M. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. J. P. Wantz, Mrs. W. R. McDaniel, Mrs. Martha Shaw, Mrs. Carroll Albaugh and Mrs. George K. Mather.

INJUNCTION CASE TRIED

Saturday afternoon last the case of Charles W. King against The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster, was heard in chambers by Chief Judge Parke, but owing to more pressing work at the Court of Appeals no decision was rendered.

Mr. King, through his attorney Joseph D. Brooks filed a bill in the Circuit Court praying the court to pass an order restraining The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster from collecting water on the new streets in what is known as Smith's and Cunningham's Additions to Westminster, concentrating it in large volume and then allowing it to flow on the land of Mr. King.

Guy W. Steele represented the Mayor and Common Council.

No decision is expected under at least three weeks.
