Starr Couple Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Smith To Celebrate Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Smith will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary with a party for friends at their home in Starr next Sunday. The couple are well known in Starr where Mr. Smith is a merchant and throughout the county.

Mr. Smith was born in Queen Anne's county 71 years ago while his wife who was Anna May Montague was born at Dover, Delaware, two years later. Her youth was spent in this county, however. The couple were married by Rev. J. A. Arters in the Centreville Methodist Episcopal parsonage on March 22, 1886. With the exception of sixteen years residence in Jersey City during Mr. Smith's railroading days they have lived in Queen Anne's.

Their two daughters, Mrs. R. P. Thomas and Mrs. Violet M. Prink, live in Jersey City. Their only son, Edward O. Smith, who was engaged in real estate in Jersey City, died about a year ago.
