QUEENSTOWN

Miss Mary Ruth Cross, of College Park, is spending the Easter Holidays with her mother, Mrs. Maragret Cross. A son, William Cross who is attending Riverside Military Academy at Gainesville, Ga., wired his mother that the school had not been in the path of the tornado and therefore no danger had been encountered.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Price were married at Trinity Church in Elkton, Md., on April 10th, 1883 by the Rev. William Schouler—A record of fifty-three years.

The hostess to the contract club this week was Mrs. Harry F. Roberts. The top score was won by Mrs. W. I. Tuttle while Mrs. Genevieve Bailey won the floating prize. Guest players were Mrs. E. S. Rowens, Mrs. John Clough, Mrs. Franklin Roberts and Mrs. Robert Baynard.

Mr. J. Clyde Embert was a Baltimore visitor this week for a few days.

Victims of measles this week are Dan Friel and George Aldridge. 'Tis even thought measles can be contracted by correspondence course or sympathy of the mental order.

Our pitch players journeyed to Church Hill on Friday evening and came home with the brush. We understand that another game is to be run to cover on next Wednesday evening after the players have enjoyed the supper given by the ladies of the M. E. Church here in the Community Hall.

A duplicate series of two tables was run off at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Reynolds on Friday evening. The North-South players had every thing against them. The Howell system was used.

Mr. William W. Rhodes was home for the week-end. Mr. Rhodes seems to have the rather unique ability of picking flood localities as he was stopping over-night in Federalsburg when the waters rose high and just lately was working in the flood area of Western Maryland.

Mrs. John T. Bishop and Mrs. W. I. Tuttle were shoppers in Baltimore on Friday.

Mr. Joseph Ginsberg and Mr. Frank Morgan motored to Ft. McHenry for a day.

QUEEN ANNE

Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey Mullikin, of Queenstown were supper guests of Mrs. Mullikin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Barton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Flowers and children Donald and Eleanor, were guests of Mr. Howard Knotts and family at Chestertown on Sunday.

Mesdames Florence Barton and Elizabeth Barnette will have charge of decorating St. Paul's Church for the Easter services.

Patsy Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported to be somewhat better.

Mrs. Harry Clark with her daughter, Mrs. Caldwell Wilson, of Easton, spent from Thursday to Saturday of last week with the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Elmer E. Wheeler in Baltimore. Mrs. Wheeler sailed on Monday from Baltimore for Florida. On the return trip she will be accompanied by Mrs. Maggie Wheeler who has been spending the winter months there.

Misses Ruth Reynolds and Helen Sullivan visited with Mrs. Hazel Rhodes at Denton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stevens were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDevitt in Washington, D. C. a couple of days last week. On Wednesday they were present when Mr. J. E. Cooper, National President of the Rural Letter Carrier Association, was sworn in as Superintendent of the Rural Mail Division.

Mr. P. Howard Hubbard and family were disturbed from their slumber last Thursday night. After the Sheriff had been called and arrived at the scene it was found to be a colored man, James Wilson, who in his drunken prowl had gotten inside the chicken yard. The Sheriff took the man back to Easton with him and the Hubbard family returned to bed to finish their night's sleep.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rowens, of Queenstown, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Anderson, of Centreville, and Mr. and Mrs. James Collier, of Easton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Anderson. Mr. an dMrs. H. Burns, who had been visitting at the Anderson home for the past two weeks, have gone on to Milton, Del.

Miss Violet Gibson, a senior at Blue Ridge College, New Windsor, is spending her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gibson. She had as her guest for several days the first of the week Miss Ruth Ann Nusbaum, a schoolmate.

Miss Elizabeth Lynch, a student at the State Teachers' Training School, Salisbury, will arrive on Wednesday to spend the few days vacation with Mr. S. H. Reynolds and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jefferson, of Smyrna, Del., spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas See and Mrs. Minnie Carter were visitors several days the first of the week of Mrs. George Powell and family at Claymont, Del. Mrs. Powell and daughter Patsy, who had been visiting with Mrs. Carter for the past week returned to Claymont with them.

Miss Addie Morgan who has been a patient at Emergency Hospital, Easton, was brought to her home here on Sunday. All her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Horace Morgan and Mrs. John Chaires spent several days the first of the week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Messix and sons, Taylor and Billy visited with Mr. and Mrs. Webster Holland near Easton on Sunday.

Miss Emma Salisbury, of Ridgely, was the guest of her cousin Miss Fannie Salisbury on Wednesday.

The Misses Carrie and Pallie Callaway had as visitors during the past week Mr. Ira Callaway, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Dulin and children, of Cordova, Mr. and Mrs. George Dulin and Mrs. George Dulin, Sr., of Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Briscoe had as visitors Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Welch, of Sudlersville.

Mesdames J. Willard Sullivan, George Sharp and William C. Stevens attended the Flower Mart and School held at the Homemakers' Clubs of Caroline County at Denton on Friday.

Miss Violet Gibson, of Blue Ridge College will be the soloist at the Easter morning service. In the evening 'The triumph of the Defeated"—a seven o'clock candle service will be presented by St. Paul's Church with special music.

CRUMPTON

Aspecial religious service will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Wood at the M. E. Church Good Friday evening.
