Green-Shockey Nuptials Set

County Health Nurse To Wed Mr. Green

Miss Anne P. Shockey, County Health Nurse since 1931, and daughter of Mr. George Shockey and the late Mrs. Mary Catherine Shockey of Meyersdale, Pa., will be married to Mr. William Hall Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green of Ware, Mass., and Centreville, at Grace Methodist Protestant Church Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by the Rev. L. Colvin Randall.

The attendants will be Mrs. John Cochran as matron of honor, and Mr. Clarence E. Woodward as best man.

The bride will be attired in a blue suit with navy accessories and will carry bride's roses. The matron of honor will wear a tailored suit of grey trimmed with coral and will carry pink roses.

Miss Shockey attended Maryville College at Maryville, Tennessee, and the Pensylvania College for Women at Pittsburgh. She is also a graduate nurse of Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Mr. Green is connected with the landscaping department at Pioneer Point Farms.

Both young people are popular throughout Queen Anne's county. No formal invitations have been sent out, the young couple preferring a general invitation to their friends.

Following the ceremony they will leave for a week's trip to Chicago after which they will reside in the Walter Wright apartments in Centreville.

Coon Dogs To Get Work Out At Cecilton Sunday

A large entry of dogs from Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Maryland is expected near Cecilton next Sunday, April 26, where the spring trials of the Eastern Shore Coon Hunters' Association are to be held. There were 102 entries last spring and equally as many if not more are expected when the all-day event gets under way at 9:30 a. m. Noive and fox chases are also scheduled.

Driver, purse-winning hound of Edgar E. Walls which won at Reading, Pa., last Saturday will be among the runners at Cecilton, and is also entered for the trials at Westminster scheduled for Saturday.

Negroes Given Pen Term For Hillsboro Assault

As a climax to the assault on George Ford, aged Hillsboro merchant, with a blackjack on January 23 by three Negroes who planned to rob him as he was locking up his store for the night the men, Johnnie Truxton, Paul Nichols and Enoch Pritchett, were each sentenced to five years in the Maryland penitentiary at Denton Saturday.

The men were found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to rob at a trial in the Circuit Court for Caroline county with Associate Judges Thomas J. Keating and J. Owen Knotts on the bench.
