CHAPTER NO. 188

A BILL ENTITLED

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 21 and 42 of Article 11 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, Edition of 1924, Title "Banks and Trust Companies," subtitles, "Banks" and "Trust Companies," respectively, and to add a new Section to said Article, to follow Section 52, under the sub-title "General Regulations," and to be known as Section 52-a, to provide for the perpetual succession of all banks, savings institutions and trust companies, incorporated under the laws of this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 21 of Article 11 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, Edition of 1924, Title "Banks and Trust Companies," sub-title "Banks," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

21. The persons associating to establish a bank under this Article shall make, sign and acknowledge written articles of incorporation, containing:

First. A declaration that they associate for the purpose of forming a banking corporation under this article.

Second. The name of such bank. This name shall be in no material respect similar to the name of any other bank in the same county or city.

Third. The particular village, town or city and county where such bank is to be located.

Fourth. The amount of capital stock, which shall be divided into shares of not less than ten dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Section 42 of Article 11 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, Edition of 1924, Title "Banks and Trust Companies," sub-title "Trust Companies," be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

42. Eleven or more persons, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them citizens of this State, may form a corporation to be known as a trust company. Such persons shall under their hands and seals acknowledge articles of incorporation which shall specifically state:

First. The name by which the corporation shall be known.

Second. The place where its business is to be transacted.

Third. The amount of its capital stock and the number of shares of the par value of not less than twenty-five dollars each, into which same is to be divided.

Fourth. The name, residence and postoffice address of each member of the corporation.

Fifth. A declaration that each member of the corporation will accept

PUBLIC GENERAL LAWS

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That a new section be, and the same is hereby added to Article 11 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, Edition of 1924, Title "Banks and Trust Companies," sub-title, "General Regulations," said Section to be known as Section 52-a, to follow immediately after Section 52, and to read as follows:

52-a. Every "Banking Institution" formed under this Article shall have, until forfeiture, the right of perpetual succession; and all provisions in the charter or certificate of any existing "Banking Institution" or imposed upon it by any act in force at the time of its creation or formation, limiting its duration, are hereby annulled and repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect upon the date of its passage.

Approved March 25, 1927.

CHAPTER NO. 322

A BILL ENTITLED

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 67 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Licenses," sub-title "Traders," limiting the special female trader's license fee to unmarried females.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 67 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Licenses," sub-title "Traders," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

67. An unmarried female engaged in vending millinery, or other small articles of merchandise whose stock in trade does not at any time during the year exceed three hundred dollars shall be entitled to license on paying therefor, six dollars, but if her stock in trade exceeds three hundred dollars she shall pay the same rates as other persons, the amount of her stock in trade to be ascertained by oath as in other cases.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1927.

CHAPTER NO. 393

A BILL ENTITLED

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Lunatics and Insane," sub-title "Board of Mental Hygiene," to be known as Section 21-A and to follow immediately after Section 21 of said Article, providing that in certain cases insane veterans of the World War may be cared for by the United States Veterans' Bureau.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Lunatics and Insane," sub-title "Board of Mental Hygiene," to be known as Section 21-A, to follow immediately after Section 21 of said Article, and to read as follows:

21-A. Where a veteran of any War, military occupation or expedition, is, or has been, adjudged mentally incompetent by a Court of competent jurisdiction and commitment to a hospital for the insane is necessary, such Court is hereby authorized to communicate with the official in charge of the U. S. Veterans' Hospital within the State of Maryland with reference to the eligibility of such veteran to be hospitalized in such United States Veterans' Hospital. If the Court is advised by the official in charge of such hospital that such veteran is entitled to hospitalization and the veteran is acceptable for same and Bureau facilities within the State of Maryland are available, the Court may direct such veteran's commitment to such United States Veterans' Hospital within the State of Maryland and such veteran upon admission shall

A BILL ENTITLED

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 1 of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Justice of the Peace," sub-title "Qualification," so as to require every Justice of the Peace to give bond in the amount and form fixed by this Act, and to add a new section to said Article to follow immediately after Section 1 of said Article, to be known as 1-A, relating to the recording and proof of said bonds.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 1 of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Justices of the Peace," sub-title "Qualification," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

1. Within thirty days after his commission shall have been received in the clerk's office of the County or City, every Justice of the Peace shall take and subscribe the oaths and declaration prescribed by the Constitution; and at the same time every Justice of the Peace shall file with the Clerk of the Court receiving his said commission a good and sufficient bond to the State of Maryland with security to be approved by said Clerk in the penalty of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) conditioned that he will faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of Justice of the Peace, that he will truly account for and pay over to the proper State officer or officers all money coming into his hands and belonging to the State of Maryland at the times fixed by law for the payment thereof, and that he will truly account for and
