SANDYVILLE

Sandy Mount children's service was held last Sunday morning with the church crowded with members and friends. The children rendered an excellent program. Much credit is due the teachers as they gave so much time to the training of them. Sterling Caple announced the program, scripture was read by Mr. Fillmore Hoff and the church, prayer by Rev. Irving Dice, after which the school rendered choruses, solos, duets, exercises, recitations, drills, etc. Mr. John Houck and two young men from Baltimore played instruments which were much enjoyed. The pastor Rev. Mr. McCaslin made fitting remarks as the service was in memory of the late Rev. Fred C. Klein, D. D., who was the first missionary of the church to Japan. Since his great ambition and anxiety before he died was to see the church at Nagoya College, Japan, now under construction, built and paid for the Board asked for extra funds through the children's day offering to meet this great need. The people responded generously and the children collected nearly fifty dollars. Geraldine Stocksdale and Elaine Barnhart having the largest amounts, Ruth Heagy and Hubert Caple the next. All will be given a reward. The entire amount was nearly one hundred dollars.
