"Happy Birthday For Kate" Say Fans

Congratulations and good wishes piled up for Kate Smith, radio songstress, on her fifth radio anniversary Monday evening. It was also the 27th birthday for the buxom star who has been frequently voted radio's most popular feminine singer. World's Mightiest Circus Coming Soon

With the most impressive and brilliant seven-ring-and-stage program in its history, the Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus, which will exhibit in Baltimore, Wednesday, May 20-21, offers this season, as a sensational super-feature, a herd of African pigmy elephants, the first ever to set foot on this continent. These tiny tuskers are not babies, but full-grown, middle-aged midget elephants, the rarest animals on the face of the earth. Accompanying them is a herd of miniature African pongurs, the world's smallest beasts of burden. The pigmy elephants have proven the greatest attraction the Big Show has ever placed before the public, not even excepting its presentations in the past of the disclipped Ubangis, the giraffe-necked women from Burma, the sacred white elephant of Siam, Jumbo, Tom Thumb and Goliath, the sea elephant.

Among the scores of new features, to say nothing of the new importations from Europe and Asia, including the incredible Naitto troupe, the Royal Bokara troupe, the Imperial Viennese equestrian troupe, the great Frederico and a free running horse, pony and elephant liberty act of sixty members, is Col. Tim McCoy, the screen's most outstanding western star, at the head of his congress of rough riders of the world —Cossacks, cowboys, cowgirls, vaqueros, Sioux and Blackfeet warriors and Australian bushrangers. Col. McCoy, plainsman, cavalry officer in the U. S. Army Reserve and friend of the Indian, is the idol of American boys and girls, and he will be seen in both the main performances and the wild west.

The Greatest Show on Earth heads into this territory on four long railroad trains of 100 cars, with 1600 people, 7 herds of full-sized elephant actors, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses. Its tented city covers 14 acres of ground. There are 31 large tents, including the world's largest big top, seating 16,000 persons.

This is the peak season for youth and beauty among the 800 world famous arenic artists with the show. In the air, in the three rings, on the four stages and in the quarter-mile hippodrome track will be seen hundreds of pretty girls. In the 60-girl aerial ballet, the most beautiful mid-air display ever produced, there are beauties that evoke columns of newspaper comment wherever the Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus exhibits.

BETWEEN DIALS

By GAGER WASEY

If anyone desires a pair of white mice, merely get in touch with Andre Baruch, one of the WABC announcers. Sent to him by one of his many devoted admirer's Baruch can't seem to get devoted to the mice.

A new series of programmes, political in their nature has begun. Colonel Stoopnagle has hurled himself into public life with his campaign cry of "Keep Stoopnagle out of the Whitehouse". For those who are interested in the development of this attack against the Colonel, just turn the dial (Columbia, 9:30 p. m. Sat.) and listen.

America's best loved folk-songs are to be a regular Monday evening feature of the Lombardo Road programme. (WABC 8.00 P. M.) All who love to hear those old fashioned songs of yesterday are sure to enjoy Guy Lombardo and his music.

There was much argument recently when the Columbia network allowed Earl Browder, secretary of the American Communist party to broadcast a 15 minute talk on the aims and policy of his party. Little fuss should be made about it all as probably the only persons interested in his speech were members of the Communist party and they don't own radios. And if they did they know the story by heart anyway.

As far as WJZ is concerned, ghost dramas are popular with radio audiences. Recently the station made an announcement that their weekly Sunday ghost-story skits would be discontinued unless enough listeners objected. In less than a week WJZ received over 1,000 requesting the continuance of this type of entertainment, so now the ghosts have it.

It isn't often that the CBS and the NBC chains ever get together, as they spend most of their time cutting each other's throat. But next fall the two networks will jointly present he first of a series of international musical programs to the greatest audience the radio world has ever known. Forty nations have joined the International Broadcasting Union and will semi-annually present a different country's musical airs to the world at large. It will only take 20 years to get through the list so don't give up hope if your country should be at the bottom of the list.

Don't let anyone tell you that Major Bowes' Amateur Hour is losing its popularity. Applications from more than 1,500 amateurs come in daily to the Major's office. He has had in the past year 546,000 letters requesting a trial on his Hour. Not bad Major, not bad.

Those who enjoy listening to the broadcasting of prizefights, will be glad to learn that promoter Joe Jacobs has released radio rights for the Joe Louis-Max Schmeling brawl to take place about the middle of June. T'is to be sponsored by the same company that handled the Louis-Baer fight last fall. This news is a bit previous, but it will give all you listeners a chance to get front row seats before the mike.

—o—

Preliminary arrangements for the radio coverage of both the national Republican and Democratic political conventions in June have been completed. Due to the tremendous interest in the national elections this year, it is believed that both parties will conduct their sessions in the evening so the largest posible listening audience may be reached. Don't get this mixed up with the Louis-Schmeling fight in June as the sound effects will probably be very similar.

There's no argument for insurance like the experience of a man who suffers a loss WITHOUT Insurance.
