Centreville Hi-Post

COMMENCEMENT NEARS

School is drawing to a close with the ferocity of the hot sun beating down on the steaming streets. Not only the seniors, but the other students as well, are working like Trojans to complete units, assignments, review the term's work and prepare for finals.

Therefore, we, the staff of the Centreville Hi-Post feel that we must terminate the articles that we have prepared for this paper during the year.

We have enjoyed our work and hope that you have appreciated our efforts.

We thank you for the cooperation, the courtesy and the tolerance you have shown us.

To add a word for the seniors may we be a credit to Centreville, the high school and the faculty when we become one of the great alumni.

THANKS TO JUNIORS

We, the seniors, wish to express our deep appreciation to the juniors for the Prom given in our honor on May 15. Although this little note was delayed we sincerely thank you for the delightful time we all had which was only made possible through your work and cooperation.

May next year's junior class give you as nice a prom as you gave us.

—The Senoirs.

JUNIOR NEWS
By Shirley Dewing

Monday we began reviewing in English and Home Ec. for our final exams. Half of our French exam on vocabulary, was taken Monday and the first half of our history exam has been finished. So, with the rest of our examinations only a few days off, we have begun reviewing earnestly.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Sophomore English class handed in its Ivanhoe Booklet, to which additions were made by each pupil.

The booklet contained over 300 pages of reports, records, pictures, etc., which pertain to the stay of Ivanhoe. The cover was printed neatly by Tommy Price.

The chairman of the committee for the booklet, Peggy Shawn, presented it to Miss Dodd, who was very pleased with the splendid cooperation of our class.—Extracted from Denzel Carlyle Blevins.

1-A HAPPENINGS

Jane Chambers, Madison Brown and Orville Usilton received 100% in the Latin Contest this week.

We are proud to have in our 1-A group one of the five girls who were selected as high school beauties. She is Virginia Handley.

Margaret Rhodes, James Andrews, Marion Golt, Evelyn Butler, Oliver Berry and Ridgaway Perkins were the ones who got A's in their English notebooks for the second semester.

Those who got the highest votes for the most attractive covers were Oliver Berry, first; Ridgaway Perkins and Jack Smith tied for second, and third place, Margaret Rhodes. Margaret's books are also the most complete.

Margaret Rhodes spent the week-end in Baltimore visiting her brother.

Virginia Lee Handley spent the week-end in Cambridge.

1-B NOTEBOOKS
By Marie Faulkner

Our notebooks on Short Stories were handed in Friday. We voted on the covers, and Almedia Thomas got first place, Marie Faulkner second, and Rose Lane third. Those who got honorable mention were Elizabeth Kaufman and Dorothy Sparks.

HOME ECONOMICS

In our home project, we brought in a cup cake and awarded ribbons to the best three. We judged from appearance before cutting, texture, and icing. Mary Elizabeth Mullikin got first place, Louise Massey second, and Thelma Callahan third.

Some of the things other classes brought in for exhibit were as follows:

Eighth Grade 1-A—Slips, dresses, and samples of stitches. Very few got their dresses to a finishing point.

Ninth Grade—Pajamas, school dresses, foods.

Tenth Grade — Blouses, evening dresses. Emma Bowers in dresses got first prize, Betty Bartlett second, Eleanor Whiteley, third.

Eleventh Grade—Books, slips, and graduation dresses.

PARTY FOR DUKES CHILD

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Dukes celebrated the third birthday of their little daughter, Jean, last Friday afternoon at their home near Centreville.

The guests were Charlotte Kriss, Lee and Ann Shewbrooks, Shirley Shortall, and Beatrice Anderson, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Shewbrooks, Mrs. Dukes, Mrs. Calvin Anderson and Mrs. Bishop.

SCOTCH TEA AT CRUMPTON

A Scotch tea and supper will be served by the ladies of Crumpton M. E. Church on Saturday, Decoration Day at Crumpton in the church house beginning at 5 p. m. Scotch music and other features relating to Scotland, of which the Rev. David Wood, pastor of the church, is a native, will be features on an entertainment program in conjunction with the affair.

ST. PAUL'S SERVICES EARLY

Because of the baccalaureate sermon and service for the graduating class of the High School at the armory on Sunday at 11 a. m., the service at St. Paul's will be held at 10 a. m. There will be no sermon.

The usual service of Holy Communion will be held at 8 a. m., and the Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m.

CHURCH HILL HIGH NEWS

AS THE YEAR CLOSES
By Dorothy Smallwood, '37

What a busy time this is. Everybody is in a whirl getting ready for the close of school. Music is being practiced, invitations sent out, clothes being made, shoes and nails being polished, and students trying to crowd in all the knowledge of the term in one night.

The juniors are very happy to see the seniors get the awards they deserve, but we will miss not seeing them next year in our school. When they graduate from our high school they are the ones to decide the course they are going to take, whether they go to college or work. Whatever they do we hope they will meet with success.

We all will give a cheer
For the close of school is near.
Most are very cheery,
But some are sad and weary
Because of duties left undone.

PARTY FOR SENIORS
By Lauretta Hall, '37

The juniors seemed to have had a conference with the weatherman for he surely gave us a glorious evening for a party. We worked Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon decorating and gathering flowers used for colorful and fragrant decorations. So by Thursday night at 7:30 we were all set to receive the seniors who came looking pretty in their best togs.

The twelve seniors, the faculty members, and we eighteen juniors met at the Parish House and then went on to the movie theatre where we saw an old favorite, Will Rogers in "The Connecticut Yankee".

After the movie, we went back again to the Parish House and during the next hour played games in which everybody took part. By that time the seniors and faculty looked hungry and thirsty, so we served ice cream, cake, and souvenirs of candy.

We were sorry that Ruth Harrington could not be with us, due to illness which has confined her to her home for several weeks.

Amusement Tickets Tax Compulsory

Agents of the State Comptroller's office are making a tour of the State, leaving forms at the newspaper and job printing offices that must be used by all printers to fill in and return every time an admmission ticket is printed. All shows, exhibits, or anything of an amusement nature for which a charge is made is liable for the one per cent tax. Persons contemplating anything of this kind are warned that the tax must be paid. There are no exemptions, this tax applying even to churches, lodges, schools, and all charitable benefits.

BECOMES GRADUATE NURSE

Miss Belle Higdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higdon, was among the graduates of the school of nursing at the Maryland General Hospital when commencement exercises were held last week at the Mount Vernon Place Church in Baltimore.

Class night exercises and a reception were held in the hospital dining room for the staff, the nurses and about 200 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Higdon attended.
