Obituary

MRS. JESSIE M. LYNN

Mrs. Jessie M. Lynn, devout churchwoman and highly respected resident of Wye Mills, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Leaverton, last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the age of 72.

Born in Scotland, June 25, 1864, her parents the late Robert and Marjorie Pyper, came to this country when she was 8 years old, settling in New York State.

She was a member of the Centreville M. E. Church, the Ladies' Aid and Bible Class and was active in the affairs of the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Lynn married twice. Her first husband was the late John M. C. Roe who died in 1891. From this union there was one daughter, Mrs. Leaverton. Her second husband was John M. Lynn whom she married on Oct. 25, 1899. He died in 1918.

In addition to her daughter, she is survived by two brothers, David and George Pyper, of Talbot County. Another brother, Robert, died in Kiwanis, Ill., last January.

Funeral services were held from the home of Mrs. Leaverton last Saturday at 2 p. m. conducted by the Rev. Harry V. Branford. Interment was in Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton.

The pall bearers were the Messrs. J. Elmer Anthony, L. Herman Meredith, Frank Benton, Ralph C. Baynard, Carey Jewell and H. F. Denny.

MRS. WM. A. JARMAN

Mrs. Lida Virginia Jarman, wife of William A. Jarman, retired farmer and member of a large and prominent Queen Anne's family, died of a heart attack at her home in Sudlersville at 12:30 a. m. Monday following an illness of about six weeks. She was 65.

A lifelong member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, active worker in the Ladies' Aid, the Epworth League and W. C. T. U., she was one of the county's finest Christian women. In her home she was always a charming hostess and her death was a shock to the community. She was also a member of the Civic Betterment Club.

Daughter of the late Emory and Susan Smith, she and Mr. Jarman were married at Old Dudley's Church 44 years ago. She was organist there until regular services closed.

In addition to her husband she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Arthur Coleman, Sudlersville; Mrs. Marion Smith, Claymont, Del., and Mrs. Charles E. Anthony of Centreville. She also leaves seven brothers and three sisters, namely: John W., Olin, Lee and Charles Smith, of Sudlersville; Thomas Smith, near Chestertown, William Smith of Baltimore, Elwood Smith of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Samuel Dell Foxx, Sudlersville; Mrs. Elwood Coleman, Crumpton, and Mrs. Lula Smith of Chester, Pa.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. C. M. Griffeth were held at Old Dudley's Church Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment was in Sudlersville Cemetery.

Six nephews served as pall bearers: Samuel, Claude and Kenneth Smith, William and Julian Coleman, and Samuel Dell Foxx, Jr.

Mr. Harry Knotts, Jr., who is employed on the Grace Line, the Santa Lucia will pass the next five weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knotts.

Terps Triumph Over Parsons In Opener, 11-5

Schellberg Invincible, Gives Way In 9th. Goldsboro At Queenstown Sunday

Paced by the veteran Jack Schellberg who tossed three hit ball for eight innings and with all hands spraying the landscape with base hits of varying lengths, the Queenstown Terps had little difficulty in hanging a trimming on the hitherto undefeated Church Hill Parsons in the opening game of their schedule at Queenstown last Sunday.

The final tabulation read 11 to 5. It was not until the ninth inning when Schellberg decided to rest up a bit and let Jimmy White take a workout that the Parsons scored. Then they corralled all their runs on five hits and a base on balls.

The Terps lost little time getting underway. Five hits, among them a double by Cass Clough, last year Shore Oriole dependable, wrought the damage. A total of 20 hits was amassed by the Terps.

Before the firing ended the Parsons had sent Henry Gonzales, erstwhile Betterton prize fighter to the mound, but the Terps handled him as roughly as Bob Cosden does in the ring.

Stoops, Haspert, Howeth, and young Bill Cross all got workouts in the Terp lineup in the late innings after the game had been stowed away.

The Terps took the field with Rinehart at short, Burkman 2b, Eddie Turner cf, Clough rf, Campbell 1b, Biscuit Morris lf, Tony Hudson 3b, Nichols behind the bat and Schellberg on the mound.

The Parsons had F. Plummer on third, Walls lf, Jarvis 1b, Hall cf, Turner c, Moore lf, Lucas rf, Spry ss, and W. Plummer on the mound.

Next Sunday the Terps will take on Goldsboro. Lobby Cane, the crack southpaw who pinned their ears back three times in the Little World Series last fall while pitching for Centreville, will be on the mound with Ralph Walls catching.

There was a family gathering at Mr. Charlie Gardner's on Sunday.

—o—

Mrs. Hattie Tolson is doing very well with her Seafood Grill at the Narrows.

—o—

The crop of black ducks that raise here every year seem to be heavier than ever.

Jones Seen As Possible Timber For Presidency

Interesting to bankers as gossip, with always the possibilty of significance in the immediate future, is the mention of Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., as a possible Democraitc candidate for the Presidency in 1940.

Mentioned in connection with such a "possibility" is the financial condition of the RFC, its record of securing repayment of its loans and the general aid that the Corporation has given to the banks.

Jesse Jones is generally acknowledged as a power in the Democratic party, a general favorite with the high command at the White House and, it is assumed, a willing target should the popular lightning strike in his direction after Franklin Roosevelt should have served his second term.

POWER LINE FINANCING

The Norris Electrification Bill recently passed by Congress is designed to finance over a 10-year period efforts for extension of power lines into rural areas with loans to farm groups municipalies and private companies.

Centreville Whips Jays 8-6; Lose To Packers, 16-1

The Centreville Independents split a double header at Stevensville Sunday afternoon when they took an 8 to 6 decision over the Kent Island Blue Jays in the opener and suffered a severe 16 to 1 trouncing at the hands of the Phillips Packing Company outfit in the nightcap. Each game was a seven-inning affair.

The county seaters uncovered a new tarting pitcher in John Hagen who took the rubber for his flinging debut against the Jays. Hagen fogged them through to hold the Jays scoreless for five innings. The Jays scored all their runs in the final chukkers as Hagen coasted along under an eight-run lead.

The Packers easily solved Lucas' delivery, blowing four runs across in the third and eight in the sixth inning.

AN APOLOGY

Through an error, the property of Mr. and Mrs. Zebulon Hunter of the Fifth Election District of Queen Anne's County was advertised as delinquent and later sold at the tax sales held on May 19th, 1936.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter paid all the State and County taxes on their property on January 27th, 1936. Full correction has now been made.

It is needless to state that I deeply regret this error and I wish to offer my sincere apology to Mr. and Mrs. Hunter for my mistake.

J. William Keith
County Treasurer for Queen Anne's County.
