PLEASANT VALLEY

There is music in the air! Where? Pleasant Valley Home Coming, Labor Day, September 5, 1927. Everybody is going to sing:

"Oh, The Pleasant Valley Hills;
How majestic and how grand,
With their summits bathed in glory
Like our Prince Immanuel's land;
Is it any wonder then that my heart
with rapture thrills,
As I stand once more with loved ones,
On those Pleasant Valley Hills."

Come and sing with us. If you can't sing, whistle.

The final arrangements are made for the Home-Coming, and a pleasant time is anticipated. The program is outlined as follows: 2:00 P. M. community singing led by Emory C. To the Secretary of Home-Maker's Club of Pleasant Valley, Md.

Dear Friend:

I read an account a short time ago that there was to be a Home-Coming at the old home town on September 5, and the program would be given later. Would you please mail me a program or give me the outline of the program for that day? I would like to spend part of the day at the Home-Coming and the balance at the Fleagle reunion, at Taneytown. I was born and lived on the old Stone road about one mile from Pleasant Valley, and left there about forty-eight years ago. Thanking you in advance for any information you can give me about the Home-Coming program, I remain,

Very truly,
George F. Frock,
Belview Ave., Baltimore, Md.

Many of the older residents remember Mr. Frock, and would welcome him back. It certainly is a pleasure to hear and know that folks who live away have a desire to get back home. We hope more will take the same notion as Mr. Frock did and will attend the Home-Coming, as all who are interested are very welcome
