Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Shreeve Shriner, Uniontown, was a recent visitor to this city.

Mrs. Vincent Eckenrode died Saturday at her home in Harney, this county.

Miss Kathleen Shriver, this city, will leave on Sunday for a week's stay in Philadelphia.

Miss Della Rhodes, Union Mills, has accepted a position with Stewart N. Dutterer, florist, this city.

Mrs. William H. Vanderford has returned to this city after a visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. Bickley Morton, Roxbury, Pa.

Sunday Mr. John K. Miller, of Millers, gave a dinner in honor of his youngest son, J. Milton Miller and wife who were married on Saturday.

Mrs. L. N. Hitchcock has returned to her home on East Main street after being a patient in a Baltimore hospital.

Mrs. Lula Zahn and Miss Gladys Zahn, Philadelphia, Pa., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Zahn, Sr., this city.

Mrs. Herbert Lambert has returned to her home in this city after having been a patient in the Hanover General hospital for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. George D. Fouke and family, East Main street, have moved to Philadelphia, Pa., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Russell Schaeffer and sons, Pennsylvania avenue, are visiting Mrs. Schaeffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Connellsville, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Peltz, this city, was operated upon last week for appendicitis in the Hanover General hospital.

Mrs. Maggie Hyatt who spent the past few weeks at the home of her son, Ray Lewis and family, returned Sunday to her home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Martha Powell has returned to her home in Pleasant Valley after a week's visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Myers, this city.

Rev. C. A. Byler, until recently pastor of the Church of God, this city, left Wednesday with his family for his new charge in Roaring Springs, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Haines and daughter, this city, spent the week-end in Baltimore with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Battenfeld.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Rupley and sons John and Kendig, this city, spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Rupley's mother, Mrs. Frank Weller at her home in Charlestown, West Virginia.

A home bake sale will be held Saturday, November 5 at 2:00 P. M. in the D. R. Geiman show room, West Main street, for the benefit of the junior and primary department of Grace Lutheran church.

Miss Mildred R. Reese, Unionville, and Robert E. Helwig, Union Mills, were married Saturday, October 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Pearre, New Windsor. The bride's pastor, Rev. Zuebach officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kauffman and daughter Evelyn, Park avenue, and Mrs. Kauffman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baker and daughter Esther, Woodbine, spent Sunday in Charlestown, West Virginia, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Foresman, Philadelphia, announce the birth of a daughter, Cordelia Jane, at the Jefferson hospital on Monday. Mrs. Foresman, who was Miss Evelyn Bond, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bond, East Main street, this city.

Harry Horn, York, Pa., moved his household goods to the house recently vacated by William Griffen, Liberty street. John Corbin, this city, moved from East Main street to the vacant house of Russell Ehrhart, Liberty street, who recently moved to Frederick.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis, East Green street were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Simmonds and Mrs. Maggie Hyatt, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shipley and children Edna, Stewart and Donald, Merton and Ina Covers, Mrs. Sterling Frock and daughter Jean, and Mr. and Mrs.

William Kopp, Lineboro, is a patient in the Hanover General hospital.

Miss Ella Lloyd, Dennings, will spend the winter in New Windsor with her sister, Mrs. Alverta Brown.

Miss Esta Bemiller, Silver Run, is undergoing treatment for goiter in the Hanover General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Eckenrode, Red Front Apartments, announce the birth of a son Monday, October 31.

Governor Ritchie has issued a proclamation designating the week of November 7-13 as "Education Week."

Mrs. Charles R. Foutz, West Main street, is a patient in a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. William Rineman, Carroll street, is ill at his home with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stoner Geiman, West Main street, spent Sunday with friends in Martinsburg, W. Va.

Mrs. Maud Bowman, Hagerstown, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Bixler, West Main street.

This week Mrs. C. Bickley Morton, Roxbury, Pa., visited relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Blanche Taylor, Patapsco, has returned from the Maryland General hospital, Baltimore, in a much improved condition.

This week a marriage license was issued in Baltimore to William T. Barnes, Finksburg, and Mary A. Jordan.

Mr. Claude G. Buckingham, Sandyville, spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Reese, East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Hutchins and son, this city, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Yingling, Littlestown.

Mrs. Flora Myers, Baltimore, spent several days this week with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Conover, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. John Stambaugh has returned to her home in Thurmont after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stultz, this city.

Rev. John S. Hollenbach, of Manchester, spent a few days last week in Lancaster, Pa., attending the meeting of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed church.

Misses Madeline Bitzel, Becky Mummert, Clair Crawford and Walter Bitzel, Hanover, Pa., were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bitzel, Smallwood.

Mary Sipe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sipe, Liberty street, who is a patient in Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Claude G. Buckingham and daughter, Sandyville, in company with friends from the same place spent the week-end in Cumberland where they attended the State C. E. convention held there.

For the fiscal year ending September 30 the gasoline tax collected by the State for building and maintaining hard roads amounted to $3,520,711, and collections since the end of the year indicate a large increase between now and September 30, 1928.

The trustee sale of Wade H. D. Warfield held on October 28 at Sykesville netted about $1,800 on the farming implements. The machinery sold at good prices and there was a large crowd bidding. J. N. O. Smith was the auctioneer. Edward O. Weant and Harry Phelps, trustees for Wade H. D. Warfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Senft, this city, entertained at dinner on Saturday evening the Rev. and Mrs. W. V. Garrett and son Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Senft, daughter Eliza, and sons Luther and Clarence, all of Taneytown, and Augustus Bankert, Hanover. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Bankard and daughter, Hanover.

A large number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. Leonard Freyman, near this city, whose husband died suddenly last week in the wheat field, gathered at her home on Monday and rendered her some very valuable service. The men and some of the women cut eighteen acres of corn, dug out her late potatoes and finished sowing her wheat. Mrs. Freyman served a dinner which some of the women as-

SANDYVILLE

The Hallowe'en pie social held by the young ladies' and men's Sunday school classes of Sandy Mount Church last Friday night was a success. The church was artistically and appropriately decorated for the occasion. The young people deserve credit for their interest. The proceeds will be given toward the church debt.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Cleaveland Bateman, Carrollton, last Thursday afternoon with a very helpful and pleasant meeting. After the devotional service and business session temperance readings were given by Mrs. Fetter Newhelle, Mrs. Eurith Evans, Mrs. Sue Keller and Mrs. Myrle Caple Buckingham. The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in December.

A very interesting Christian Endeavor service was held at Sandy Mount church Sunday night with a large attendance, Elmer Caple leader. There was special violin music. A large number of young people participated in the service. Rev. Mr. McCaslin gave a splendid talk. Miss Edna Spencer will be the leader this Sunday night and will have some special musical numbers and other interesting features. Business meeting also.

Do not forget the special temperance meeting to be held at Pleasant Grove this Sunday morning by the Willard W. C. T. U. Bethel and Sandy Mount churches invited to unite with Pleasant Grove in this service. Dr. Stevens will be present as a speaker.

Messrs. Sterling Caple and Holmes Lockard, Misses Edna Spencer and Miss Owings, Mrs. Claude G. Buckingham and daughter Margaret Angela, motored to Cumberland last Saturday and returned Sunday night. They attended the State C. E. convention held there. The ride through the mountains was much enjoyed, the scenery was beautiful the foliage being at its prettiest. Weather was ideal. There has been no heavy frosts in Cumberland as yet, but in Frostburg, eleven miles from there, the trees have lost their foliage and the weather has been colder.

Mrs. Thos. Shilling is spending a few days with her son Raymond Shilling and family. Raymond is suffering from an infected toe.

No complaint about the weather. It has been beautiful for two weeks.

Claude G. Buckingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Reese, Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Brown entertained a number of relatives and friends Sunday, October 23.

Miss Sarah Gettinger, of Reisterstown, spent a week visiting relatives and friends in this community.

Miss Mariangela Caple, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Caple.

Sunday school at Sandy Mount this Sunday morning at 9.30.

GAMBER

Sunday school at Providence M. P. Church Sunday morning at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 10:30 A. M. Junior C. E. at 7 P. M. Leader, Mr. Vernon Bonner, Topic, "Junior Peace-Makers." Phil. 4:8, 9. Senior C. E. at 7:30 P. M. Topic, "What should be the Christian's Attitude toward War? Matt. 5:9, 38-48. A welcome to all to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pfieffer, of Baltimore, spent from Saturday until Monday, with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bonner.

Mrs. Thomas Flater, sons Noel and Thomas, Jr., and daughters Violet and Goldie, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Barnes.

The Mite Society of Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church will hold their annual oyster supper this Saturday evening, November 5, beginning at 4 o'clock. All come and help make it a success.

Rally Day service will be held at Providence M. P. Church on November 13.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jabez N. Barnes, Sr., were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes, daughter and son Wm. Jr., of Baltimore, and Mrs. Arthur Ford and son Gorman.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leister, of Hampstead, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Leister.

Mr. and Mrs. Rinley, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Patterson and family.

Wedding bells have been ringing again in our village. We extend our best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes for a long and happy life.

The aid society of Providence M. P. Church will hold their annual oyster supper Thanksgiving day, November 24 and also on November 26.

The Hallowe'en social which was held by our school October 27, was largely attended and quite a success.

It is claimed the people are growing more intelligent, but it is hard to believe it when you observe all the refuse left by picnic parties along

Babylon & Lippy Co.

New Fall Dress Materials. New Fall Dresses. New Fall Coats.

The Dress Materials.

All shades in beautiful brocades for blouses. Satin back crepe in all fall shades. Silk and cotton materials. Rayon and wool plaids. Plain shades in all wool light weight materials. These are all on display on center counter.

New Fall Dresses.

Here you will find the popular Ever-Ready Dress in Jersey priced at $4.95. Satins and Crepes trimmed with Velvet all sizes $9.75. Then better quality in Satin Crepes, Georgette in all colors. Regular and extra size $16.50.

Our Coat Department.

Coats this season can be had in all shades with large roll Fur Collars. These are priced from $19.75 to $45.00.

The Millinery Department.

The very latest styles in good quality Felt Hats, Satin Hats, Velvet Hats, Children's Hats in all colors. Hats made to your order.

Ladies' Knit Bloomers.

A special value in Ladies' Bloomers with wide elastic cuff, in all shades priced at 49c. Then a better quality with silk elastic cuffs 95c.

Ladies' Union Suits.

These are fine quality combed yarn with silk thread, tight knee and bloomer bottoms 95c.

Little Prices On Domestic Dry Goods.

Yard-wide Cretons, new patterns	25c	Yard-wide Outing Light	19c
Yard-wide Fancy Dress Prints	25c	Yard-wide Light Outing	19c
Bleached Muslin	19c	Unbleached Muslin	12½c
Light Outing 27-inch	15c	Curtain Scrims	15c
Unbleached Toweling	12½c

SHIPLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Owings had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Arch Hood and sons and Mrs. Annie Hood, of Mt. Airy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carr entertained last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hooper and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and family, and Mr. Myrl Yohn and others.

The play at the hall entitled "The New Parson" was quite a success. All took their parts well and everyone seemed to enjoy it. We had folks from Baltimore, Pikesville, Philadelphia, Pa., White Hall, Pa., and Parkton, Md., and these visitors expressed themselves as having a fine time and we enjoyed having them. Come again friends! Our Ladies' Aid hall always lets the latch string of welcome hang.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zahn have as their house guests Mrs. Robert Zahn and Miss Gladys Zahn, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Caples had as Tuesday evening guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zahn and sons Mrs. Lula Zahn, Miss Gladys Zahn.

Mrs. Carrie Barber had as Wednesday guests Mrs. Lula Zahn and Miss Gladys Zahn.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Barber had as Sunday evening guests Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber, Mrs. Harry Flohr and sons Norman and Francis, Vollen Barber, Miss Gladys Barber and others.

Mrs. Lula Zahn and Miss Gladys Zahn, of Philadelphia, spent several days with Mrs. Ethel Davis, near Birdhill, and were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Zahn, Green street, Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Caples had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Caples and George W. Caples, of Baltimore.

Messrs. George and Viely Miller have hauled and had distilled at William N. Barber's the champion load of worm seed. 116¾ pounds were raised on one acre. They expect to bring a larger load. Now who can beat it? Let us know.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Shipley had as Sunday visitors Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McQuay and family, Mr. Mrs. Gertrude Baker and son Robert, Mr. Leister, Mr. M. L. Conner, near Gist; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Pickett and family, of Woodbine; Mrs. Albert Lindsay, son John, and two grand children Wilbur and Helen Haines and Howell Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Belleson and family, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wilhide had as Sunday visitors Mrs. Myrtle Swartzbaugh and son Carroll, Miss Martha Kern, Mr. Calvin Zepp and others.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wagner had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Zepp and family, Mrs. Emma Zepp, and others.

Miss Betty Matthews, the teacher and scholars held a Hallowe'en party Monday afternoon at Morgan Run school. Refreshments of marshmallows, cake and lemonade were served. A program was given and all had lots of fun.

Murray Stem and Harvey Carr spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Harry Stitley, Stewartstown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Carr and family spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Carval Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Arbaugh and family were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Polster.

Mrs. Bessie Hughes and Mrs. M. L. Conner visited Mrs. Robert Wheeler Sunday.

The Christian Endeavor cleared at their play at the hall October 27, $32.95 and they wish to thank everyone who helped make it a success.

Mr. Edwin Stater has a bone felon on his finger and has had it lanced four times. It does not seem to improve very fast.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wagner moved in Mr. J. T. Wagner's tenant house. They have our best wishes for success. Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner called on them Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Polster had as a Monday guest Mr. Lester Polster, of Sykesville.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of our friends, Mr. George Hoffman, of Ogg Summit; Mrs. Carrie Harman Ditman, and hope they may soon recover.

Quite a few from here attended the Bible class parade in Westminster Sunday and heard the speaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jordan had as Sunday guests Mrs. Samuel Reaver, Mrs. Alice Jordan and Mr. John Jordan.

Misses Louise and Betty Leah Myerly who were on the sick list are improving.

GREENMOUNT

Monday evening a bus load of Baltimore friends and a number of friends from this place gathered at the home of the Misses Maxine and Doris Wheeler where a Hallowe'en party was held. Games were indulged in and everybody had a jolly good time.

The funeral of Mrs. Laura V. Hann, wife of William P. Hann was held from her late home on Tuesday at 10.30 A. M. with services in the United Brethren Church here. Interment was in the adjoining cemetery. Her pastor, Rev. H. D. Boughter officiated. She was 70 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trout and daughter, of Baltimore, recently visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bosley.

Miss Lyndora Wyand, of Hampstead, spent Monday night visiting Miss Doris Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed and children Dorothy, Ruth, and Carl spent Sunday at Mercersburg, Pa.

Mrs. Mae Bixler and daughter, of Baltimore, spent the week at the home of the former's father, William P. Hann.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Boerner moved from the Wareheim home here to Trenton.

Last Thursday evening the junior choir of the United Brethren Church gave a musical which was very entertaining and much enjoyed by a large audience that filled the church auditorium.

Last Friday night the young people of the Church and community held a Hallowe'en social at the church here, which was much en-