Items of Local Interest

Mrs. George Leister, Pennsylvania avenue, is suffering from rheumatism.

Miss Hilda Byers, this city, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Frock, Littlestown.

Miss Ethel Royer, this city, spent Thanksgiving day with Miss Blanche Devilbiss, Uniontown.

Mrs. Frank T. Shaeffer, Pennsylvania avenue, who has been housed with grip, has improved.

This week Mrs. Edward Stoner, Liberty street, visited relatives in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Guy Zentz was a recent visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Zentz, Asbestos.

Mrs. George E. Benson, Fair Ground Hill, is a patient in the Woman's Hospital, Baltimore.

Miss Mary McCaffrey, Liberty street, spent the week-end with friends in Littlestown.

Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Stoner and son, Glenville, Pa., were guests on Sunday of Dr. Stoner's cousin, Mr. S. C. Stoner and family, West Main street.

Mrs. J. Howard Miller, Park avenue, is visiting relatives in Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Guy L. Fowler and son, Lewis, were week-end guests of Mrs. Agnes Smith, Waynesboro, Pa.

Mrs. Calvin Slagle, Baltimore, was a week-end guest of her daughter, Mrs. Noah Schaeffer, this city.

Monday Mrs. James E. Boylan, Sr., East Main street, was taken to Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, for observation where she remained until to-day.

Mrs. Mamie Heltibridle has returned to her home on Carroll street after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Wright, New Hope, Va.

Mrs. Charles Roberts Thomas and Miss Mary Mitchell, Chattanooga, Tenn., were week-end guests of Mrs. William H. Thomas, Willis street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Earhart and daughter, Hampstead, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Earhart, Hagerstown, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. T. Earhart, Liberty street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Little have returned to their home in Union Bridge after spending three weeks with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitten, East Main street.

Miss Mary Corrine Warehime and Lloyd Daniel Wantz, both of this city, were married Thanksgiving day in Grace Lutheran parsonage, this city, by Rev. J. B. Rupley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith Billingslea and daughter, near Philadelphia, spent several days recently with the former's mother, Mrs. Clara Billingslea, East Main street.

Mrs. L. Gladhill and Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Stewart, West Main street, entertained on Thanksgiving day Mrs. Franklin Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. Amidee Ecker, Littlestown.

Mrs. Harry J. Starr and Miss Cora L. Butler, this city, spent several days last week with their niece, Miss Frances E. Albert, who is a student at Randolph Macon Women's College, Lynchburg, Virginia.

St. Benjamin's Lutheran Sunday school will hold their annual Christmas service, on Monday evening, December 26. A pageant will be given, entitled, "Messenger's From Bethlehem."

The "Willing Workers" class of the Belle Grove Square Church of the Brethren, will hold a food sale in the Westminster Knight-Overland Company's show room, West Main street, on Saturday afternoon, December 10, with a number of good things to eat on sale.

The Mite Society of the Methodist Protestant church will hold its annual Christmas sale in the show room of George W. Babylon, West Main street. Besides an attractive display of fancy articles they will have on sale home-made cakes, rolls and candies. The public is invited to patronize this sale.

Miss Dorothy Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Davis, East Main street, has entered training as a nurse in John Hopkins hospital, Baltimore. Miss Davis is a graduate of the Westminster high school of class of 1925 and attended Blackstone College for Women in Virginia, last year.

On December 8th, at 8:00 P. M. a special meeting of the Civic League will be held in the community room.

Emerson Jones, Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones, Center street.

Sterling Myers, near this city, is spending this week with his grandmother, Mrs. Hubert Myers, Union Mills.

Miss Nettie Myers and Charles Simpson, both of Uniontown, were married in Baltimore Tuesday by Rev. J. Earl Cummings.

Mr. Maurice Leister has returned to his home near this city after being a patient in the Hanover General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yingling and daughters, this city, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geiman, Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Wilson and daughter, Carroll street, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grimes, Shipley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Weybright and daughters Eileen and Catherine, Kensington, spent the week-end with Mrs. Weybright's sister, Miss Bessie Roberts, West Main street.

Miss Louise Booker and Mr. William Simpson, Wilmington, Delaware, were week-end guests of Miss Annie Starner Senft, "Shady Side," near Pleasant Valley.

J. T. Norris, Abington, Md., was a recent guest of his son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Charles M. Elderdice, at the Methodist Protestant parsonage, East Main street.

Norman Hunter and Theodore F. Derr, this city, witnessed the football game between Western Maryland and Muhlenburg at Allentown, Pa., on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Mary Shellman, East Main street, left Tuesday for Sapulpa, Oklahoma, where she will spend the winter with her nephew and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Reese, that city.

Monday Miss Elsie C. Thompson and Vernon L. Altvater, both of Baltimore, were married in the Methodist Protestant parsonage, East Main street, by Rev. Charles M. Elderdice.

Saturday last a son was born in the Hanover General Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morlan Warehime, Silver Run. Mrs. Warehime was formerly Miss Margaret Rinehart, near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gruber, Detroit, Michigan, have been visiting Mrs. Gruber's brothers, John and Charles and their families in this city. They are spending a few days in Baltimore but will return here.

The Rev. Karl Warehime, president of the Carroll County Christian Endeavor Union and Guy L. Fowler, vice-president of the state union, attended the state executive meeting in Baltimore last week.

Bernard Devilbiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Snader Devilbiss, Uniontown, who with three friends left by automobile for California, have arrived there and according to word from them they are much pleased with the trip. Paul Devilbiss, an older brother, has been in California for several years.

Elmo B. Stricklin, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Stricklin, Greenmount, and Miss Elva Resh, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Resh, Hampstead, were married Wednesday afternoon, November 23, at 4:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First United Brethren church by the Rev. George C. Daugherty. They were attended by Dr. and Mrs. George Resh, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Stricklin. Mr. Stricklin is employed by the York Dispatch and Mrs. Stricklin has been teaching school at Hampstead. They will reside in Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarence Ensor, New Windsor, were given a surprise on Friday evening last in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary by the latter's sister and brother, who presented them with a beautiful silver vase. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Devilbiss, Mrs. J. H. Roop, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Stem and C. G. Devilbiss. Other visitors during the evening were Mrs. B. W. Fisher and daughter Annabell, Baltimore; Mrs. Poole, Sam's Creek; Miss Hanna Shunk, Mrs. Nellie Bond, Mrs. C. Edgar Nusbaum, Misses Helen Roop and Thelma Smith. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

PLEASANT VALLEY

The annual Thanksgiving supper which was held for the benefit of the church was a great success. Four hundred eleven suppers were served, people coming from every direction. The ones coming the longest distance were Miss Louise Booker and friend, William Simpson, from Wilmington, Delaware. These 411 suppers were served in about four hours. The large auditorium over the dining room was packed and all enjoyed the fine orchestra music which was given by Prof. Zepp's orchestra. Around seven o'clock, the road for nearly one-fourth of a mile was entirely blocked by automobiles and was the largest crowd of people ever at Pleasant Valley. They came from all parts, and there are six roads leading to the village. The church council wishes to thank all who helped to make it a success.

The woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, will hold their annual Thank-Offering meeting on Sunday evening, December 4, at 7:30, at the church. Sister Sophia Jepson, head sister of the Lutheran Deaconess mother house, Baltimore, will be the speaker of the evening. A very interesting program will be rendered. Everybody welcome.

The Thank-Offering meeting and meeting of the Girls' Guild which was held on Sunday evening, was attended by a large crowd of people. The exercises of the Girls' Guild were beautiful and very impressive. Two new members were added to the roll, Roszella Geiman and Margaret Myers. Miss DeChant, Hanover, Pa., was the principal speaker of the evening, and it is hoped she will soon visit us again.

Miss Louise Booker and Mr. William Simpson, Wilmington, Delaware, motored on Thanksgiving day to the home of Miss Annie Starner Senft, "Shady Side," and were the guests of Miss Senft until Sunday evening. On Saturday they visited Frederick and Harper's Ferry.

Mr. Wesley Clingan has the foundation staked off for his new house on High street.

Mr. Milton A. Myers has the foundation dug out for his new bungalow on the lot he recently purchased from Robert Wantz, Main street.

Samuel H. Myers is building an addition to his house.

We had a very quiet wedding early on Thanksgiving morning when John Helwig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Helwig, and Miss Mirian A. Bealing, Hanover, were married at the Lutheran parsonage Silver Run, by the groom's pastor, the Rev. Willard E. Saltzgiver. The groom has been employed in Hanover for some time. They will be at home to their friends at 659 Broadway, Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest D. Myers received an announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret Myers, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Myers, and the late Melanchton Myers, to Mr. Carroll Murphy, Baltimore. The wedding took place on Saturday, November 19. The bride has a host of friends here who join in wishing for them a long and happy future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geiman entertained on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bittle and daughter Helen, Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yingling and daughters, Onedia and Thelma, Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown and daughter Eva Ruth, Mrs. Mary Bittle, Pleasant View; and Mrs. Edward Myers and Mr. Edward Geiman.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver A. Eckard and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Eckard's mother, Mrs. Anna Mary Starner, Pleasant View.

Mr. Elmer F. Kindig took the donation from the Reformed Missionary Society, to the Hoffman Orphanage on Tuesday evening. Harry Geiman accompanied him.

Mrs. John Senft and daughter Miss Annie Starner Senft took the donation from the Lutheran Society to the Motherhouse, Baltimore, on Tuesday, and spent the day there.

Mrs. A. F. Heltibridle is spending some time in York, with her son, Daniel K. Heltibridle and family.

Oliver L. Heltibridle who went with the Taneytown band to Baltimore on Wednesday evening to the meeting of the I. O. O. M. enjoyed the occasion very much, although they did not reach home until early in the morning.

The Misses Onedia and Thelma Yingling, Westminster, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends here.

Mrs. Albert Wantz, who was visiting friends here for several weeks, returned to the home of her son, George M. V. Wantz, Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Feeser entertained a company of friends from Littlestown on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard entertained at dinner on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Myers. Visitors on Sunday evening were Miss Jessie C. Ickes and Daniel E. Warehime, Frizellburg, and Mr. Nelson H. Bankert, Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest D. Myers' dinner guests on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Myers, Westminster, and Raymond L. Hahn, Baltimore.

Mr. Theodore Zepp is treating his house to a coat of paint, which adds very much to the appearance.

Mrs. William Stonesifer and children, Uniontown, spent several days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Tobias Yingling and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hull and family, Piney Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Myers and daughter Azalea, Westminster, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Myers.

Mrs. Harry L. Devilbiss, Hanover, called on Mrs. Ernest D. Myers on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers, Hanover, called on Mr. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Myers, on Thanksgiving day, and attended the church supper held at the hall.

Mr. J. Elmer Myers stepped on a nail on Saturday morning, and before night he was unable to walk, and suffered greatly from the effects. He is now able to be around again.

Harvey Leister attended the shooting match held at the home of John Reaver, Taneytown, and was fortunate enough to win a fine duck.

Edmund Helwig, a student at Gettysburg College, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Helwig.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wantz, Hanover, spent Sunday afternoon with friends here.

Miss Edyth Myers, Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mrs. Edward Black and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Yingling.

Sunday school Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock. Sermon at 10 by the Rev. Willard E. Saltzgiver. Thankoffering service in the evening at 7:30.

The executive meeting of the P. T. A. will be held on Monday evening, December 5, at 7:30 in the high school assembly hall, for the purpose of transacting business.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Gift goods for the Holiday Season.

Gift Goods selections are more numerous each season. For those who desire to give the useful presents for Christmas we have the selection. Giving has become an art in which the person appreciates the individual selection of the giver. Gift goods and novelties.

Gift Selections and Novelties.

Art Pottery, Egyptian Effects, Vases, Urns, Wall Pockets, Jardiners. Silverware by Faber, non-tarnishable; Nut Bowls, Casserroles, Fruit Bowls, Bread Trays, Cheese and Crackers, Thermos Jugs, Vacuum Bottles, Cut Glass Ware, Vases, Sherberts, Wine Glasses, Sandwich Plates, Goblets, Colored Glassware in novelty selections, Punch Bowls.

Gift Selections Wearables.

Boxed Handkerchiefs, Boudoir Caps with Garters, Bridge Sets, Table Scarfs, Silk Hose, Shoe Trees and Horns, Powder Puffs, Garters, Bloomers, Silk Step-ins, Silk Umbrellas, Gloves.

Gift Selections Novelties.

Brush and Comb sets in all colors, Leather Pocket Books, Jewelry Pins, Brooches, Beads, Boudoir Slippers, Compacts.

Gift Selections Electric.

Electric Perculators, Electric Curling Irons, Electric Toasters, Electric Hot Plates, Electric Wavers.

Gift Selections For Men.

An unusual assortment of Silk Scarfs, Silk Ties, Wallets, Pocket Books, Silk and Wool Fancy Hose, Leather and Fabric Gloves, Silk Shirts, Suspender and Garter Sets, Florsheim Shoes, Stetson Hats, Lumber Jacks, Wool Sweaters.

Gift Selections For Children.

The following week all of our toys, Sleds, Books, Games, from the workshop of Santa Claus will be on display. Bring the children to see them. Make your selection early, they will be held for you.

OUR STORE WILL BE OPEN AT NIGHT FROM DECEMBER 5th UNTIL XMAS.

UNIONTOWN

Prof. Roy Wolfang, of Tyrone, Pa., called on his friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Speicher, Tuesday evening.

Misses Irene Martino and Edwina Crouse, of Western Maryland College, Westminster, were guests of Miss Evelyn Segafoose Thanksgiving day.

Miss Margaret Repp, student of the Baltimore Business College, Baltimore, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Repp.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers Englar made a business trip to Baltimore, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Speicher spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents at Accident, Md.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Charles B. Hollenberry, of McKeesport, Pa. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hollenberry were former residents of this vicinity. Mrs. Hollenberry was before marriage a Miss Winters.

Mrs. J. F. Englar, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Englar and son Dan, of Westminster, were visitors in town Thanksgiving day.

Miss Margaret Singer, of Strayer's Business College, Baltimore, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Singer.

Mrs. Guy Babylon, daughters Misses Lena and Ruth and Margaret Jeanette Babylon, Wakefield, and Miss Clara Cosby, Baltimore, spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Sophia Staub.

Mrs. G. W. Slonaker is on the sick list.

Miss Ruth Babylon, Wakefield, spent several days with her grandmother, Mrs. Sophia Staub.

Miss Esther Crouse, of the State Normal school, Towson, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Crouse. Sunday visitors in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crouse and daughter Thelma Jane, of Union Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crouse and family, Magnolia, and Mrs. Allen Heron, Baltimore, spent several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Crouse, Clear Ridge.

Miss Erma Wolfe and Edgar Wolfe, Bark Hill, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Leakens.

Mrs. Clarence Lockard is spending the week as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Hoy and family, Philadelphia.

John E. Heck and Miss Dienie Sittig spent the week-end in Harmon.

W. E. Slonaker, Waynesboro, was a visitor in town Monday. He attended the funeral of Samuel B. Heldebridle.

Harry Haines, Cumberland, spent several days this week with his home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carbaugh and family, Taneytown, entertained at dinner on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stonesifer, daughters Misses Margaret and Mae, sons Walter and Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Shreeve Shriner.

The funeral of Samuel B. Heltibridle was held on Monday afternoon at the home officiated by Rev. J. E. Lowe and Rev. K. H. Wareheim. The pallbearers were B. L. Cookson, Guy Cookson, Charles Waltz, Theodore Haines, Charles Crumbacker, and Marshall Myers.

Emma Mae Cashman, Frizellburg, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Emma Heltibridle several days the past week.

Mrs. Shreeve Shriner is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. James Yingling, near Mayberry.

Mrs. Julia Trite and daughter Miss Jennie, Sells Mill, spent a few days in town the first of the week.

Charles Simpson and Miss Nettie Myers motored to Baltimore on Tuesday and were married by the Rev. J. Earl Cummings.

Mrs. Harry Speilman, near Linwood, was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Howard Haar, Baltimore.

Mrs. W. G. Segafoose and daughter Miss Evelyn spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers entertained a number of their friends Monday evening.

In many colleges, Education Week was enthusiastically celebrated by games of football.

It has been thoroughly demonstrated through the football season, that the students can use their feet, and now we want here in Maryland to see equal skill in using their heads,

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2320-0399