AN EVENING AT UNION MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Kemp, Union Mills, entertained a number of their friends at an elegant supper, on Christmas evening. They live in the old, Shriver Homestead which was appropriately decorated with pine and laurel and generously illuminated with electric lights. The countryside was calm and peaceful and bright stars shone in the heavens above, all of which inspired the occasion with the genuine Christmas spirit and made all those present feel that they were in the enjoyment of an old time yuletide holiday in the country. Before departing for their homes the guests paid their respects to Louis E. Shriver, who occupies bachelor quarters in part of the dwelling, and by whom they were cordially and warmly welcomed. Those present were: From Pikesville, Md., Mr. and Mrs. George M. Shriver, Miss Lizzie Shriver, Samuel Shriver, and Mr. Moore; from Hanover, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Delone, Mr. and Mrs. D. E.
