The young couple will make their home in Baltimore.

TREE FALLS ON FARMER

John Harovath, a farmer near Busic, sustained a broken leg below the knee whe n a tree he had cut down fell on him last Saturday morning.

The tree had lodged against another in its fall and Harovath tried to free it. He was caught beneath it when he had worked it loose.

A neighbor working nearby heard his cries for help and took him to Easton Emergency Hospital.

4-H COUNCIL TO ELECT

Election of officers will be the major item of business at the March meeting of the 4-H Club County Council scheduled for next Monday evening in the courthouse.

Receiving Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jenkins, of Grasonville, are the proud parents of an 8-lb. baby girl, born Wednesday, March 18.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crouch, Jr., of Dominion, are the proud parents of a fine son born Thursday morning, Mar. 19. Mother and son are doing nicely.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. George Crist, of "Pioneer Point Farms", are the proud parents of a daughter, weighing 8½ pounds. The little girl was born Friday morning. Mrs. Crist is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Eaton.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson Kirby, who live near Centreville, are being congratulated upon the arrival of a son, born at home on Tuesday. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

—o—

Congratulations are in order for County Agent and Mrs. Kenneth W. Baker who became the parents of a daughter, born at Easton Hospital, 7:15 p. m. Saturday. The little girl has been named Kay Parker and weighed 6 pounds and 4 ounces.

—o—

Dr. and Mrs. Norman P. Chanaud are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of an 8-pound son at the University Hospital in Baltimore last Wednesday. The youngster has been named John Stewart. The arrival of a boy caught the parents unprepared momentarily for a name as they were expecting a girl and had arranged accordingly.

Mrs. John Palmer Smith and son Eddie are home from spending the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gillespie in Sudlersville.

With The Sick
