"THE LETTER" AT MARYLAND THEATRE

Katharine Cornell, coming from a long run in her latest success, "The Letter," from the Monrosco Theatre, New York, begins a week's engagement at the Maryland Theatre, Baltimore, Md., Monday night, February 27. With her Miss Cornell brings the original Broadway cast.

"The Letter" is one of the best of the works of the noted English playright, W. Somerset Maugham, who goes personally over the entire world for his local color and characters. This time Mr. Maugham went to the Malay Peninsula, to the British possessions known as the Straits Settlement. There among the English who rule the country and the dark skinned races who surround them he found his drama. In "Leslie Crosbie," an Englishwoman of the repressed type, outwardly a good wife but secretly carrying on a love affair, Mr. Maugham has created a portrait delineation of a woman which gives Miss Cornell the widest acting range she has ever known. And incidentally, Mr. Maugham creates in the process absorbing drama well worthy of the talented young woman whose unusual vogue in "The Green Hat" in this city and over the country generally will be recalled readily.

Miss Cornell's company, which supported her during the long New York run on Broadway is being brought to this city intact. Since the English are the ruling class in the Straits Settlement, Messmore Kendall, who is presenting Miss Cornell in "The Letter" has drawn upon the best of English players for some of the characters, those who are English in the drama. Equally happily Mr. Kendall has selected members of the dark skinned races of the Far East for the persons of the play who under plot condition belong to those races.

Among the English players are, Allan Jeayes, J. W. Austin, Eva Leonard-Boyne, James Vincent, James Buckler, Josephine Morse; and among the Far Eastern contingent are Soo Yong, a Chinese actress, and Sam Kim, Korean.

MIDDAY RADIO LENTEN SERVICE

Throughout Lent on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week, a brief Lenten service will be broadcasted from Station WFBR in Baltimore from 11:30 to 11:45 A. M. These services are conducted by the Baltimore Federation of Churches and will especially be centered on old familiar hymns. Each day after prayers are read one of the standard hymns familiar in all churches will be sung by Adjutant W. B. Parsons of Salvation Army headquarters in Baltimore, with Miss Bouterse, a lieutenant in the Salvation Army, as his accompanist. This will be followed by five minutes of practical comment on the meaning of the hymn by the Executive Secretary of the Baltimore Federation, Dr. Nolan R. Best. A second hymn will bring the brief service to a close.

Adjutant Parsons and Lieutenant Bouterse are musicians of fine ability, and their rendition of hymns in similar services last year was greatly appreciated by a multitude of hearers in Baltimore. This year because it is using higher power WFBR can be heard in any part of Maryland and Delaware. This station broadcasts on a wavelength of 244 metres, which corresponds to 1230 kilocycles.

K. OF P. ACTIVITIES

Tuesday night, February 14, Charity Lodge No. 58, K. of P., with an attendance of 175 members, conferred the rank of Knight upon a class of 33 Esquires. This makes Charity Lodge the third largest lodge in the State, with a membership of over 600 men.

Tuesday night, February 21st the rank of Page was conferred upon a class of nine candidates. This class was taken in in connection with the 64th anniversary of the founding of the order. After the initiatory work was over, the lodge was closed, and the entertainment committee took charge of the meeting, and with Knight Otey C. Reynolds acting as chairman the following program was presented which was very much appreciated by the large number of members present: Singing, America, by the lodge; prayer, Rev. W. L. Seabrook; piano solo, Francis C. Keefer; address, John H. Mitten; trombone solo, Glenn Miller; address, O. M. Crouse; saxophone solos, John Byers and truman Hook; address, Mayor George E. Matthews; overture, orchestra; address, Harry J. Starr.

Now the chairman turned the meeting over to Bill and Scott who with their corps of able assistants took full charge. They served ham and cheese sandwiches, and coffee while the orchestra gave us another of their fine concerts.

There were three grand lodge officers present all members of Charity Lodge: Past Grand Chancellor Harry J. Starr, Grand Outter Guard, W. Scott Sullivan and Deputy Grand Chancellor Simer Caple. There were about 150 members present including several visitors from out of town lodges.

This was a night long to be remembered as a wonderful anniversary celebration for the whole program from the opening song to the orchestra concert was very much enjoyed by all present.

Next Tuesday night, February 28, the rank of Esquire will be conferred upon seven Pages.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Sunday school Sunday morning at 9:30. Sermon at 10.30 by the Rev. W. E. Saltzgiver. All services will be in the P. O. S. of A. hall. Don't forget the mid-week services each Wednesday evening during Lent, at 7.30 by the Rev. Saltzgiver.

Much credit is due Miss Pearl Corbin and the 6th and 7th grades as well as the high school girls for the splendid success of the Valentine party which was held on Friday night. The guests, 76 in number, arrived about 7.30 o'clock and the party was soon enlivened by various games which were indulged in. After the games there was a program in which the teachers and last year's seniors participated followed by music over the radio. The color scheme was red and white which was carried out in both the decorations and in the refreshments. The hour of 10 brought delicious refreshments consisting of jello, ice cream, cakes and candy. Prizes were awarded to winners of games as follows: Harriet Leese, Mildred Welk, Margaret Myers and Kenneth Myers. A group of five, Mr. Ehrhart, Mrs. Hyde, Geo. Yingling, Thurlo Myers and Frederick Myers received honors for recognizing the most phrases used by commercial advertisers. Georgia Bixler was the artist who decorated the cake which received much admiration at last week's turkey supper.

Miss Edyth Myers, Baltimore, spent from Saturday evening until Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Black.

The pupils and teachers of our school recently had the opportunity of hearing Mr. Wang Wu Chang from Tientsin, China, now a student at the Theological Seminary, Western Maryland College, Westminster. Mr. Chang's talk was instructive and entertaining. The student body expressed its appreciation by crowding around Mr. Chang in order to ask him more about his country and to hear his chinese songs.

The Parent-Teacher meeting will be held on Monday night, February 27, when we will have Mr. Wang Wu Chang with us again, also Mr. Y. Ito, from Japan. Come out and hear these men. A flower will be given to the room having the most parents present.

Pleasant Valley High school held its annual Junior Senior banquet on Wednesday evening, February 15 at 5 o'clock. The party met at the P. O .S. of A. Hall. After descending to the dining room, dainty green and white place cards directed each one to his place. The blessing was asked by Mrs. Brown, after which the members of the P. O. S. of A. served a most bountiful dinner. The menu cards which were in French, received much comment.

Between courses, the toastmaster, William Thomas, with most fitting words, in a very creditable manner, introduced the different speakers. Each senior and each teacher present responded. Following the banquet the president of the junior class, George Yingling, presented each of the seniors with a rose, the class flower. The, boys' roses were pink and the girls' white. At six o'clock, the seniors were invited to the assembly room of the high school which had been changed to a vertible Eskimo land. All entered through a picturesque igloo, which led to the hall. This room was decorated with a frieze of Eskimo huts, dogs, sleds, ice bergs, etc. Icicles hung overhead. The whole design carried out the green and white class colors. Music and games furnished entertainment until about 9:00 o'clock when the party dispersed. The seniors expressed their thanks to the "worthy" four juniors and their advisor, Miss Mildred Ensor, for so enjoyable an evening.

This week was "Club Week" at the Pleasant Valley high school, the ladies of the Home-Makers Club furnished the hot lunch as follows: Monday, baked peach pot-pie, cream of tomato soup; Tuesday, sour kraut, mashed potatoes, creamed peas and dough nuts; Wednesday, pork pot-pie, stuffed peppers, cream of pea soup, and Martha Washington salad; Thursday, vegetable soup, candied sweet potatos, baked beans and cold slaw; Friday, bean soup, macaroni and cheese, and apple pudding. Mrs. Brown extends many thanks to the women of the club for their kindness. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Claude Myers made a lot of hard soap at the school house which was a good demonstration for the girls in the higher grades. They will also appreciate the home made soap for dish washing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig and Frances Patricia Kain called on Miss Blocher, Hampstead, Home Economics teacher here, who is now home from the hospital. They found her very cheerful though still weak. She will not be able to take up her work here for some time. We hope she will continue to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Helwig and Miss Pauline Helwig, Hanover, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Helwig.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory C. Ebaugh, Bethel Heights, spent Sunday evening at the home of Ernest D. Myers and Edward M. Hahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Warehime and son Homer, Northern Carroll, Mrs. Charles Logue and Mrs. Walter Shettle, spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown.

Mrs. A. C. Geiman is confined to the house suffering from quinsy.

Mrs. Paul Humbert is confined to the house suffering from a very heavy cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig and Mrs. Frank Kain spent Monday in Baltimore. They were entertained in the evening at the home of Mrs. George Temanas and Dr. Loutrell Temanas.

Miss Rice, teacher of Bear Mount school, and her scholars held a valentine social on Tuesday afternoon. It was much enjoyed by the children. At the end of the program ice cream and cake were served to all.

The Ladies' Aid Sewing Society of St. Matthew's will meet on Thursday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Rebert, near Westminster. It will be an all day meeting.

The Aid Society met on Sunday evening. The dues amounted to $9.89. The society will furnish the new carpet for the church which is now being repapered and a new floor laid, and until it is finished, services will be held in P. O. S. of A. hall.

Miss Frances Patricia Kain, a senior in Pleasant Valley high school, and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kain, "Willow Spring Cottage," has won as a prize a half-year scholarship to Western Maryland College for writing the best essay on Carroll county.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Feeser attended the banquet and dance February 16, given by the Crusade Commander, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig attended the banquet and dance February 16, given by the Uniform Rank, K. of P., Westminster.

Nevin W. Crouse, cashier of the Pleasant Valley Bank, made a business trip to Baltimore on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard spent Thursday afternoon at the home of Oliver L. Heltibridle and family, Bear Mount.

The two programs recently broadcasted over the radio to all school children by Walter Johnanne Damronsche, noted leader of the New York symphony orchestra, were heard by the members of our school. An Atwater Kent radio had been installed for the concerts by Donald Eckenrode of Westminster to whom we are most grateful.
