American Established 1832 Sentinel

$1.50 PER ANNUM. WESTMINSTER, MD., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 2, 1928 VOL. 96—NO. 9

DRIVER IS ABSOLVED IN FATAL ACCIDENT

That William F. Starr, prominent Littlestown business man, was the victim of an unavoidable accident was the result of a coroner's hearing Saturday, George Frounfelter, Westminster, R. D. No. 7, driver of the car which killed Mr. Starr, being absolved of blame by the action of the jury.

Five witnesses were heard at the scene of the accident by Dr. Edgar A. Miller, county coroner, and his

CARROLL COUNTIAN SHOOTING VICTIM

The woman who was killed in a Baltimore near-beer saloon Thursday night, February 23, when fifteen bullets were fired into her, it has been ascertained, was Mrs. Ella Joanna Stansbury, formerly of this city. She was 26 years of age. The shooting took place in the Bennett saloon.

Robert Scherer, aged 29, of Brooklyn Park, proprietor of another saloon, is being held without bail for action of the coroner, after being

COURT HOUSE NEWS

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Louis A. Dion and Gladys L. Lambert, Westminster.

Adolph Olshefski and Florence Shamus, Shamokin, Pa.

Howard Young and Margaret Seamson, Essex, Md.

Randall P. Rudy and Elizabeth E. Holland, Lebanon, Pa.

Edward O. Diffendal, Jr., and Mary Smith Dilly, Baltimore.

Harold Willis and Louise Fisher, New Windsor.

Earl Cool and Goldie Bucher, Get-

OBITUARY

REV. JOHN H. ROSEN

The Rev. John H. Rosen, a former pastor of the Methodist Protestant conference died Thursday, March 1, 1928, at the Methodist Protestant Church Home for the Aged, this city. He was 79 years, 7 months and 30 days of age. Surviving are his wife, also a guest at the Church Home, and four children by a former marriage. The funeral will be held from the Home Saturday at 10:30 A. M. The Rev. Charles M. Elderdice, pastor of the M. P. church, this city

ESCAPED PRISONER CAUGHT

A flight for freedom by an alleged automobile thief from the Adams county jail at Gettysburg, Pa., was halted Monday morning at about 9:30 o'clock when Charles Watson, the fugative, was picked up on the Littlestown state road, near this city, by Officer L. E. Williams, of the Maryland state police, and Deputy Sheriff Leo Warner, of Carroll county. He was returned later in the day to Gettysburg.

Watson, aged about twenty years and James Collins, both negroes

LINEBORO CHURCH TROUBLES FIRST HEARING IN COURT

Yesterday Chief Judge Parke sitting in equity, heard testimony in the case of the Trustees of Lazarus Evangelical Lutheran church against the Consistory of Lazarus German Reformed church, both of Lineboro, this county.

In a bill of complaint filed by the trustees of Lazarus Evangelical Lutheran church it was charged that due to the arbitrary acts of the Con-