Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Frank T. Shaeffer, Pennsylvania avenue, spent several days this week visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. U. Grant Heltibridle and daughter, Anna, Court street, spent Sunday with Mrs. Jennie Rodkey, Uniontown.

Claude Riffle, Cranberry, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Maryland General hospital, Baltimore, last week, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. James Staub and son Clarence, Wakefield, spent Sunday with Mrs. Staub's sister, Mrs. Charles Dutterer, Pennsylvania avenue.

Billy Barnes, son of Mrs. Hazel Barnes, Main Court Apartments, who was taken to the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, on Friday last, is now improving nicely.

Robert W. Harrison, Hersh avenue, who was operated on at the Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, is now improving and expects to return home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters and Mr. and Mrs. John Walters, Washington, D. C., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah J. Miller, Madison street.

Spangler Keiffer, son of the Rev. Henry Keiffer, Frederick, spent the week-end with Theodore Woodward, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis K. Woodward, West Main street.

Mrs. M. A. Burg, Carroll street, returned home accompanied by her grandson Stanley Bowersox from Ohio, where she was visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Armacost and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aldridge, Chase street, spent Sunday at the home of Frank Armacost and family, Chambersburg, Pa.

Miss Marguerite Beam, Patapsco, is recuperating at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bollinger, Millers, after being operated upon for appendicitis in a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley Stoner and son, James, of Brunswick, were guests the past week of Mr. Stoner's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Tyler, Washington, D. C.

The ladies of Deer Park church, Smallwood, will hold an Indian supper in the Sunday school room this evening. The supper will be served promptly at 7:30 o'clock after which the Red Men's lodge of Patapsco will present an Indian play.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Shriner, John street, entertained at dinner recently the latter's sister, Mrs. William Waddell and son Robert of Sam's Creek; Miss Minnie I. Nicholson, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Geneva Breitweiser, this city.

Mary Catherine Leppo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leppo, East Main street, who is in the Maryland General hospital with a broken leg had to have the leg reset and a silver plate inserted to hold the bone in place.

Mrs. Marion B. Coane, Philadelphia, spent several days last week at the home of Mrs. U. G. Brown, Liberty Heights, and Mrs. Walter J. Newman, West Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Newman accompanied Mrs. Coane to her home where they spent the week-end.

Mrs. Lloyd Barnes, Baltimore, was a recent guest of friends in this city.

Miss Margaret Lockard, Fair Ground Hill, spent the week-end with relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Hannah Shunk, New Windsor, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee Erb, Detour.

Miss Katherine Nusbaum, this city, was a week-end guest of Miss Leanore Harman, New Windsor.

Miss Charlotte Stem, this city, spent the week-end with ner parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Stem, Dennings.

Mrs. David Ebaugh, this city, was a guest on Sunday of Mrs. George Galt, Taneytown.

The regular monthly meeting of the Westminster Homemakers' Club will be held Tuesday, April 3, at 8:00 P. M., in the Extension Service room.

Mrs. J. Grant Schwarz and children, Harrisburg, Pa., were week-end guests of the former's mother, Mrs. William H. Thomas, Willis street.

Rev. F. P. Brose, pastor of the Church of God, this city, spent several days this week with relatives in Harrisburg, Pa.

Catherine, little daughter of Mrs. Margaret Moxley and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starner, near this city, who has been suffering from double pneumonia is somewhat improved at this time.

The Woman's Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran church, will hold a food sale on Saturday, April 14, in the Firemen's Building. They will have on sale a large variety of home-made things to eat.

While working Tuesday afternoon, Charles Manahan, West Main street, had a large post to fall on him, necessitating his return to his home where a physician was called. He was bruised considerably.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schweigart, moved their household effects to the Mitten property on East Main street, from the Reaver property, which they have occupied for twenty years.

The following selections will be given by the choir of Grace Lutheran church next Sunday: Palm Sunday, anthem, "Ride On! Ride On!" by Scott, the solo by Miss Katharine Grumbine. Anthem, "The Palms," the solo by Walter Zepp. Earl Lippy will sing "Open The Gates Of The Temple," by Knapp.

Mrs. Adelaide Loretta Long, 72, wife of John Long, died March 23, at her home in Emmitsburg, after an illness of five days from pneumonia. Mrs. Long was born in Carroll county, but, with her parents, moved to Emmitsburg when a child, where she resided up to the time of her death. Besides her husband, Mrs. Long is survived by two sons and five daughters.

Annie G. Rheubottom, colored, died Sunday, March 25, in Baltimore, from peritonitis. She was aged 20 years. She was the daughter of Samuel and Mollie Rheubottom. Her parents survive. Services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at White Rock church, near Sykesville, with interment in White Rock cemetery.

An early American mill, of the type that dotted the streams of the

PLEASANT VALLEY

The re-opening services of St. Matthew's church which were held on Sunday night drew a large crowd of people. The church presents a fine appearance with the clean walls, new floor and beautiful new carpet in the aisles, pulpit, choir loft and around the altar. Holy Communion by the Rev. W. E. Saltzgiver will be celebrated on Easter Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Charles B. Rebert will celebrate Holy Communion on Sunday morning, April 15 at 10:00 o'clock. Sunday school Sunday April 1, at 1:00 o'clock, sermon at 2:00 by Rev. Rebert. The last of the Lenten services by the Rev. Saltzgiver will be held next Wednesday night, April 4th. Theme, "Jesus." There will be an early service on Easter Sunday morning at 6:00 o'clock. A good program will be arranged. Last year the early service was attended by an unusually large crowd who enjoyed the special singing, and it is hoped that the people of the village at least will attend again this year.

We had the pleasure of having the combined men's chorus from St. Mary's Lutheran and Reformed churches, Silver Run sing a number of fine selections at the Lenten services last Wednesday evening, and on Sunday evening the male quartet from Westminster, composed of Carroll E., and Oliver Myers, Harry Yingling and Mr. Morgan, also sang a number of beautiful selections. A hearty invitation is extended to all the above singers from both places to return at any opportune time.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Myers moved on Tuesday to their new bungalow which has been recently built. Mr. Myers has also built a garage and chicken house. Mrs. Myers though much improved is still unable to walk with crutches.

Mrs. W. M. Penn, Union Mills, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Milton A. Myers and assisted with the moving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Myers returned home on Saturday morning after spending a week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Haines. Mr. and Mrs. Haines moved to the Jacob Haines farm, near Uniontown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wantz and family moved on Tuesday from Taneytown to the Cross Roads, near here.

Mr. Horace Koontz who has been blacksmith here for some time will have sale and with his family, will move to Hanover, which leaves Pleasant Valley without a blacksmith.

The executive committee of the Parent-Teacher Association will meet on Monday night, April 2.

A very interesting meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held on Monday night. Charles Leese, president, presiding. We had the pleasure of listening to Dr. Loutrell Temanas, of Baltimore, who spoke on "Child Welfare," and told many things of interest.

Several of the scholars here are out of school nursing a case of mumps.

Mrs. Jane Geiman and son Edward, Baltimore, spent Friday at the home of Edward Geiman and family. Miss Mary Anne Geiman returned home with them where she will spend some time.

Mrs. Claude Myers who underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor of the breast at the Hanover General Hospital, is improving nicely. She has received potted plants from the different organizations of Pleasant Valley: Easter lilies from Missionary Society of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Darwin tulips from Homemaker's Club, Hyacinth from her Sunday school class, Mrs. John F. Utermahlen, teacher, and a beautiful bouquet of pink and white carnations and ferns from Mrs. Esther K. Brown, principal of Pleasant Valley

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Showing New Merchandise For Spring.

Spring Coats, Spring Millinery, Spring Dress Materials, Spring Footwear.

Novelty Dress Materials

Printed light weight silks $1.00 the yard. Printed crepes $1.95. Novelty Sport Materials $1.25, $1.35, $1.50 the yard. Fine quality of Mellow Crepes, Satin Back Crepes, Vanity Crepes in black and new spring shades. You can rely on the quality of our dress materials.

Munsingwear and Humming Bird Silk Hose

The new spring shades in Munsingwear and Humming Bird Full Fashion Silk Hose, nothing equals them in price for $1.50, forty-two strand silk. Blue Crane Silk Hose in all spring shades for $1.00. Compare this value with any for $1.00.

Coats And Dresses For Spring

There is a difference in workmanship on Materials. Examine the quality of dresses you buy for material and workmanship. Our dresses are not made for a price. They are bought to sell for honest value. Sizes and workmanship are reliable. We have them from $9.75 to $16.50.

Sport Coats of novelty materials, Spring Coats of plain cloths; examine the linings, look at the materials, compare the prices.

The Footwear Department

Our Ladies' Footwear Department for comfort, style and quality is one of the outstanding features of our store. The W. B. Coon of slender arch fitting footwear cannot be equaled. We have just added the most wonderful line of $5.00 Ladies' Footwear on the market to-day. The "Enna Jettick" Ladies' Footwear in all new styles and new tan shades for spring.

The Millinery Department

The Millinery Department is full of the new styles showing for spring. Straw, Felt and Straw, Crochet Hats, combinations of colors. Large head sizes, attractive models, priced up to $5.00.

the home of Mrs. Myers' parents.

Miss Roszella Geiman and Miss Janet Stair spent Tuesday with Mrs. Paul Humbert.

Mrs. Walter Shettle and Mrs. Paul Humbert spent Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown.

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association are rehearsing the play, "The New Parson" which will be given some time in April.

"THE MERCHANT OF VENICE" AT MARYLAND THEATRE

George Arliss, well-remembered in "Disraeli," "Alexander Hamilton," "The Greeu Goddess" and "Old English," will be seen at the Maryland Theatre, Baltimore, the week of April 2, in Winthrop Ames' production of "The Merchant of Venice." The presentation of a Shakespearean play under such distinguished auspices is an event in itself, but unusual interest is added to this engagement by the fact that this is the first time that George Arliss has acted a Shakespearean role in Baltimore, and that "The Merchant of Venice" is the first Shakespearean production that Mr.

ATTENTION! CAR OWNERS

WE ARE EXPERT DUCOERS

Our vast experience enables us to apply expertly this beautiful, modern and durable finish.

AUTOMOBILE PAINTING—TRIMMING — REPAIRING AND WRECK WORK SPECIALISTS

Let us restore the original appearance of your car—to the last detail.

ESTIMATES CHEERFULLY FURNISHED
PRICES REASONABLE — WORK GUARANTEED

GIVE US A TRIAL

JOHN E. ECKENRODE

Cor. Liberty & George Sts. Westminster, Md. Phone 310-J

F. A. Sharrer & Son

J. FRANCIS REESE, Prop'r.

Funeral Directors & Embalmers