Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Luther Martin, near this city, is spending some time with relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George R. Babylon and family, Baltimore, visited relatives in this city.

Mrs. Virginia Reese and Miss Helen R. Reese, both of this city, spent a few days recently in Washington, D. C.

An Easter songalogue, "Love Triumphant," will be given by the choir at Frizellburg Church of God this evening at seven thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Joseph Elliot, Taneytown, nee Miss Mabel Hunter, formerly of this city, was operated upon yesterday in Mercy Hospital, Baltimore.

Mrs. Grant Heltebridle, Court street, spent several days this week with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Galt, Lancaster, Pa.

Mr. McKibben Talhelm, of Baltimore, will spend some time in this city and county in an effort to regain his health.

Prof. and Mrs. W. B. Sanders and son, College avenue, are spending the college spring vacation with relatives in Nashville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Howard E. Koontz and son Howard Jr., this city, motored to New York city, where they are spending the week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed and children, Greenmount, spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Young, Bond street, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickensheets and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Julian, this city, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Geiman, Pleasant Valley.

The property of the late Mrs. Amanda Lockard, East Main street, has been rented to Mrs. Scott Lloyd and sister of Dennings, who will move within the next few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warehime, this city, were recent guests of Mrs. Annie Ward, Gamber.

Mr. Harvey Flater, this city, spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flater, Gamber.

Monday Mr. Sterling Stull moved from Union Bridge to this city where he recently purchased a home.

Mr. Oliver Groft has returned to his home in this city after visiting relatives in Waynesboro.

Mrs. W. E. Staup and daughter Peggy, Philadelphia, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Eckenrode, at their home, Liberty street.

William Schaeffer, Taylor Apartments, was operated on for appendicitis last week in a Baltimore hospital.

Miss Grace Barnitz, East Main street, has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Worthington at her home in Baltimore.

Mr. Columbus Wisner, Union Mills, who recently sold his farm of 90 acres, 2 miles east of that place to a Baltimore man, will move to this city.

Miss Dorothy Nygren, who teaches at Clarksville, Md., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dohnea Nygren, George street.

Harry Manger, Scranton, New York, is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Manger, this city.

Miss Grace Kemper, who is employed in this city, spent the week-[illegible] home to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Kemper, Littlestown, Pa.

John Storms, Carroll street, who has been suffering for the past five weeks with erysipelas, was removed to the Hanover General Hospital, on Saturday.

Mrs. Ernest Burg and three sons, Lancaster, Pa., are spending some

UNION MILLS

Representatives of the state board of health are giving a free course of toxin-antitoxin treatment for the prevention of diphtheria, to all children under six years of age who may be brought to the Charles Carroll high school building.

Columbus Wisner has sold his farm of 90 acres, situated two miles east of Union Mills to Michael Vernac, Baltimore, Md., for $3,800. Mr. Vernac gets possession of the farm at once, and Mr. Wisner, who had public sale of his farm implements and stock will move to Westminster.

George W. Bankerd, who has had a severe attack of quinsy, is on the mend and is able to sit up.

The condition of Charles E. Nusbaum continues about the same, which is not as favorable as it might be.

Frank Warehime, Silver Run, has been admitted to the Hanover General hospital to receive treatment for kidney trouble.

Ralph Bowman has moved from Silver Run Valley to the dwelling and store property in Union Mills, which he bought of John T. Brown. Mr. Brown moved into a dwelling house which he purchased at the east end of our village.

The choir of St. Mary's Reformed church Silver Run, will render a cantata, at the service to be held at 7:30 o'clock on Easter Sunday evening.

A great many flittings have taken place in this vicinity, this spring.

SANDYVILLE

Special Easter service will be held at Sandy Mount church this Sunday night at 7:45. A good program is being arranged by the children and their teachers. A pageant and monologue will be given. All welcome to this service. Sunday school at 9:30.

Christian Endeavor was held last Sunday night with a helpful service. Rev. Mr. McCaslin gave a fine talk on the subject and to the society, encouraging them in their work. A business meeting was held and election of officers as follows: President, Sterling Caple; vice-president, Miss Grace Yingling; recording secretary, Miss Edna Spencer; corresponding secretary, Miss Beatrice Caple; treasurer, Miss Ida Green; organist, Grace Yingling. Committees will be appointed later, other business was transacted. The treasurer gave a [illegible]

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Showing New Merchandise For Spring.

Spring Coats, Spring Millinery, Spring Dress Materials, Spring Footwear.

Novelty Dress Materials

Printed light weight silks $1.00 the yard. Printed crepes $1.95. Novelty Sport Materials $1.25, $1.35, $1.50 the yard. Fine quality of Mellow Crepes, Satin Back Crepes, Vanity Crepes in black and new spring shades. You can rely on the quality of our dress materials.

Munsingwear and Humming Bird Silk Hose

The new spring shades in Munsingwear and Humming Bird Full Fashion Silk Hose, nothing equals them in price for $1.50, forty-two strand silk. Blue Crane Silk Hose in all spring shades for $1.00. Compare this value with any for $1.00.

Coats And Dresses For Spring

There is a difference in workmanship on Materials. Examine the quality of dresses you buy for material and workmanship. Our dresses are not made for a price. They are bought to sell for honest value. Sizes and workmanship are reliable. We have them from $9.75 to $16.50.

Sport Coats of novelty materials, Spring Coats of plain cloths; examine the linings, look at the materials, compare the prices.

The Footwear Department

Our Ladies' Footwear Department for comfort, style and quality is one of the outstanding features of our store. The W. B. Coon of slender arch fitting footwear cannot be equaled. We have just added the most wonderful line of $5.00 Ladies' Footwear on the market to-day. The "Enna Jettick" Ladies' Footwear in all new styles and new tan shades for spring.