Eliason Legg Weds Mildred Valliant

Ceremony Performed Last Saturday In Alexandria

A wedding of wide interest in Centreville and on the Eastern Shore because of the prominence of the principals took place last Friday in Alexandria, Va., when Miss Mildred Valliant, daughter, of Mr. Edwin Stephen Valliant, became the bride of Mr. J. H. Eliason Legg, only son of former Senator J. H. C. Legg and Mrs. Legg.

The bride who is a graduate of Hannah Moore Academy in Reisterstown and Peabody Institute, Baltimore, has been employed by the firm of E. S. Valliant and Son in Centreville, for the past several years.

Mr. Legg, received his formal education at St. John's College, Annapolis, and the University of Maryland Law School, Baltimore. He is engaged in the insurance business in Centreville and is a member of the Rotary Club.

Those present at the ceremony were Miss Mary T. Valliant, sister of the bride, Mr. Collins Crowthers, of Baltimore, and Capt. and Mrs. Thomas A. Northam, of Fort Moultrie, S. C.

No announcements were sent in Queen Anne's County.

Mr. and Mrs. Legg will be at home at Camp Ruffit on the Corsica after December 1.
