MRS. JOHN H. NEWNAM

Mrs. Bessie Newnam, widow of the late John H. Newnam, who for many years was an outstanding business man of the Second District, died in Baltimore Wednesday morning, where she had recently gone to spend the winter.

Following her marriage to the late Mr. Newnam, they resided for a number of years in Church Hill, and on the Newnam farm, at Rolph's Wharf. More recently however, they lived for a short time in Chestertown, and later returned to Church Hill. Her late husband was a charter member of the Church Hill Bank of Maryland, and a Vestryman of St. Luke's Church.

Mrs. Newnam is survived by one daugther, Mrs. Austin M. Shure, of Baltimore, and a son, Harrison Newnam, who resides in Texas.

The remains were brought to Church Hill last night, and funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Luke's Church conducted by the Rev. Walter C. Eastburn. Interment will be in Church Hill Cemetery.

Twelve thousand degrees Fahrenheit is the average temperature of the sun, according to Dr. Henry B. Hedrick, of Washington.
