Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown to us during the illness and at the time of the death of our father, JOHN R. WHALEY.

JOHN R. WHALEY, JR.,
RALPH L. WHALEY,

In Memoriam

BROWN—In loving remembrance of my husband and our father, William R. Brown, who died one year ago March 10, 1936.

I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.

His Loving Wife.

One year has passed since that sad day,
When the one we loved was called away.
God took him home—it was his will.
Within our hearts he liveth still.

By His Children.

CAHALL—In memory of my dear mother, Edna Cahall who left us six years ago, March 11, 1931.

Long days, long nights, she bore her pain.
She waited for cure—but all in vain.
Till God Himself knew what was best,
And took her home and gave her rest.
Christ will link the broken chain,
Closer when we meet again.

Longed for always,

Her Daughter,
OLLIE CLOUGH.

HOLLYWOOD STAR-LITES

By Chuck Cochard

Editor's Note: With the invading spring styles just around the corner, Hazel May, your Hollywod Stylescope reporter will conduct today's column of "Star-Lites.")

—o—

Hollywood, Calif., Jan. 13.—Dresses for milady of 1937 will be 14 to 16 inches from the ground. Spring hats will be larger than ever. Her sleeves four inches above the wrist. And last, her shoulders will be devoid of exaggerated padding. These and other startling 1937 fashions were revealed yesterday in this city by the 17 leading motion picture fashion designers.

—o—

Robert Kalloch, the very friendly Columbia studio designer, tells me that the silhouette will be short and straight—that sleeves will be faintly exaggerated at the shoulders and will be elbow or three-quarters length. The front neckline will be lower and there will be no collars on any garments. The decolletage for evening will be extremely low and the backs of the gowns will boast exotic draperies.

—o—

Blue, will be the leading color for spring. All shades will be popular, but hyacinth, delphinium, cornflower, forget-me-not and, of course, navy will take the lead.

—o—

Gloves will become a "fashion must" in milady's wardrobe. For daytime they will be much longer and at dusk they will reach above the elbows.

—o—

Silk prints and cashmere will be outstanding fabrics for the spring suit which will be fashioned dressmaker style and have an influence of the 18th century.

—o—

Herschel, 20th Century-Fox designer, dropped his sketch pad to tell me that, "the newest creations for spring can best be described as having a delicate simplicity, contributed by the extensive use of sheer fabrics, prints inspired by garden and landscape and colors that are clear but soft."

—o—

Street lengths that remain about 14 to 16 inches from the ground, shorter suit jackets, in accordance with the youthful spirit of fabrics, and a continuance of long, sheer evening coats over bright dresses are other items that find favor with Herschel.

—o—

Adrian, ace M-G-M fashion designer, didn't whisper it when he told me that the costumes that Greta Garbo wears in her latest. "Camille", will set the trend for the coming year. And yours truly quite agreed with him. They're gorgeous.

—o—

YOU ASK 'EM WE ANSWER 'EM:

If you're in doubt about what your favorite star is doing, write your correspondent at Box 551 Hollywood, Calif.

—o—

ONE MINUTE INTERVIEW WITH JEANETTE MacDONALD:

"What would my advice to girls who hope to be screen singing stars? Well, first of all, decide just what kind of a job faces you and then find out whether or not you want to undergo the amount of work necessary.

—o—

"I am thinking of the hours one must spend to keep her voice trained. You have to struggle, not only to keep a lovely face and figure, but a singing voice. That takes hours of practice day after day."

—o—

INSIDE GOSSIP: Lilli Damita and Errol Flynn have patched things up and they're back together again. Lili came all the way from Florida to spend Christmas with her actor-husband.

—o—

WHAT person has been sending Alice Faye orchids every day? Boy friend, Tony Martin, is plenty burned up about it.

—o—

That's all for today. Until next week I remain your Hollywood correspondent who says: "Give a burlesque producer an inch and he's got costumes for a dozen chorus girls." CUT!
