A Capella Choir Coming May 23

Group To Sing At Grace Church Here

The Hagerstown A Capella Choir of thirty-six voices under the direction of Raymond K. Hellinger, is to present a program at Grace M. P. Church in Centreville Sunday morning, May 23, in place of the regular morning service.

The choir is making its first tour of the Eastern Shore and is to be heard in a number of towns in the coming weeks.

Organized in the fall of 1930, the choir has been trained to sing the best church music of Bach, Palestrina, Hasler, Tschaikovsky, Christiansen, from memory and without accompaniment.

During the past seven years the Hagerstown A Capella Choir has given over one hundred concerts, appearing before many large audiences, including Washington, D. C., Altoona, York, Huntingdon, Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, Staunton, Waynesboro, Harrisonburg, Va., and at the great Massanetta Springs, Va., Bible Conference.

The choir holds two rehearsals a week at the First Presbyterian Church and each member receives one voice lesson each week from the director.

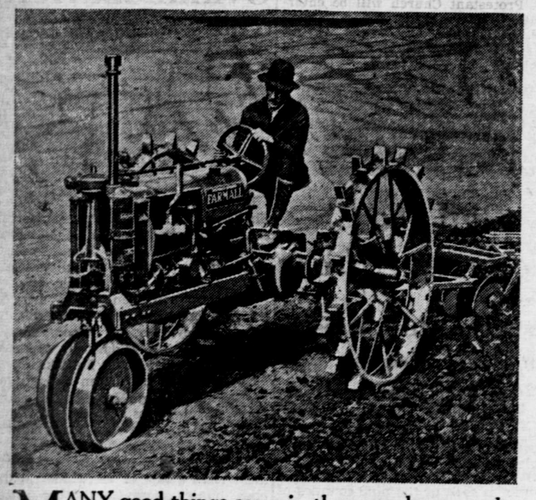
The Famous FARMALLS Come in THREE SIZES



MANY good things come in threes and among the very best from the farm point of view is FARMALL power—in THREE sizes—F-30, F-20, and F-12. Each of them is ready not only to plow but to plant, cultivate, run belt machines, and handle all row-crop and general-purpose work.

All of them have these exclusive patented Farmall features—quick-dodging ability, forward location of gangs, and braking either rear wheel through the steering gear for square turns.

Call us and we will come out and demonstrate any or all of the Farmalls.
