Items of Local Interest

Mrs. J. Herman Allender, Willis street, is spending some time with relatives in West Virginia.

Mrs. J. Francis Reese and daughters, this city, are visiting relatives in Salisbury.

Miss Marion Zepp, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Helen Barnes, Gamber.

Mrs. Edward Little and son, this city, spent Wednesday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Fritz, New Windsor.

Colonel Edward O. Weant, State delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Houston, Texas, returned home Monday.

Sandy Mount Christian Endeavor will hold a lawn fete Saturday night, July 14. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments will be for sale.

Ralph Beaver, Harrisburg, Pa., spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Autz, East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Study, this city, spent a day recently with the latter's mother, Mrs. Annie Mayer, Littlestown.

In a well-played game the Westminster baseball club defeated St. John's Athletic Club of Frederick, 6 to 4 on Saturday.

Norman Ward, LaMar Benson, Edwin Waters, John Reifsnider, Daniel Stoner, Kale Mathias and Willis Wampler, this city, are spending several weeks at Camp Conroy.

Miss Truth Maus, Westmoreland street, has returned from the South General hospital, Baltimore, where she underwent an operation for removal of tonsils and adenoids.

Miss Minerva Myers and Carl Schultz, both of Lancaster, Pa., were married in this city Saturday morning by Rev. Edward Hayes, of Centenary Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Poole, Mt. Washington; Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stansburg, Pikesville, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Freece, Arlington, sailed from Baltimore Friday, June 29th on the S. S. Chatham of the Merchants and Miners Line, enroute Boston, Mass.

The Misses Henrietta Little and Evelyn Kauffman, Park avenue, were delegates to the Young People's Branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union that was held over the week-end at Emory Grove Camp, Glyndon.

There will be no Sunday afternoon services at the County Home until July 29. Mrs. Harry Ditman has been in charge of this work and all organizations who will take charge of any Sunday afternoon service after that date will please notify Mrs. Ditman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Albaugh and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gillelan have returned to this city from their trip of several weeks to the Rotary International convention at Minneapolis, a trip over the Great Lakes, Canada, Niagara, and up the Hudson. They report a most enjoyable trip.

The congregation of Grace Lutheran church were favored with a baritone solo on Sunday morning by Roger Whiteford, Washington, D. C. Mr. Whiteford sang "The Recessional" by Bethoven, accompanied by Mrs. Noah L. Schaeffer at the organ.

Charles Rickell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rickell, Warfieldsburg, who was taken to the Maryland University hospital, Baltimore, last week has returned home. His case has been diagnosed at Malta fever.

Sterling three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leese, Manchester, was very badly cut about the face on Thursday last when the little tot pulled a scythe from a tree cutting a large gash in his forehead and almost severing his nose from his face. The child was carried to the office of a physician who gave the necessary surgical attention.

The dancing class conducted by Mrs. Nathan Gorter under the auspices of the Parish Guild of Ascension church held their last class on Friday evening in the form of a fancy costume party. The children were dressed in most attractive suits characteristic of nations, fairies and fables. Parents and friends of the children were appreciative guests. A dancing program was given of a grand march, Virginia reel, one step, minuet and other steps, with Miss Ida Lockard as pianist. After the dancing the kiddies were served ice cream.

Monday Miss Hannah Shunk, New Windsor, was a visitor in this city.

Kenneth Bond, New Windsor, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bond, East Main street.

Mrs. Abraham Price, Liberty street, spent last week in Baltimore where she was the guest of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Penn, Union Mills, are spending some time in Baltimore.

Miss Margaret Singer, Uniontown, has accepted a position as bookkeeper with Geiman and Young, this city.

Miss Ethel Neal, Baltimore, was a guest this week of Miss Harriett Miller, East Main street.

Mr. J. H. Handley, West Main street, who has been sick for two weeks is improving.

Mrs. Elizabeth Staub, this city, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. W. L. Martin and Mrs. Malinda Gall, Thurmont.

Mrs. Clara E. Staub and daughter, Philadelphia, Pa., are spending the summer in this city.

Saturday night the Westminster band gave a fine program in Union Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Shreeve Shriner, Uniontown, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Thomas Geiman, Baltimore, is spending a few weeks at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Morningstar, Liberty street.

Mrs. Clinton Macsherry and children, Baltimore, are spending some time with the former's sister, Miss Madeline Shriver, Union Mills.

Miss Sheila Young, Bond street, is spending this week visiting her cousins, Misses Dorothy and Ruth Reed, Greenmount.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhns have moved from this city to Greenmount where they recently purchased a property.

Mrs. John M. Hook, of Shipley, recently underwent an operation in Maryland General hospital, Baltimore. At present she is resting comfortably.

Pleasant Valley Sunday school picnic wil be held Saturday, July 21. Music will be furnished by the P. O. S. of A. band.

Mrs. Guy Fowler, East Main street, who is a patient in Maryland General hospital, Baltimore, is improving after an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Flossie Reever, Hallam, and Nelson Gladfelter, York, were married in this city on Saturday, by the Rev. William L. Seabrook.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Carrollton Church of God will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Martin, tomorrow afternoon.

Ruth Jones, daughter of Mrs. L. T. Jones, East Main street, is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Lauman Warner, Pikesville.

The Rev. S. R. Kresge, Tyrone, and the Rev. John S. Hollenbach, Manchester, are on a motor trip to California. They expect to be away six weeks.

Miss Helen Smeak has returned to Germantown hospital, Washington, D. C., where she is a student nurse, after spending her vacation with relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Myers and Mrs. E. H. Garey and children, this city, were entertained on Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig, Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Brooks and sons, Chicago, Ill., left yesterday after a ten-day visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Brooks, Willis street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Englar and daughter, Margaret, Redondo Beach, Cal., are visiting Mr. Englar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Englar and family, Taneytown. The trip was made by auto from California, in nine days, a distance of over 3,300 miles.

Miss Lucinda Weigle and Miss Rhoda Barnes, this city, left Sunday for a trip west, traveling by bus all the way. They will visit in Pittsburgh and in Indianapolis where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Schaub, the latter who was formerly Miss Mabel Barnes, this city. They plan to visit Chicago and a number of other interesting places.

Raymond Leroy Meyers, Manchester, and Margaret May Deatrich, Gettysburg, Pa., were married Saturday, June 23, by the Rev F. P. Brose, at the Church of God parsonage, this city.

SANDYVILLE

Sandy Mount Christian Endeavor will hold a lawn fete on Saturday night, July 14. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments will be for sale. All are cordially invited.

The Willard W. C. T. U. met last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fetter Newbelle, Arcadia, with a good attendance. The meeting which was in charge of the president Mrs. Nettie Ebaugh opened with singing a hymn, scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Viola Taylor, after which prayers were offered by Mrs. Edward Evans and Mrs. Blanche Magee; another hymn was sung, minutes were read, roll call and paying of dues; discussion on different subjects followed after which a program on anti-narcotics was rendered. Readings telling of the harmful effects of cigarettes, drugs, etc., were given by Mrs. Sue Keller, Mrs. Magee, Mrs. Bateman, Mrs. Ebaugh, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Buckingham. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Taylor, the last Thursday night in July. We then listened in to the convention being held at Houston, Texas. Mrs. Newbelle served delicious refreshments. A very pleasant social hour was also spent.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Yingling, who were married last Saturday afternoon. They have the best wishes of their many friends here.

Mrs. George Johnson, three daughters and two sons, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. John Zepp and family, of Overlea; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor and daughter, of Baltimore, and others were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Caple Sunday.

Miss Mariangela Caple who spent ten days visiting near High Point, North Carolina, and Richmond, Virginia, returned to her home last week for several days accompanied by her cousin, Miss Arleen Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Caple were entertained to dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Caple Sunday, June 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robertson and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson.

Word was received of the death of Mrs. Susan Taylor, widow of the late Elijah Taylor. She passed away Monday evening at the home of her son Howard Taylor, near Tannery. She had made her home with him for many years, and was active until the last few weeks. She was 87 years old, a good christian woman since childhood and loved by all who knew her. She has many relatives in this neighborhood.

Sunday school this Sunday morning at 9:30. Preaching at 10:45, C. E. at 7:45.

Christian Endeavor was led Sunday night by Beatrice Caple. The program consisted of patriotic songs and talks, also readings. A business meeting was held at the close.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Caple and Mr. William Shilling motored a few days last week through Shenandoah Valley, visited the Natural Bridge, Va., The Caverns, Staunton, Va., and other places having a fine trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bortner visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shilling Sunday. Mrs. Shilling returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Caple visited relatives in Randallstown Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mann and son visited Mr and Mrs. Lester Caple Sunday.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Sunday school Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Holy Communion at 10 by the Rev. Charles B. Rebert.

The Missionary Society and Girls' Guild of St. Matthew's Reformed church will meet on Wednesday night, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Myers, Bear Mount.

Miss Annie Starner Senft, Shady Side, returned home on Sunday evening after spending a very pleasant week at Mt. Airy, where she was assisting in caring for a number of Fresh Air children.

Pleasant Valley Sunday school picnic will be held Saturday, July 21. Music by P. O. S. of A. band. A lot of good things to eat will be on sale. Program will be announced next week.

Miss Mary Anne Geiman spent last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stonesifer, Sr.

Mrs. Thurman Brown and son Keith, Union Mills, spent Thursday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Upton H. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Myers spent several days at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haines, Uniontown.

Mrs. C. E. Eckard spent Thursday at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. F. Heltibridle and her brother, Oliver Heltibridle, Bear Mount.

Mrs. William Stonesifer and children, Uniontown, spent several days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Myers.

Pleasant Valley Packing Company's pea season closed on Monday. They report the pack not as large as last year, owing to the cool and wet weather.

Miss Maggie Myerly and Mr. Samuel Sentz, Hanover, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Myers, Mrs. E. H. Garey, daughter, Helen Rebecca and son, Everett, Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mehring, daughter Idona and son Richard, Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earhart, Hampstead; Mrs. Frank Kain, daughter Patricia, Mrs. Ernest D. Myers and daughter Ruby Alice, and Raymond Hahn, Baltimore.

Miss Ruthetta Waniz, Hanover, was a week-end guest at the home of her cousin, Belle Myers.

Miss Mary Anne Geiman spent Tuesday with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. A. Clayton Geiman and family, "Mahogany Farm."

Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Florence A. Eckard were, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Null, daughter Gladys, Littlestown, and Mrs. Edgar Keefer, Tampa, Florida.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Myers were Samuel Sentz, Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warehime, Silver Run; Mr. and Mrs. Emory Sell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shaffer, Littlestown, and Rev. W. E. Saltzgiver, Silver Run.

Farmers are very busy owing to so much rainy weather which kept them from making hay and plowing corn. In some corn fields the grass has gained considerable headway. Barley is on shocks, but wheat harvest is late.

Summer Silk Sale

All new patterns in yard-wide Summer Silks. Just the time for Sport Frocks. These are on center counter, price $1.00 the yard.

Summer Dress Display

We have received this week about fifty New Dresses for summer wear. Extra sizes in Flat Crepe, Georgette, Romaine Crepe, Plain Colors, regular $16.50 dresses to be had for selection at $12.50. New dresses in Pastel Shades and Figured Silks in regular sizes $9.75. These are cut to size and will fit. Not a sale proposition.

Novelty Pillows

Novelty Pillows made with metal cloth, trimmed in Iridescent Silk. In round, oblong and crescent shapes, priced $1.19.

Full Fashioned Silk Hosiery

Two of the best nationally advertised lines f Silk Hose in America. "Humming Bird" and "Musingwear" guaranteed Silk Hosiery. They must be satisfactory. Price $1.50 the pair. A new full fashioned slender Pointex heel "Musingwear" Hose, price $1.75. Ask to see them. The new summer shades now popular.

Summer Dress Materials

On center table you will find a good selection of Summer Materials, Rayon Silks, Colored Voiles, Dimity Prints, Economy Silks, Slip Satin, Lingerie Materials, prints.

Opening Sale Of Florsheim Shoes July 5th.

Semi-Annual Reduction Sale of Florsheim Shoes.

Entire Stock To Be Sold At These Prices.

Make Your Selection At Once.

FLORSHEIM

$8.85 SHOE SALE

A few styles $9.85

Your opportunity to buy the new smart styles at a saving.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

On With The Straw Hats, Men!

The time is here to buy a straw hat. We are showing a wonderful variety of styles and straws. Don't fail to see our Rainized Straw Hat, "it sheds water like a duck's back."

The prices range from $1.50 to $5.00.

New soft shapes, Yacht styles, or Panamas.

IF IT IS NEW WE HAVE IT!

New Caps! New Oxfords!

New Ties! New Hose!

J. Thomas Anders

Shoes for all the family.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2321-0204