Plaintiff
vs.
JEREMIAH E. CAHILL, Otherwise Known As JERRY E. CAHILL, CARL KESSLER Defendants

In The Circuit Court For Queen Anne's County, In Equity.

Cause No. 3149

Order Of Publication

The object of this suit is to have the deed of conveyance from Jeremiah E. Cahill to Carl Kessler declared to be void that same may be vacated and annulled.

The Bill of Complaint recites:

1. That on November 10th, 1937, the Plaintiff obtained a judgment in the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County against Jeremiah E. Cahill, otherwise known as Jerry E. Cahill, for $1,454.63, with interest from Nov. 10, 1937, and costs, said judgment being founded upon a claim which accrued prior to the conveyance hereinafter set forth.

2. That execution issued from said Court on said judgment on Nov. 15, 1937, returnable to Jan. Term, 1938 of said court, against the personal and real property of Jeremiah E. Cahill, was delivered to the Sheriff of Queen Anne's County to be levied on the undivided one-third interest of Jeremiah E. Cahill in certain real estate in Centreville, Queen Anne's County, Maryland described as being the premises on the east side of Commerce Street, Centreville, Md., and being part or portion of the "Walter Harmon Building" retained by Bessie Cahill, who died itnestate leaving surviving her, the said Jeremiah E. Cahill, who received as such surviving husband an undivided one-third share of said real estate.

3. That said execution was returned on Nov. 15, 1937, by the Sheriff wholly unsatisfied with the notation that one Carl Kessler claimed title by virtue of a deed of conveyance dated Sept. 10, 1937.

4. That said judgment is still owned by Plaintiff and that there is now actually and equitably due thereon the sum of $1,454.63, with interest from Nov. 10, 1937, and costs.

5. That at the time of the institution of Plaintiff's suit in the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County on Feb. 11, 1937, and down to Sept. 10, 1937, Jeremiah E. Cahill was seized and possessed in fee simple (subject to the lien of a $1,000.00 mortgage) of an undivided one-third interest in said premises, and that on September 10, 1937 and before the Plaintiff obtained his judgment on Nov. 10,1937, Jeremiah E. Cahill, for a pretended consideration of $2500.00, conveyed all his right, title, interest and estate in said premises to the Defendant, Carl Kessler, and that notwithstanding said conveyance, Jeremiah E. Cahill has since continued, and still continues, to live on and occupy said premises.

6. That said conveyance by Jeremiah E. Cahill was fraudulently made, and for a simulated and pretended consideration, and was made with the intent to strip himself of all his property and with the intent to hinder, delay and defraud the Plaintiff in the collection of his claim.

That Jeremiah E. Cahill is a resident of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, and that Carl Kessler is a resident of the City of New York, State of New York, and a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

IT IS THEREUPON ORDERED by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, and by the authority thereof, on this 15th day of November, 1937, that the Plaintiff, John W. Sherwood, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Queen Anne's County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 20th day of December, 1937, next, give notice to the said absent Defendant, Carl Kessler, of the City of New York, State of New York, of the object and substance of this Bill of Complaint, warning him to be and appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 7th day of January, 1938, next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree should not be procured as prayed.

Tracks In Snow Give Wild Animal Census

Following animal tracks in fresh snow is one of the ways to take a census of certain kinds of wildlife—particularly of some of the fur-bearing animals. The Bureau of Biological Survey sometimes has definite need for a fairly accurate count of the mammals or birds in a given area, perhaps to determine bag limits, or to reveal whether a protective method is working well or needs revision.

Following the tracks in snow—backward or forward—leads the census taker to dens or burrows, but this does not reveal how many animals may be living in a den. Further study of the snow trails, however, yields such information to an experienced observer.

Each animal in a den has a distinctive footprint that varies from the others in length. When the tracks from a den diverge a trained observer can quickly measure with his eye—or with a scale—the various sets of footprints, and can then jot down an accurate estimate of the number of animals in the den and their approximate age groups. For uniformity the animal-census takers usually use the length of the hind footprint in recording the count.

With some animals—deer and elk in particular—spotting from an airplane has proved quick, reliable, and more economical than trying to count from the ground. Airplane counts are also helpful in estimating the numbers of wildfowl on water areas.

LETTERS FOR SANTA

Dear Santa:

I am in the first grade and I try to be good. I am seven years old and I want a tractor, a train, and a ball. Also some candy, nuts, apples and oranges. Remember my teacher, Miss Bertha Truitt and Glenn Coleman, Ray Nickerson, and all the other first graders.

Your little boy,
JOHNNY MARCUS.
Millington, Md.

Dear Santa:

I am writing early as my letter did not get in the paper last year but I know you got it because you brought me all I asked for and more besides.

I am eight years old and in the third grade, my lessons are hard some times but I try and do get a good report. So I hope you will bring me a cowboy suit, tractor set, B-B rifle and bedroom slippers, and anything else you think I will like as it is more fun when you surprise me. Fill my stocking with good things to eat, we will leave you some cookies on the table as I know you will be hungry when you finish trimming our tree. Hope you and Mrs. Santa will have a Merry Christmas.

Your little boy,
VAN WILLIS.

Dearest Santa:

I am a big little boy two years old. I want a big rubber ball, a car, a truck, and an airplane. Also some candy, nuts, oranges and apples. Don't forget to make everyone happy for Christmas and New Years.

Your big little boy,
SAMMY WARREN MARCUS.
Millington, Md.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please bring me a sled, electric train, and wrist watch. Also trim my tree. Don't forget my teacher, Mrs. Kinnamon whom I like so much. Santa, I try to be good and have gone to St. Paul's Sunday School nearly five years without missing a Sunday, so please remember my teacher, Miss Helen Burris.

Love, from,
JIMMY ROTHWELL.
