In County Seat Society

ALICE K. SHEA, Social Editor, Centreville 148

The poet who called attention to the manner in which Spring causes a relocation in the direction of young men's fancies was a good reporter of human nature. Along comes the inspiring air of Spring and with it a number of weddings in the county. Two occurred right here in the county seat and stirred their own ripples of interest.

—o—

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Centreville M. E. Parsonage when Miss Olive Flint of Philadelphia became the bride of Mr. Albert Glennon of Centreville and Germantown.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry V. Branford in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was attired in a Powder Blue lace dress with dark blue satin sash. Her hat, a poke-bonnet effect, was of English Tan suede with tiny veil; her shoes and gloves matched her hat. She carried a corsage of hyacinths and white rose buds tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Royden Powell of Centreville was the bride's matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a dark blue suit with accessories to match and rose blouse and carried snapdragons matching her blouse. Mr. Royden N. Powell was Mr. Glennon's best man.

The groom is well known in Centreville and vicinity having lived with Mr. and Mrs. Powell for fourteen years. For the past six years he has been in the employ of Dr. H. B. Wilmer in Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Glennon left Friday for a wedding trip to Baltimore and Washington and wil be at home at 157 Mayland street, Germantown, after April 1.

—o—

A quiet nuptial ceremony was observed at the Grace M. P. parsonage in Centreville Saturday evening at 7 o'clock when Miss Mary Helen Quimby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quimby of Stevensville became the bride of Mr. Henry McPherson Larrimore, son of Mr. J. Henry Larrimore and the late Mrs. Julia Larrimore of the vicinity of Centreville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. Colvin Randall.

The bride's maid of honor and only attendant was her sister, Miss Beatrice Quimby. Mr. Joseph Hopkins of Baltimore was Mr. Larrimore's best man.

As the young couple emerged from the parsonage they were surprised by a number of their friends who were well provided for the traditional showers of rice and confetti.

Immediately after the ceremony a supper was served to the wedding party at the home of the groom's father where Mr. and Mrs. Larrimore will make their future home.
