Items of Local Interest

Miss Ivy Mae Albaugh, Hampstead, spent last week with her cousin, Miss Grace Hull, near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Wampler and son, Willis, East Main street, are spending a week in Atlantic City.

Miss Purnell Mathias, Baltimore, spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss Marie Helm, East Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marsh, of East Green street, have moved to Washington, D. C., where Mr. Marsh is employed.

Mrs. George Hood, East Main street, was taken to the Woman's hospital, Baltimore, for observation and probably an operation later.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowersox, have returned to their home in Washington, D. C., after visiting relatives in this city and Taneytown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dexter, Covington, Ky., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Ditman, Church street.

Misses Helen Ridegeway and Ethel Neal, Baltimore, were week-end guests of Miss Harriett Miller, East Main street.

Miss Gladys Earhart has returned to her home in this city, after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Raver, Emory

Miss Azalea Myers has returned to her home in this city after a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. James Leister, Medford.

Norval Hahn and family have moved into their new home recently completed on West Green street, having moved from East Main street.

Mrs. M. L. Mollison, Knoxville, Tenn., is spending several days as the guest of Miss Dorothy Elderdice, College Hill.

Mrs. Edward Lovell has returned to her home in New York after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Edward Lynch, this city.

Mr. Robert Weagley, Liberty street, has resumed his duties as a teacher at Ellicott City high school for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hurwitz have returned to their home on Colonial avenue after spending some time in Atlantic City.

Mrs. J. Herman Allender, Willis street, spent this week in Washington, D. C., as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Stoner.

Mrs. William Earhart, West Main street, is improving from a severe attack of tonsilitis. Mr. Earhart is confined to his bed by an attack of grip.

Mr. Paul Bonsack, Elgin, Ill., moved to this city last week and entered into business as a partner with his brother, J. Ralph Bonsack, West Main street.

George P. Everhart died Monday, September 3, at his home in Hanover, Pa., at the age of 88 years. Mr. Everhart was the third son of the late George and Catharine Shower Everhart, Manchester, this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Gehr Seboure, Miss Molly Gilroy and James Gilroy, Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Seboure's mother, Mrs. Julia Seboure and family, East Green street.

Mrs. Agnes Starner, this city, spent last week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Flanagan, Silver Run. Mrs. Starner is convalescing from a serious operation which she underwent several weeks ago.

The annual Wentz family reunion was held on Saturday at Forest Park, Hanover, with about 400 members of the clan present. They came from all parts of Maryland and Pennsylvania, and there was a constant renewing of old acquaintances and a making of new ones. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Harper Wentz; vice-president, Luther S. Wentz; secretary, Horatio T. Wentz; treasurer, Milton Wentz.

Miss Carolina Wantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pearre Wantz, entertained this week at a house party at her home, West Main street. Her guests included: Miss Bertha Adkins, Salisbury; Miss Elizabeth Scott and Miss Virginia Crunkelton, Baltimore; Miss Ann Reifsnider, this city; Elmer and Malcolm Buckey and Miller Barrick, Philadelphia, and Donald Taylor, Centerville.

Miss Thelma Smith, Detour, deputy clerk in the Clerk of the Court's office, is enjoying a week's vacation.

Miss Blanche Ford, of Norfolk, Va., spent a week with her mother, Mrs. Buchannon Ford, of Gamber.

There will be a chicken corn soup supper held at Miller's, this county, on September 14 and 15.

Miss Anna Heltibridle, Court street, spent the week-end with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. Charles Babylon, Hirsh avenue, has been taken to the Hanover General Hospital.

William Byers and Maurice Englar, this city, are spending this week in Atlantic City.

Dr. M. L. Bott, formerly of this city, is spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baumgardner, Emmitsburg.

Mrs. Clara Staub and daughter, Miss Margaret, Philadelphia, have returned to their home after spending several month in this city.

Mr. Harry W. Handley, New York, spent the week-end with his father, Mr. Jacob H. Handley, West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Diffendal, Jr., Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. Diffendal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Diffendal, Bond street.

Mrs. Mollie Warehime Hall, Philadelphia, who was born and raised near Pleasant Valley, attended the fourth annual homecoming held there on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Julian, this city, accompanied by a number of friends, spent Labor Day on a sight seeing trip to Washington and Mount Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Monroe and family have returned to their home in Virginia, after spending a week with Mr. Monroe's mother, Mrs. Emma Monroe, of Gamber.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow and daughter have returned to their home on East Main street, after spending the summer at their camp in the northern part of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Zepp, Washington, D. C., and William Zepp, Norfolk, Va., have been spending several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Zepp, Chase street.

Miss Mabel Armacost and brother Russell, have returned to Philadelphia, after spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Armacost, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, Mrs. Leander Gladhill, Mrs. Clara Casssell, Mrs. John D. Bowers and son, Francis, this city, attended the fourth annual homecoming held on Monday at Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tyler, Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Myers, of Pikesville, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Tyler's and Mrs. Myers' mother, Mrs. James M. Stoner, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Sample, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Swartz, and children, Warren and Marion, of Lancaster, Pa., visited Rev. John S. Hollenbach and family, of Manchester, Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stimax, this city, spent several days with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cole, Baltimore. Mrs. Cole and daughter returned with them and spent the past week-end.

Plans have just been completed by the Women's Civic League with the John B. Rogers Producing Company of Ohio for a presentation in this city by local talent on October 11 and 12, of the new musical comedy, "Spanish Moon."

The whereabouts of the four girls who escaped from the Montrose School for Girls have not been learned as yet. After midnight Saturday seven of the girls made good their escape but three were caught near this city by Sheriff Fowble and returned to the school.

Mrs. Clara L. Dawson, widow of T. Miller Dawson, died Tuesday, September 4, at her home at Phoebus, Va., at the age of 72 years. Mrs. William F. Cover and David Neuman, of Keymar, are sister and brother of the deceased. Yesterday funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Union Bridge, Rev. Mr. Kroh officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brown, this city, attended a surprise dinner party given in honor of Mrs. James Demmitt, at her home in Taneytown.

George Crumbacker, living in York, Pa., under the name of George Smith, was apprehended on Friday last by Deputy Sheriff Leo Warner on a charge of larceny of chickens. He was brought to this city and lodged in jail and will be tried before the court.

The district rally of the Sunday schools of Manchester district will be held in the Lutheran church in Manchester. Dr. Robert Davies, general secretary of state organization, will speak, a male chorus from Baltimore county will sing and the union Sunday school orchestra of Manchester will play. Everybody is urged to attend this rally on September 20, at 7.45 P. M.

Miriam McMillan, 11, daughter of J. R. McMillan, near Plane No. 4, is in a serious condition at the Frederick City Hospital, the result of being accidentally run down by a truck operated by Samuel Marino, Frederick, near her home Tuesday. She was on her way to school at Mount Airy and in attempting to cross the road is said to have run directly in the path of the truck.

Sunday John J. Arbaugh, Carrollton, Ohio, spoke before the congregations of St. Mary's Reformed and St. Mary's Lutheran churches, Silver Run, making inquiry as to whereabouts of the records. He has been making a continued search for the past nine years for the records, dating from the organization of the congregation in the year 1762 up until 1810. These records were probably written in the German language. Individuals are asked to make careful search and notify, either of the pastors of these congregations or Mr. Arbaugh himself. These records are invaluable to the people of that community as well as thousands who migrated to other states.

PLEASANT VALLEY

The annual Harvest Home service will be held on Sunday morning at 10:30. Sunday school at 9:30. The Rev. Willard E. Saltzgiver, pastor. Ladies' Aid Society at 7:45 P. M.

The fourth annual home coming was held on Monday, and was a splendid success. The afternoon program was as follows, wtih Mrs. Vernon Smith presiding: Piano solo, Mrs. Upton E. Myers; song, America The Beautiful;" song, "Swaney River," welcome, Norma Myers; invocation, Rev. W. E. Saltzgiver, "Long, Long Ago," solo, "My Old Cottage Home," Sarah Margaret Myers; talk by Mrs. Reinecke, "Civic Life;" talk by Frank Stewart, "Home;" solo, "Among My Souvenirs;" playlet, five girls, Sarah Margaret Myers, Ruth Yingling, Mary Yingling, Norma Myers and Mildred Welk; talk by Mrs. Frank Stewart, song, "Pleasant Valley Hills;" social hour and supper. Evening session: "Onward Christian Soldiers," prayer, short talk by Mrs. Clara Cassell, Westminster, who was born at the old homestead, now owned by M. Luther Helwig, and was the first visit to Pleasant Valley in thirty years; talk by George Frock, president of Carroll County Society of Baltimore City; solo, Sarah Margaret Myers; solo, "There'll Be Music In Heaven," Edward W. Devilbiss, one of the oldest born residents of Pleasant Valley; playlet, solo, Martha Smith. A very interesting talk by Rev. Saltzgiver, "Brightly Beams our Father's Mercy," Samuel H. Myers, Rev. Saltzgiver and Nelson H. Bankert; solo, Edward W. Devilbiss, "The First Music Lesson;" two selections, "Shall I Crucify My Saviour," and "Stars of the Summer Night," by Messrs. Saltzgiver, Myers and Bankert;two very pleasing talks were delivered by Mrs. Esther K. Brown, principal of Pleasant Valley high school; the other by Mr. Ports one of the new teachers who with his wife and little son recently moved here from Frederick City. The program closed with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." The one coming the longest distance to the Home Coming was Mrs. Mollie Warehime Hall, Philadelphia, who was born and raised near here, and was a faithful member of St. Matthew's church choir from the time the church was built until she married and moved to Philadelphia. Others from a distance who were former residents and who motored here were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Utermahlen and daughter, Mrs. Oliver Utermahlen, Mrs. S. Charlotte Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Read and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soine and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Feeser and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Frock, Mrs. Emma Fowler, Miss Sallie Mae Fowler, William J. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Murphy, all of Baltimore; Mrs. Katie Sullivan and daughter, Pikesville; Mr. and Mrs. George Grob, Mrs. Martha Helwig, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Raubenstine, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wantz and son Kermitt, Miss Ruthetta Wantz, all of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wantz and family, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, Mrs. Gladhill, Mrs. Clara Cassell, Mrs. John D. Bowers and son Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bitzell, Westminster, and a number of others who did not register.

Mr. and Mrs. Ports who recently moved here from Frederick are occupying the apartment which was formerly occupied by Mrs. Esther K. Brown and daughter Eleanor until the new house on High street which is being built by A. D. Leister is completed.

A surprise farewell party was given on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geary Angell, in honor of their daughter Myrtle, who left on the following week to attend the Brenbaker College, Baltimore. Games were played until a late hour when refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geary Angell, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Longley and son Ralph, Mrs. John Menzie and son Robert, Mr. Walter Yost, Baltimore; Misses Martha Smith, Louella Helwig, Ruth Yost, Catherine Yingling, Catherine Wetzel, Violet Myers, Harvine Myers, Maude Myers, Marie, Helen and Gloria Angell, Messrs. Eddie Leister, Fern Myers, Reynolds Lipton, Ralph Million, Stewart Bell, Luther Brown, Clarence Welk, Thurlow Myers, Herbert Smith, Aubrey Wagner, Kenneth Myers, Charles Bankert, and Daniel and Stewart Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig motored to Roxboro, Pa., where they were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ehly. They were accompanied back to Pleasant Valley on Sunday evening by Miss Patricia Kain who spent the week at the Ehly home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest D. Myers and daughter Ruby Alice, Mrs. Upton H. Myers, Miss Margaret Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Yingling, son Melvin, daughter Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Brown and son Keith, motored to York on Sunday where they visited Mrs. Upton H. Myers' sister, also her brother, Charles Motter who resides near Dover, Pa. They returned home late in the evening.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geary Angell were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Angell and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Blade Hankers, Taneytown; Charles Byers and Ernest Mehring, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Denton Powell and son Marlin, Tobias Martin and Frank Kain, this place.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Myers were Mr. and Mrs. David Feeser and daughter Alethia, Mrs. Emma Fowler, Miss Sallie Mae Fowler, William Fowler, Baltimore; Mrs. Clarence Myers, Hanover; Mrs. Katie Sullivan, Pikesville; Mrs. Philip Bitzell, Mrs. Leandar Gladhill, Mrs. Wash Myers, Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Penn, Union Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Clate Geiman, Mrs. Jacob Frock, and Mrs. Harry Feeser.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Myers, Westminster; Mrs. Lena Myers and daughter Ruth, Fort Wayne, Ind., spent Tuesday evening with Mrs. Martha Powell and daughter Maggie.

Miss Margaret Dickensheets has entered State Normal at Towson, Md.

Miss Margaret Brown spent the past week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Warehime, Northern Carroll.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Heltibridle and daughter Betty and son Billy, Northern Carroll; Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Frock, Miss Ruthetta Frock, Bernell Frock and Mr. Kickk, Hanover; Mrs. Mary Eckard, Wilmington, Del.; Thomas Devilbiss, Uniontown; Edgar Schaeffer, Baltimore; Luther Weimert, and Edward H. Schaeffer, Westminster.

Miss Louise Booker and William Simpson, Wilmington, Del., who spent several days with Miss Annie Starner Senft, "Shady Side," returned to their home on Monday evening.

Mrs. Mary Eckard, Wilmington, Del., who spent several days with her nephew Charles Eckard and wife, is now visiting relatives in Uniontown.

Miss Patricia Kain is a Freshman at Western Maryland College.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shettle were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Gist, Westminster.

Mrs. Emory C. Ebaugh, Bethel Heights, spent Sunday with her father, Edward M. Hahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin M. Hahn, Philadelphia, who spent the past week with the former's father and sister, Mrs. Ernest D. Myers, returned to their home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig enjoyed the moonlight excursion to Bay Shore last Wednesday night.

Harvest Home services will be held in St. Matthew's Reformed church on Sunday evening, September 16 at 7:45. The Rev. Charles B. Rebert, pastor.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Early Fall Specials

Felt Base Rugs

A good quality felt base rug size 9x12 assorted patterns $5.95

Footwear Specials

Arch Fitta, black and tan oxford ties - $3.85

Arch Fitta, kid & black patent leather, 1 strap $3.85

Felt Hat Specials

Ladies' felt hats, all colors, the new fall styles $1.49

Ladies' Dress Specials

New styles in fall dresses in colors cocoa, red, green, black, navy, Satins and Georgette Crepes $8.75

Blanket Specials

"WOOLEYWARM" Bed Blankets, size 66x80 weight four and one-quarter pounds, assorted plaids, blue, rose, tan, gray, price $4.35

Take advantage of this saving opportunity.

The Best Work Pants, Overalls and Shirts

full cut, well made, that insures comfort and service.

Try a "Brave Man" work shirt

Sharrer, Gorsuch & Starr

CARROLL COUNTY'S BIG AND ONLY EXCLUSIVE CLOTHING STORE.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2321-0277