In County Seat Society

ALICE K. SHEA, Social Editor, Centreville 148

Many of our colleges and private schools have just taken that long, delicious breath called Spring Vacation before they settle in the finishing quarter of the year's work. One delightful week is turned over to the students and many of our county group took advantage of the chance for renewing home ties and home acquaintances. But the week and its pleasant associations have flown by and the visitors are back again in the cloistered precincts of student life.

The following students who have been enjoying a spring vacation in and around Centreville with relatives and friends have returned to their respective scohols: Betty Armstrong and Marjorie McKenney, Western Maryland College, Westminster; Grace Morris, Priscilla Brown Evelyn Dulin, Helen Burris, Gordon Lane and Henry Lewis, Wasinhgton College, Chestertown; William H. Fisher, jr., and Clayton C. Carter, Duke University, Durham, N. C.; Richard and Wick Kenworthy, The Hill School, Pottsville, Pa.; Aubrey Romine, jr., The Gunnery School, Washington, Conn.
