Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Ray Bates, this city, has resigned her position as cashier at the Star theatre after eight years of service.

Miss Pauline Frizzell, Sarasota, Florida, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. William E. Steele, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Frank W. Fouke returned yesterday to Baltimore after spending the summer at the Westminster Hotel.

Mrs. Ida R. Geisman, Carroll street, and Miss Margaret Stem, East Green street, spent the week-end at Delaware Water Gap.

Misses Anna Heltibridle and Mabel Albert, this city, were recent guests of Miss Minnie I. Nicholson, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Joseph L. Mathias has returned to her home on East Main street, after a short visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Frank Kale, of Hanover, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Kress, Pennsylvania avenue, was taken to the Maryland General hospital, Baltimore, Sunday night in the Carroll county ambulance. She will undergo treatment and observation.

Mrs. George Hood, East Main street, who is a patient at the Woman's hospital, Baltimore, and who underwent a serious operation, is getting along nicely and will return to her home shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. James Schweigart, of Avon Park, Florida, announce the birth of a daughter, Nellie Edith, born Sunday morning, Sept. 16. The baby is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Schweigart and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Snader, this city.

Hog cholera is reported to exist on the premises of Christian White, near Mexico. Advise your neighbors of the above outbreak. If you know of any sick hogs in your county, notify your County Agent. Promptly burn or bury the carcass of any animal that dies on your premises.

Bish Persell Warehime has returned to Cleveland, Ohio, to resume his college duties in that city, after spending three weeks vacation with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Martin, near this city. While on his visit he visited points of interest in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shilling and Miss Ruth Shilling, Bethel Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Howard and daughter Esther, Union Bridge, have gone by automobile to Pontiac, Michigan, where they will spend ten days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray. Mrs. Gray was formerly Miss Virginia Shilling, Bethel Heights.

Mrs. Charles Starner, near this city, has returned to her home after spending a year visiting her daughter and family, in California. Mrs. Starner attended the conference which was held at LaVerne, California, in June of this year. She also visited relatives in Washington State, Canada and Kansas.

Harvest Home services were observed in Grace Lutheran church, on Sunday morning. The pastor, the Rev. John B. Rupley, delivered a fitting sermon and the choir rendered special music both morning and evening. The church pulpit was tastefully arranged with fruits and vegetables of the season.

An abandoned car was discovered at noon Sunday about three miles from Westminster by State Officer Williams. The car, a Buick sedan, bore Pennsylvania license tags No. 49,883 and the initials H. R. W. were on the door; the motor number was 1,041,066. The car had gone over a small embankment and struck a telephone pole, damaging it somewhat. Bed clothing and an improvised bed were in the back seat and several suit cases filled with clothing. It is thought that the occupants were circus people and that for a stolen car as no one accompanied it could not be it or made any headway.

Mrs. John E. Wilhide, of Bridgeport, has been ill for several weeks is very much improved and able to be up.

Mrs. John Riley, Baltimore, spent Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Greenwood, Pennsylvania avenue.

Israel B. Stonesifer died at his home in Gettysburg, Pa., Tuesday, September 25, aged 89 years. He was a native of Silver Run.

Miss Clara Sterner, student of State Normal school, Towson, spent the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ada Sterner, this city.

Mrs. Hollis Duvall, Govans, is spending a week as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Morrell, West Main street.

Roger Roop, son of Mr. Joseph Roop, Spring Mills, is a patient in Maryland University hospital, Baltimore, suffering with typhoid fever.

Miss Helen Fink, Taneytown, and Lester H. Chronister, York Springs, were married Thursday last in St. Paul's Reformed parsonage, this city.

Miss Kathryn Leffert, East Green street, is spending a week in Baltimore visiting her aunt, Miss Leona Ward.

A supper open to the public will be held on Saturday, October 6, at the Firemen's building, by the ladies of the local Patriotic Order of America.

Mrs. Ella J. Hann, wife of John M. Hann, of Hanover, died Sunday, September 23, aged 64 years. She was a daughter of the late George M. and Jane Wooden Caltrider, of this county.

John W. Campbell, Longwell avenue, has received his certificate and has become a member of the American Radio Relay League, with headquarters in Hartford, Conn., which is an amateur radio organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reifsnider and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Hughes, this city, have returned from a four days' visit to Niagara Falls and Canada. They also visited Watkins Glen and Buffalo.

Miss Rachel Smith was struck by an automobile near her home at Avondale on Friday evening last. Miss Smith was returning from work. She was taken to the office of a physician where she was treated for slight injuries.

Saturday night in the armory the Democrats held a well attended meeting. The speakers were Governor Ritchie, Representative William P. Cole, Jr., Senator T. H. Caraway, of Arkansas, and Senator William Cabell Bruce.

Herbert Essich, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Essich, Pennsylvania avenue, has entered Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa. Milton Morgan, who spent last year in this city, attending Western Maryland College, is also attending the college.

Mrs. Charles A. Buhrman died at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, Wednesday, September 19, following an operation. Her age was 59 years. She is survived by her husband and a step-son. George Baker, New Windsor, and Charles Baker, Keymar, are brothers of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Morningstar, Liberty street, visited at the home of the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Bohn, Union Bridge, on Monday. Mrs. Bohn who was a patient at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, returned to her home on Sunday and is improving as well as can be expected.

Elder J. H. Hollinger, Washington, D. C., will be at Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren on Sunday, September 30. He will preach at both the morning and evening services. The morning subject at 10.30 o'clock, will be "What about Prohibition Law?" The evening service will be given under the auspices of the Young People's department and Elder Hollinger will speak to the young people at 7.30 o'clock on the subject "Humanity's Call to the Young People."

UNION MILLS

Thomas, Bennett & Hunter, contractors, with a large force of hands, are pushing along the repairs on the Rev. Father Sander, pastor of St. Mary's Immaculate church, Silver Run, Rev. Father S. Funk, pastor, will assist in a rally day service for which a special program has been arranged, at 9.30 o'clock, on Sunday morning, Sept. 30. Hon. A. S. Stronsbeck, Hanover, Pa., will make the principal address on the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald F. Lawyer, after spending their honeymoon in an automobile trip to several of the western states, where they visited relatives, returned home on Thursday of last week and at once went to housekeeping in a previously furnished dwelling on one of the Claude Lawyer farms in Silver Run Valley. Mr. Lawyer is a son of Claude Lawyer and his bride was Miss Cora M. Bankert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Bankert, Union Mills.

Bishop McDavitt, Harrisburg, Pa., visited friends at Union Mills last week and on the morning of the 22 inst. said mass at St. Mary's chapel in the residence of Miss Mary O. Shriver.

MILLERS

Mr. and Mrs. John Watkins and children, Ruth and John, Jr., Baltimore, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hare.

The following spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garrett: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Garrett, of Lineboro; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Hampstead; Mr. and Mrs. Grover Leese, children, Kathryn, Gladys, Myrtle and Sterling, near Melrose; Mr. and Mrs. William Graf, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brilhart and son Austin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Brilhart, Manchester.

The following spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graf: Mr. and Mrs. John Ruark, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. Jesse Stocket, son William, Mrs. Olive Keller and friend, all of Baltimore; Grace Wilhelm and Charles and Ray Redding.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peacock and son Milton, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, children, Dorothy and Henry, near Hampstead, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gelbb, Mrs. Sarah Redding, and daughter Alva, Railroad, Pa., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brilhart.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. John K. Miller were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Miller, Pleasant Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, children, Mildred and Francis, Miss Alverta Hoffacker, Manchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Graf spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Fouble, near Hampstead.

SHIPLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reaver had as Sunday visitors Messrs. Steward and Oscar Ritenour, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hook had as Wednesday evening guests Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Caples, Mrs. Margaret Caples and Miss Arleen Caples.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Zion M. P. church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jesse P. Carr. Everybody welcome.

There will be a rally day service at Zion church Sunday evening, October 31. A welcome to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Shipley and son Howell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howell Davis, Smallwood.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wilhide had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Owings and Miss Doris Owings of Fenby; Miss Mildred Bair of Westminster; Mrs. Katherine Caples and Miss Arleen Caples, Mr. C. Bloom, Mr. Charles Myers and brother and friend and others.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Carval Horton and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gist.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ward attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Mr. Samuel Hood, in Baltimore, on Monday. The family has our sympathy.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of our little friend, Miss Georgia McFadden, who is in a hospital in Baltimore. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McFadden, Baltimore.

The Ladies' Aid society of Zion M. P. church will hold an oyster supper at the hall on Saturday evening, Oct. 27. All members are requested to bring a basket with things suitable for a supper. This is the place where you get a square meal. Everybody welcome. If anyone has quilts to quilt for the hall this week please

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse P. Carr had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Carr and family, of Hagerstown.

Miss Betty Matthews was a week-end guest of Miss Frances Smoot, at Linwood.

Mr. Carroll Lindsay, of Dennings, was a Sunday guest of Mr. Carval Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers, of near Woodbine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Polster, Mr and Mrs. Emory Arbaugh and family were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Caples, Miss Arleen Caples, Mr. Wilbur Zepp and Raymond Hughes were sight seeing at Sykesville. They also called on Mrs. Samuel Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hook entertained Thursday evening to an old-time apple cutting. Refreshments were served. Among those present were Messrs. and Mesdames D. G. Hook, Grove O. Easton, Andrew Polster, Harry Hughes, Murry Stem, Luther Myerly, Elbert Shipley, William Caples, Albert Bair, Byron Wagner, Sterling Slater, Ralph Hahn, Misses Louise Hook, Louise Myerly, Betty Leah Myerly, Alverta Wagner, Evelyn Hook, Hilda Hughes, Edith Stem, Frances Stem, Dorothy Hughes, Arleen Caples, Messrs. Wilbur Zepp, Howell Shipley, Robert Stem, William Hook, Joseph Stem, Byron Wagner, Jr., Norman Hughes, and others.

Rumor says that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Reaver will rent their farm and move to Westminster in Mrs. Samuel Miller's house, corner of Church and Green streets.

Some of our folks are cutting corn and worm seed, others are stilling oil.

KNIGHTS WILL HAVE BIG NITE

Tuesday night, October 2, at 7.30 o'clock Charity Lodge No. 58, Knights of Pythias, of this city, will be visited by the Grand Lodge officers of the State. The Grand Chancellor will at this time present "Dozen Club Buttons" to Paul E. Robertson, James D. Mitchell, Roy Mumford, Raymond Shipley, William Kauffman, Jr., H. G. Mathias, F. C. Keefer and Raymond Hoffman, for securing twelve or more applications in the membership drive last fall and winter.

The refreshments committee will be on hand with something for us.

It is hoped by the officers of the lodge that a large number of members will be present to do honor to those members who were on the job.

Wilber Coon Shoe Week
September 26 to October 3rd.
When You Buy Shoes Here You Buy Comfort.

YES, and without sacrificing a bit of style! All you need is correct fitting and the right shoes.

We provide both. Our fitters are foot specialists. They know the causes of foot troubles, how to avoid and correct them.

To assure perfect fitting we have Wilbur Coon Shoes, scientifically constructed, smartly styled. Built with special measurements, in over 200 sizes....1 to 12, AAAA to EEE, these shoes permit us to fit perfectly practically every woman.

And almost every normal foot needs our fitting service to avoid such common shoe faults as gaping sides, slipping heels and wrinkles. The hard-to-fit foot needs it even more. Foot comfort is waiting here for you....and a better looking foot.

$6.50 to $10.50

A Made-To-Measure Fit In Ready-To-Wear Shoes.

BABYLON & LIPPY CO.

Wilber Coon Shoe Week
September 26th to October 3rd.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Style And Choice In New Fall Suits At $22.50 and $32.50.

We specialize on these two prices:
Regular $25 to $28 values $22.50
Regular $35 to $40 values $32.50

THE TWO GREATEST SERGE SUITS
Middishade and Englishtown—Equal in every way to the finest custom made suits and far superior to the cheap so called made to measure suits.

HANDSOME NEW TOP COATS
Everyone needs a light weight overcoat and we are showing exceptional values and patterns $15 to $25.

THE BEST FALL SUITS FOR BOYS
Made right, styled right, priced right:
New wool 2-pants suits $7.00 to $18.00

SWEATER WEATHER
These cool days call for sweaters and lumber jacks. We have the best at the lowest prices.

Sharrer, Gorsuch & Starr

CARROLL COUNTY'S BIG AND ONLY EXCLUSIVE CLOTHING STORE.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS FINED

Walter P. Copperasmith, this city, was fined $5 and costs by Police Justice Benson after he was apprehended by Officer Williams for attempting to pass another car at a cross roads early Sunday evening. Charles A. Wenzel, Baltimore, appeared before the police justice following his arrest by Officer Williams on Sunday evening, and was fined $25 and costs for speeding and $5 and costs for reckless driving.

An automobile accident occurred on Sunday shortly after noon at the corner of Green and Liberty streets, where the signal light is placed. Eugene Patterson, colored, an employe of Guy W. Steele, struck the rear end of the car of Luther C. Close, this city, damaging same. The accident happened after the green signal was on and the two cars began to move forward. The Steele car was also somewhat damaged. At a hearing before Justice Benson, Patterson was charged in four cases: for failing to stop after an accident, $25 and costs; failing to have registration card in possession, $1 and costs; not having proper license tags on car, $10 and costs; operating a car without having license in possession, $5 and costs, a total amount of $40.50 and costs and costs.

FRIZELLBURG CAR WRECKED

Lawrence Bickell, Frizellburg, escaped serious injury when his car was badly wrecked one night last week near Roop's Mill, on the Taneytown state road. Mr. Bickell was driving along the road by a passing motorist, hit a tree and made a nose dive about eight feet in the mill race. The car landed on its top and it was some time before the driver could be extracted. His call for help was not heard for quite a while. Fortunately the water in the race was shallow. The wreck crew of the City Garage brought the car here for the necessary repairs.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

C. F. Elmer, of Elmer's Inn, Frizellburg, suffered serious cuts and bruises Friday afternoon on his way to his home from this city, and completely demolished his new sedan, when he met with an accident near Roop's Mill. The accident was caused by a passing car forcing him to the extreme side of the road, where he hit a large tree. The car is a complete wreck. The impact broke the steering wheel, badly bruising Mr. Elmer's chest, and he also was badly cut by flying glass. The neighbors nearby immediately came to his assistance and when [illegible] him he was conscious [illegible] the shock.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2321-0301