ville high, Doris Wyatt, Amy Thomas, Olive Bryan, Irene Evans and Lulu Scheel. Tri-County high, Norma Hicks, Nellie Barcus, Edith Dudley, Florence Moore, and Carolyn Holland. Sudlersville high, Annabelle Holden, Henrietta Benton, Lois Stevens, Betty Emerson and Ellen Ross Johnson. Centreville high, Dorothy Holland, Grace Holton, Frances Legg, Janet Lingle and Gene Mason.

The afternoon and evening events will be held at Stevensville elementary school. The afternoon program will include a Fashion Show, a Wedding Dress Revue and informal dancing and will be held from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The Fashion Show will include a display from dress shops of the county and the handiwork of 4-H girls, all to be modeled. The 4-H girls will exhibit both sort and school dresses which they have made themselves.

The committee in charge of the Show includes Mrs. John Daniel, chairman, Miss Catherine Kirwan, Miss Helen Councell and Miss Ruby Kirk.

The Wedding Dress Revue is expected to show the traditional wide and attractive range of bridal outfits such as Kent Island has previously been able to put on. The Revue will include wedding out fits from the present day back as far as trunks and wardrobes will yield treasures. Always a fascinating feature for ladies and for men with a taste of sentiment the Wedding Dress Revue is to be featured as one of the highlights of the celebration. Miss Catherine Kirwan will head the committee in charge.

The coronation of the Queen at 6:30 p. m. and the ball, in her honor at 9 o'clock will round out the full day's merrymaking.

Other chairmen of committees for the various sections of the program are Mrs. William E. Denney, jr., cakes; Miss Mary Larrimore, sports and advertising; Mrs. J. Calvert Jones, Beauty Contest and Dance; Mrs. Gene Bright, Maypole dance; Miss Ruby Kirk, 4-H Girls' Clubs Fashion Show; Mrs. Claude Lowery, flowers and decorations; Miss Grayce Alexander, Amateur contest.
