UNION MILLS

Committees to carry on the Third Annual Community Show of Myers district were named at a meeting of the executive committee of the Parent Teachers Association of the Charles Carroll school on Tuesday evening. Added attractions consisting of commercial exhibits, a fashion show, community store and baby show in addition to the regular exhibits of farm, home and poultry products, indicate that this fair will be the most extensive and attractive event of the kind ever staged in Myers district. The show will be held on Friday and Saturday, November 9 and 10, the entire school house and grounds being given over for the occasion.

Announcement was made by Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel, chairman of the program committee of the association, that the regular monthly meeting on next Tuesday evening, October 9, would be addressed by a representative of the State organization of Parent-Teachers Associations. A prominent song leader from one of the Baltimore associations will also be present to lead the community singing. Local musical talent will also participate in the program.

The executive committee accepted with regret the resignation of W. E. Penn as treasurer, and elected in his place R. Z. Coblentz. An appropriation of $50 for the school library was made, the purchases of books to be subject to the approval of the library committee, Mrs. Albert Lawyer, chairman. President S. E. Flanagan reported progress on the several projects designed for the improvement of the school grounds.

Following are the special committees of the Third Annual Community Show. The chairmen of the committees will meet at the school house next Monday evening, October 8, to start preparations: Program, Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel, chairman; Mrs. Albert Lawyer, Miss Miriam Royer, Miss Ruth Schlenkee, Rev. Felix B. Peck. Prizes, R. Z. Coblentz, chairman; Miss Miraud Nusbaum. Samuel Hawk, G. W. Bankert. Saturday night the ladies' lodge held its annual supper and the night being dreadful so few members were present but those few and visitors surely did help us to make a success of it and Camp number 20 of Baltimore came with 58 members and our net receipts were $32.00.

Miss Elsie Conaway is spending this week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Hattie McCauly accompanied her husband on his trip the past week and we feel she enjoyed herself to see the glow on her face since her return.

Farmers are busy cutting corn but the remarks that are heard on every side makes us all feel it must be a task as there is not even half of it standing.

Thrashing is about over in this neighborhood as we see the trashing machine has pulled out from Mr. Winfield Caples' farm.

Mr. Loun and family have moved into Mr. George Caples' tenant house for the present until the road is completed.

The force on the road is not as many as should be but those who are putting it down are surely working as the farmer needs all the help to get the corn cut and wheat in the ground.

Mr. Fosset has not been well at all now for some time.

Mr. Theodore Bitzel claims to have the champion crop of potatoes.
