NOTICE

From Friend

HOWARD E. PRICE

"It has just been brought to my attention that since I have been unable to attend to my insurance business for several weeks, it has been rumored that I am no longer in the insurance business. This notice is to advise my good friends and valued customers that I am still continuing my insurance business which is being attended to at my office, by my wife and and son. Your kindness and patience during my illness is very much appreciated, and for your continued patronage I am forever grateful."
