September Is Shown Cool, Wet, Cloudy

Sunshine 10% Below Normal. Rainfall Double

September of this year went down in the books as wet, cool and short of sunshine, according to John R. Weeks, state meteorologist in a resume of weather conditions.

A prolonged wet period occurred from the 11th to the 21 of the month. Heavy rain resulted in the east position of the state on September 20 and 21 from the approach and passage of a hurricane some distance off the coast.

Sunshine was 10 percent to 15 percent below normal.

The mean temperature was 65.8 degrees or 1.7 degrees below normal. The highest mean was 70.8 degrees at Solomons and the lowest 57.3 at Mt. Savage Summit. The highest temperature was 92 degrees at Keedysville on September 4 and Western Port of the 5th. The lowest was 34 degrees at Oakland on the 25th.

The average rainfall for the state was 5.70 inches or 2.54 inches above normal. The greatest amount for the month was 9.72 inches at Princess Anne and at least 1.59 inches at Mt. Savage Summit. The greatest 24-hour amount was 4 inches at Salisbury and Princess Anne on September 20.

Obituary

NOAH W. BLUNT

Noah W. Blunt, veteran waterman, died at his home at Perry's Corner Friday from paralysis after an illness of seven months. He was 76 years old.

Mr. Blunt was a native and lifelong resident of Queen Anne's county and followed the water until he was disabled by ill health.

Fifty-two years ago he married the former Mary Quillen, who survives him.

He also leaves four sons, Wilmer Blunt and Raymond Blunt of Centreville; William Blunt of Grasonville; and Walton Blunt of Goldsboro; three daughters, Mrs. Herbert Doub of Baltimore; Mrs. John Darling of Goldsboro and Miss Sadie Blunt of Grasonville; two brothers, James Blunt of Chesetertown and William Goodman of Centreville; and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Melvin of Grasonville. Twenty-nine grandchildren also remain.

Funeral services were held from Perry's Corner M. E. Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Lee S. Varner, pastor of the church, officiating.

The bearers were Charles P. Horney, Harry W. Horney, Edward S. Thompson, G. Jacob Jewell, Wells Yewell and Owen Yewell.

Interment was in Chesterfield cemetery in Centreville.

MARCUS E. ROGERS

Funeral services for Marcus Edgar Rogers, Crumpton farmer, were held from his late home on Wednesday afternoon of last week at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Thomas Rowlenson, pastor of the Crisfield M. E. Church and the Rev. Mr. Johnson of Smyrna, Del., officiating.

Mr. Rogers died suddenly while feeding stock on his farm just outside Crumpton Sunday morning, October 2, about 11 o'clock. His body was found by his wife. He was 64 years old.

A native of Delaware, Mr. Rogers had been a resident of Queen Anne's county for more than twenty-five years.

He is survived by his wife, the former Maude Ringgold, a son, Edgar Ringgold of Frederick and a grandchild, Patricia May Rogers of Crumpton.

The bearers were George Ringgold, Samuel Ringgold, Clifford Ringgold, Howard Ringgold and Mack Williams.

Interment was in Crumpton cemetery.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)
