STILL POND, Dec'r 4th, 1860.

Messrs. Editors:—It is well known to the community both of Still Pond and Worton, that a notice was politely handed to the Pastor of Christ Church at I. U., on Sunday the 18th of November, 1860. It was an invitation extended to the congregation of said Church to be present, not at a burial, not at a meeting, the business of which pertained to Church rites and ceremonies, but at an Exhibition of a Literary Debating Society, which was to be given in the Lecture Room of the Still Pond M. E. Church. The well known Pastor, wishing to preserve inviolate the sanctity of his Church, (which is commendable in any one living in a Christian land and amongst a Christian people,) thought that the reading of such a notice would be in direct violation of the holy ordinances of his Church, and thus the Rev. gentleman commented upon it, in brief but reprouchful language; but notwithstanding he thought the notice was so much at variance with the customary exercises of the Church he succeeded in reading it, which is to us a thing profoundly mysterious. To this mystery we politely request a solution. It is not our wonted practice, Messrs. Editors, to censure any Gentleman, especially one occupying such a position in life as the one in which the worthy Pastor, by the mercies of a kind God, has been placed; but we, as a Society, have adopted this method of making known the fact, that we did notice the uncalled for disrespect with which our notice was treated, much to our sorrow and dismay, and we demand some restitution for the wounded feelings of yours, THE YOUNG MEN'S LITERARY SOCIETY
