Select Poetry.

Shall we Know each other there? When we hear sweet music ringing

Through the bright celestial dome-When sweet angel voices ringing, Gladly bid us welcome home To the land of ancient story, Where the spirit knows no care;

In that land of light and glory "Shall we know each other there?" When the holy angels meet us, As we go to join their band,

Shall we know the friends that greet us In the glorious spirit land? Shall we see their dark eyes shining On us as in days of yore? Shall we feel their dear arms twining Fondly round us as before?

Yes, my earth-worn soul rejoices, And my weary heart grows light, For the thrilling angel voices And the angel faces bright, That shall welcome us in Heaven, Are the loved of long ago,

And to them 'tis kindly given

Thus their mortal friends to know. O! ye weary ones and lost ones, Drop not, faint not by the way! Ye shall join the loved and lost ones In the land of perfect day.

Harp strings touched by angel fingers Murmur in my raptured ear; Evermore their sweet tone lingers-We shall know each other there.
