MUSIC
By Evelyn Butler, '39

Our subject, music, has offered entertainment as well as learning. The school seems to have taken on new spirit and pep as music floats over the building from our music hall.

We have been taking up the interesting study of the background of countries and the life of composers. We have learned that the climate and work of each country is typified in the music of that country.

Miss Gibson, our instructor, wants us toto learn to enjoy good music such as "Peer Gynt Suite", by Edward Grieg; "Nutcracker Suite", by Peter Tschaikowsky, and "Till Eulenspiegel" by Richard Strauss. She usually gives us a record test from her electric victrola once every week.

So far we have studied folk songs, composed songs, and marine songs. We sincerely believe our new subject will turn out to be a walloping success.

F. F. A. INITIATION
By Bartlett Starkey, '40
