UP AND DOWN THE Eastern Shore

Pretty Women

Elkton—Pretty women 22 years of age proved the undoing of William Cobourn, 26-year-old photo-engraver of Philadelphia. Two years ago Cobourn married Ann Tait at Bristol, Pa. Without bothering about the necessity for a divorce he eloped to Elkton November 18 and married Beverly Fisher, night club singer. The first wife, learning of the episode, consulted the second Mrs. Cobourn. Both came to Elkton, consulted State's Attorney Ellis D. E. Rollins and swore out a bigamy warrant. Cobourn, father of an 18-months-old child, summed maters, "I must have been crazy."

Missing Man's Body Found

Hurlock—The body of Otis Jump, 21, missing since October 25, was found in his 1930 model coupe submerged in Marshy Hope Creek near Williamsburg at a spot just covered by water at low tide. The car apparently rolled over a shallow bank into deep water near the Boy Scout camp called Eight Acres. No roads lead from the camp to the river nor are any bridges in the vicinity. The body was discovered when George Collins rowing in the stream struck the car with his oar and investigated. Jump, employe of a button factory at Federalsburg, lived with his sister and drove daily to work.

Hermit's Wealth

Federalsburg—A hoard of approximately $1200 was found in the rafters and in yellowed newspapers at the home of Alfred Holder, 67-year-old recluse who was believed penniless. Holder before being taken to a Cambridge hospital told his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul, where they cculd find about $60. In an old water reservoir in the ceiling the couple found a purse containing $169 while a search four days later uncovered $1,000 mostly in old-style $1 bills wadded in newspapers.

Corn Raiders Held

Ridgely—Two negroes alleged to be part of a gang that had been making nightly raids on husked corn in the fields of Clear View farm owned by Richard Blackburn are being held pending arrest of the ringleader. Suspicion led to the negroes because of daily delivery of several barrels of corn to a milling company in Denton. Blackburn estimates his loss at fifteen barrels.

Toll Of Progress

Elkton—As a prelude to the erection of a new county courthouse workmen have begun dismantling historical "Ye Old Fountain Inn", stopping place for General George Washington on his travels from Virginia to northern points during the Revolution and for other noted figures of the time.

Want Treaty Eased

Ocean City—An effort is to be made at the next session of Congress to exempt Ocean City from the terms of the International Labor Conference treaty which requires all vessels less than 200 gross tons to maintain a crew of four licensed officers when they ply outside inland waters. The doom of marlin and other game and commercial fishing is seen in the treaty since boat captain declare it would be impossible to maintain a crew of four licensed officers.

Freighter, Yacht In Crash

Chesapeake City—Wrapped in fog the 6,000-ton freighter Lehigh crashed into the 65-foot yacht Lismore tied up in the Chesapeake and Delaware canal. Five of the six persons aboard the rammed yacht, which was badly damaged, leaped to safety while the sixth, a woman, jumped overboard but was rescued. The yacht was bound from New England for Miami where the owner and his guests had planned to spend the winter. No damage was done to the freighter.

Want Poultry Lab

Salisbury—A bid for the establishment in Wicomico county of one of the four proposed Federal laboratories to be established in the United States primarily to aid broiler raisers in combatting disease in their flocks is to be made under the auspices of the Rotary Club. The laboratory would cost about $50,000 and would require a similar sum annually for maintainance. As need for the laboratory here figures were cited showing that the Delmarva Peninsula now produces 21,000,000 broilers a year with an annual gross business of $12,000,000.

Queen Anne's Loses Vigorous Soccer Tilt 3-2

Chestertown Nips Locals Who Miss 10 Of 12 Scoring Chances

Beginning to find itself as a team Queen Anne's soccer boys turned in a fine brand of ball at the Queen Anne's ball park Sunday afternoon only to lose to Chestertown 3-2 when the county lads lacked shooting accuracy in the shadow of the goal posts.

The game was closely fought from beginning to end. Chestertown rolled up a commanding lead in the opening quarter when Brice and Owens notched goals and scored the winning point in the second quarter.

Queen Anne's came from far behind, Bob Yates boting a counter in the second quarter and Henry Lewis finding the range in the last period.

The score failed to do justice to the improved playing of the Queen Anne's outfit. They outplayed their Kent visitors two-to-one but out of twelve scoring opportunities only converted two. Twice the ball rolled free almost on the goal line with no Queen Anne's man able to get up in time.

The Queen Anne's defense was stiffened by the addition of Stevens, star Sudlersville halfback. His play together with yoeman work by Ken Baker, Tommy Price, Billy McFarland and Stant broke up numerous offensives by the visitors. Brice, Owens and Crew hooked up nicely on the Chestertown forward line to give their team an early start.

Queen Anne's still seeking its initial win in the Eastern Shore Soccer League, faces off against the Vienna A. C. at Queen Anne's park Sunday afternoon. Spokesmen for the club urge their rooters to come out in plentiful numbers to encourage the representative Queen Anne's team.

Templeville Leads School Attendance

Tri-County, Ingleside Tie For Second Place

Templeville led all Queen Anne' county schools in attendance during November with 97.1 percent present, Ingleside and Tri-County high school being close seconds with 97 percent each, according to figures announced by Mrs. Lola P. Brown, attendance officer.

The average attendance for the white elementary schools was 92.1 percent and for the white high schools, 95.3 percent. Unfavorable weather conditions pulled down attendance somewhat in the two-teacher schools.

The leaders among the various school groups were as follows: One-teacher schools, Templeville, 1st, 97.1; Ingleside, 2d, 97. Two-teacher schools, Barclay, 1st, 92.8; Queenstown, 2d, 90.5. Graded schools, Stevensville, 1st, 96.1; Centreville, 2d, 94. High schools, Tri-County, 1st, 97; Stevensville, 2d, 96.

Among the colored schools Burrisville led the one-teacher schools with 96.4; Centreville the graded with 95.5 and Kennard high school made 89.9 percent.

Soccer Squad Misses Guess; Pay With Party

Lose 2-to-1 Wager On Outcome Of Fall Sport Season. Will Pay

The Stevensville high school soccer team, close contenders for the Queen Anne's county high school championship this fall, found that the best laid plans of mice and men go awry, that there is many a slip between the cup and the lip and that one should not count his chickens until they are out of the shell. In consequences the boys are reaching for the wherewithal to throw a party.

Willard Thomas, junior reporter on the high school staff, tells the bad news as follows:

"Our soccer boys thought that they were making an encouraging agreement with the girls of the field-ball team and the teachers this fall. This, a three-way agreement, was that if the girls and boys both won the county championships, the teachers would give them a party. But if the boys lifted the championship and the girls did not, the girls would give the faculty and boys a party. On the third hand, if the championship was w on by the girls only it would be up to the boys to be the hosts. As we might have known, that is what happened."

The party with the faculty and field-ball girls as guests wil be held at Stevensville high school on the evening of Thursday, December 23. Refreshments, entertainment and general committees have been named by coach L. Kennard Rhodes from among the soccer team members and substitutes.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little boy 6 years old and go to school every day. I help my mother as much as I can and my daddy too, sometimes. Please bring me a farm set, speed-bike, football and a typewriter. Also some suits for school. Leave plenty of candy, nuts and tangerines. Don't forget mother, daddy, and sister and trim my tree real pretty.

Your little boy,
BILLY MAULE.

Police Court

A fairly long docket faced Magistrate J. West Thompson in the new quarters of Police Court this week.

Philip James, negro of the Centreville neighborhood, received a suspended sentence upon payment of costs for assault and battery.

Roderick Hill, Kent Island negro, paid a fine of $25 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. John Hill, his brother, was sentenced to six months in jail for carrying a concealed weapon and was held under $2,000 bond for action by the Grand Jury on a charge of assault and shooting with intent to kill. The pair were involved in a shooting affray several weeks ago following a quarrel between them, the outcome of a craps dispute.

Ernest Comegys, Ingleside negro, went to jail in default of payment of $5 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

James Parker, negro, waived a hearing on a charge of forging a check for $8 on which he was alleged to have signed the name of a county resident. He was held under $500 bond for action by the Grand Jury.

Charles O. Collins of Sudlersville was given a suspended sentence upon payment of costs on a charge of assault and battery.
