QUEEN ANNE

The Christmas party of the Queen Anne Community Club was held on Tuesday evening of last week, with the Hillsboro Community Club as guests. After a very brief business session a program was presented, after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the Executive Committee. The program was: Address of Welcome, by the president, Mrs. Lightner; a reading on the same subject by Mrs. Byron Barton; solo, "The Little Road Through Nazareth", Miss Violet Gibson; A Christmas Story, Mrs. Lightner; reading, "Mr. Buzby Carves The Turkey", Mrs. Horace Morgan. playlet, "The Lapse of Time", Mrs. Byron Barton, Mrs. Calvin Anderson and Mrs. Harry Gibson; Christmas stories by Miss Clara Price and Mrs. M. S. Cooper of the faculty of Tri-County high school, interspersed with the singing of Christmas carols by the gathering. Gifts were distributed to all visitors by Santa Claus in full regalia, impersonated by Mrs. Byron Barton. Members and visitors voted the party a great success. The slate for next year's officers was presented at the beginning of the evening: President, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Lightner; vice president, Mrs. Bernard Sparks; treasurer, Mrs. Marion Covey secretary, Mrs. Oscar Briscoe.

Rev. A. W. Strickland preached on Sunday morning from the subject, "The First Christmas Gift", in which he stressed the fact that the Christ Child was sent to us in order to impress us with the fatherhood of God. The hour for the Sunday School at Hillsboro Church has been changed to 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. S. H. Reynolds is quite ill at his home. His friends are hoping soon to learn of his complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barto, of Takoma Park, D. C., spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Crouse of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cahall and daughter Mae, of Hillsboro, Mrs. Harris Legg and Mrs. May Dean, of Queen Anne, were dinner guests on Christmas Day of Mr. and Mrs. Russom Legg, of Stevensville. Mrs. Harris Legg, of Stevensville, returned with Mr. and Mrs. Crouse, and will spend the winter with Mrs. Dean. Other guests at the Christmas dinner party were Misses Katherine Legg and Thelma Chew, of Wilmington, Del.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. York were guests of relatives in Washington, D. C., on Monday.

Mr. Donald Flowers of Penn's Grove, N. J.., and Miss Eleanor Flowers, of Washington, D. C., spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Flowers.

Mr. James Nelson spent the Christmas holidays in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rutter were Christmas guests of out-of-town relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore and Mr. Oliver Neavitt of Baltimore, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Neavitt.

Several of our townspeople, including Mrs. Nellie Willis, played Santa Claus for those who would otherwise have had rather slim Christmas cheer. Mrs. Willis does many things each Christmas season to add to the joy of the season for under-privileged children and others of the community.

Schools closed here for the Christmas holidays on Thursday afternoon, at which time an excellent program was given in the high school by the high and elementary pupils, both programs being combined this year to enable patrons who wished to do so to witness both programs. The recitations and playlets were very well rendered, and enjoyed by those present. The schools will re-open on Tuesday.

Revival services will begin at Hillsboro M. E. Church on next Sunday evening. In the morning the Holy Communion will be celebrated, and revival services will begin at the evening service. Rev. A. W. Strickland will be the speaker, and special music will be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaskie, of Baltimore, singing and playing evangelists. The services will continue for two weeks; and the Kaskies will remain here through that time, up to and including Sunday evening, January 15.

The Sunday School Chrstmas program and treat for the pupils at St. Paul's M. E. Church, South, Queen Anne, was held on Friday evening. The little ones acquitted themselves with credit as always. Hillsboro M. E. Church held its Christmas program and treat on Monday evening. The program consisted of songs, recitations and Christmas stories.

Relatives from this town attended the burial services for Mr. Howard Anderson, of Towson, Baltimore, who died on Thursday last. Funeral services were held at the late home on Sunday evening, and the remains were brought to Denton and interred in the family lot on Monday. Mr. Anderson was an uncle of Mrs. Emmett Barton, of this town.

The oyster truck of Mr. William Race was in collision with a truck on Kent Island on Wednesday of last week, in which Mr. Rice's truck was almost demolished. Several of the men on the other truck were bumped and bruised somewhat, but no one was seriously hurt, fortunately.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY
By Jack Smith, '40

The juniors entertained the seniors at their annual party Friday night. The party was held in the high school which was appropriately decorated for the Christmas season.

Crepe paper was festooned across the rooms and a big Christmas bell hung from the center. Branches of holly were strewn about the room and pine and red candles burning completed the red and green color scheme. An electrically lighted Christmas tree added to the party's holiday spirit.

There were approximately seventy guests at the party. The guests assembled about 8 o'clock and soon various kinds of activites began. A nicklaodeon furnished the music and those who enjoy dancing were soon engaged in this pastime. A "Paul Jones" brought nearly every one to the circle and those who had never danced before were soon swinging their partners.

We juniors greatly enjoyed preparing fo rthe party and hope it was a success.
