Record Number At Luncheon Of Woman's Club

Book Club Hears Report On "The Yearling". Discussion Series Planned

A record attendance by members of the Centreville Woman's Club marked the January meeting which took the form of a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Elzey on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. A. A. M. Dewing, club president, conducted a short business period during the session.

Reports on the Community Rest Room, with requests for donations of furnishings, and of the convention of presidents of all Women's Clubs of Maryland, recently held in Baltimore, were given by Mrs. Dewing.

The Book Club, a departmental activity of the Woman's Club which meets bi-weekly, held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Dewing Friday afternoon with Mrs. Guy E. Harmon, president of the Book Club, in charge. A report on "The Yearling" was given by Mrs. Charles Barney.

Other officers of the Book Club includes Mrs. Howard W. Ryland, vice-president, and Mrs. Elmer C. Kessler, secretary. The three officers with Mrs. M. Wilson Harris comprise the departmental committee.

Membership in the Book Club is limited to twenty and a report on a book is presented at each meeting. Dates for reporting are drawn by lot and selection of books is made from a list prepared by the committee.

A series of discussion on Interior Decortion will be featured among the activities of the Woman's Club this year. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Elzey on Friday. The committee to present the series consists of Mrs. Elzey, chairman; Mrs. Sterling G. Harris, Mrs. Elmer C. Kessler, Mrs. W. Marvin Barton and Mrs. Milton B. Wolcott.

Ladies' Aid Presents Alarm Clock To Pastor

The annual Christmas party of the Dominion Ladies' Aid Society was held on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Thompson. The event which has been growing in popularity each year was attended by a large gathering.

Following the business meeting the names of the "secret sisters" were reveal and new ones drawn for 1939. Considerable amusement was aroused when the Aid presented their pastor with an alarm clock so that he would be on time this year. Other amusing gifts were awarded. Officers are to be elected at the February meeting.

Mr. Howard Legg of Annapolis spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Archie Legg.

In Memoriam

JONES—Samuel G., who departed this life one year ago January 11, 1938.

The depths of sorrow I can not tell,
of the loss of one I loved so well.
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory I shall always keep.

I am lonesome and blue,
God knows that is true—
A smile on my face, and heartache,
Thinking dear husband, of you.

Today my heart is heavy;
My thoughts are all of thee
Oh! how I miss you Father dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.

BY HIS LOVING WIFE AND SON CARROLL.

There is someone who misses you sadly,
And finds the time long since you went.
There is someone who thinks of you always,
And tries to be brave and content.

Gone is the face I loved so dear,
Silent is the voice I loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thoughts to reach.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no, it isn't true;
One long year has passed, dear Father,
And my heart still aches for you.

BY HIS DAUGHTER MARGARET.

REGULAR JOCKEYS RIDE IN "KENTUCKY"

Some of the turf's most noted jockeys boot thoroughbreds around the racing strip in scenes of "Kentucky" ,stirring film featuring a grand horse and a tense, human interest story. The romantic throbs are furnished by Loretta Young and Richard Greene. The Churchill Theatre likes "Kentucky" so well it is running the film a full week starting with a matinee Saturday and continuing through Friday.

Pitch League Will Tee Off On Monday

Four Aces To Be Rivals' Main Target

The Centreville Pitch League will open its third annual tournament Monday evening when W. Marvin Barton's Four Aces mix with Joe Handley's Pioneer Pointers at the home of John H. Moffett while W. Layton Holton brings his Tigers to the lair of the Wildcats at the home of their captain, John Palmer Smith.

The league was all set to inaugurate the season last Monday evening. The Pointers, however, could not shake all four men loose for the evening and the festivities were postponed.

As usual, interest in the League is off at a high pitch. Word has gone round that the Four Aces, twice winners in two tries, must be headed off this year if the other pitch fanciers are to look the card-playing world in the face without embarrassment.

SUDLERSVILLE HOMEMAKERS

The Sudlersville Homemakers Club met Monday afternoon for its January meeting. Mrs. Walbert, the president, presided. Miss Kirk had charge of the demonstration which was "The Keeping Of Accounts." The club had such a nice time learning some new Christmas music that they have decided to learn some new songs at their regular meetings. Mrs. Joseph M. George picked out three for this meeting, one was a love song, another a novelty song and the third just a good substantial song, more on the patriotic line.

Obituary

WALTER M. GARDNER

Walter M. Gardner, veteran Kent Island watermen, was found dead in bed from a heart attack at his home in Grasonville Tuesday morning. He had suffered several strokes in the past few years and his death was not wholly unexpected. He was 76 years old.

Mr. Gardner was born on Kent Island, the son of the late Hiram and Fannie Gardner, and was a life-long resident of Queen Anne's county.

He was an uncle by marriage of Attorney William R. Horney of Centreville, having married the former Miss Florence Horney, who died about ten years ago.

Mr. Gardner was a waterman by occupation until a dozen years ago. He was a member of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Funeral services will be held from the Grasonville M. P. Church this afternoon, Thursday, at 2 o'clock with the Rev. P. M. R. Schauer, pastor officiating.

Interment will be in Kingsley M. E. Churchyard near Chester.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Life" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The Golden Text will be from Providence 12:23—"In the way of righteousness is life, and is the pathway thereof there is no death."
